Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

June 11, 2017
The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity
Exodus 34:4b-6, 8-9
Daniel 3:52, 53, 54, 55
2 Corinthians 13:11-13
John 3:16-18

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him might not perish
but might have eternal life.

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

Focus questions:

1. Describe the hardest sacrifice you ever made.
2. Relate a time when you experienced the Spirit challenging or nudging you.
3. John 3:16 is such a popular verse that people will cite it by chapter and verse only. And it is understood. What do these words mean to you?

Family and children's question:

Talk about the time when you failed to act as Jesus and how you felt Jesus forgive you after.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Teacher: You can be sure that if Moses were alive he would be considered a remarkable man.

Student: He sure ought to be – he would be more than 2500 years old. The teacher expressed Moses as a great gift from God qualitatively while the student understood Moses quantitatively measuring his life span in years. True, each of us is quantitatively a measurable entity. At the same time every one of us has within us something immeasurable.

Today, the Feast of Pentecost revives ‘the immeasurable within us’. Jesus, the incarnated Son of God lived among us to make us grasp the ‘immeasurable within us.’ His whole life, his deeds and words were his ways of making us realize that we can live God’s immeasurable life in our human measurable bodies just as Jesus lived the immeasurable God in his measurable human body.

Now He sends His Spirit from Heaven , The HOLY SPIRIT to abide within us so that we might always be reminded of the immeasurable Godly qualities within us. We have received the Holy Spirit who can make us live the Godly potentials. If we cooperate with the Holy Spirit we will receive His seven gifts (wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord). His seven gifts will make our lives bear his 12 fruits: charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, and chastity. Let us live the immeasurable in our measurable body.

Next week end June 10 and 11 is our Golden Jubilee Feast weekend of our Parish Patron, St. Thomas More. Please find the Novena prayers to St. Thomas More in this bulletin. Please pray to St. Thomas More, who himself was a family man with children and grandchildren, to intercede for us to God for heavenly grace upon our families.

Friday June 9th we have Military Bridge at 6:30 pm. Tickets are sold in the Narthex.

Sunday June 11th is the pancake breakfast after all the masses.

12:15 mass on Sunday June 11th is a special mass for all married couples. All married couples are invited.

Red Balloons: Volunteers of families of the children’s mass will tie red balloons to your cars on Pentecost Sunday. Please bring the balloons to your home and tie them to your mail box. This is just an outward expression of the spiritual truth that you and your household are filled with gifts of Holy Spirit. The waving balloons proclaim your inner Spirit to show and share the fruits of the Holy Spirit like love, service, kindness, etc.

Living memoir - Golden Jubilee Journal: In celebration of our Golden Jubilee we want to release a journal of our parish family. It would serve us as a time capsule bringing the past to the present and rendering the present as a living document featuring pictures and stories for the future. I invite you to be a part of this living memoir.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

PARISH OUTREACH

The countdown has begun...how many days are left until school is out? This is a question that has a "ripple effect" for everyone in the community. What will the children do all day? How will the working parents handle child care? What will the teachers do all day? How much easier will traffic be in the morning and afternoon rush hours? We here at Outreach are the rocks in the stream; we are here no matter the season or weather. We take care of our needy population and we rely on you, our parishioners, to help us help them.

Just a brief note to remind everyone that there will be a Military Bridge on June 9th here at St. Thomas More Church. Please understand there is no bridge, and it is not a military exercise. It is a night of fun and prizes...we do try for a sort of military precision in the way the game is played, but we laugh a lot when precision is not the outcome! You can contact Marie Utter at 631-234-4102. You'll be glad you did! Please remember, no tickets are sold at the door that evening!

Remember: Good friends are the rare jewels of life – difficult to find and impossible to replace!

St Vincent de Paul Conference

DID YOU KNOW?

" Vincentians are called to journey together toward holiness."

With this in mind, several of us travelled to the south Bronx early one morning. We were headed toward the convent of the Missionaries of Charity, at St. Rita's parish. Our goal was to help the nuns and volunteers prepare lunch for 52 people from the community. We chopped, sliced, washed, served and cleaned, all the while praying the rosary! (They also provide a homeless shelter for 20 men).

When work was done, we were able to pray in the sisters' chapel and view some of Mother Teresa's mementos. She is the founder of this order. It was a tiring, but energizing day.

The nuns we met clearly put into action the words of Mother Teresa:

"God so loved the world that He gave His only Son.

God still loves the world and sends you and me to be His love,
His compassion to the poor."

"Teachers may meet with other teachers for prayer or Bible study to the same extent that they may engage in other conversation or nonreligious activities." from Free To Speak, Guidelines from U.S. Department of Education

School to Teacher: Don't Pray for your Colleagues:

Maine: H.S. educational technician, Toni Richardson, filed charges of religious discrimination and retaliation with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) in May, after being instructed to never use phrases like, "I will pray for you" and "You are in my prayers" in private conversations with coworkers.

Toni had tried to privately encourage a coworker with whom she attends church, by saying, "I will pray for you." Yet months later, after a falling out, this coworker lodged a complaint against her and the school gave Toni an official "coaching memorandum" which told her that stating, 'you were in my prayers', is not acceptable. The memorandum said that she could not use "phrases that integrate public and private belief systems" while at school. The memo specifically explains she will face discipline or dismissal in the future for using these phrases.

"What Augusta Public Schools did by punishing Toni for discussing her faith in a private conversation with a coworker is unconscionable," said a Maine law firm. "The law is clear: employers cannot discriminate against employees who privately discuss their faith while at work."

"School employees are not required to hide their faith from each other while on campus," said First Liberty Senior Counsel.

Parish History Project

We are working on collecting and duplicating the final items for our parish history project. The next few months will be spent in completing the video editing so that it may be shown to the parish in September.

We are still looking for those who would like to share their memories of the past at St. Thomas More on video. If you would like to participate in being interviewed, even if it's just a short memory to share, kindly contact us at the special email address we've setup: history@stmli.org (or feel free to speak to me about it if you run into me).

Any materials which have been lent to the project for duplication will be returned, if they've not been already, over the next couple of weeks. Those materials which were not identified with an owner's name will be placed into the official parish archives in the Rectory.

Thank you!

History Project Coordinator

St. Thomas More Church 50th Anniversary Golden Jubilee Capital Campaign

Capital Campaign Building Momentum! Now over $360,000 Pledged

Our Capital Campaign continues to build momentum with additional gifts received each day. As of this past week, 75 families have returned their pledge for a total of $361,775. This strong response is a most encouraging sign that the campaign is well on its way toward success. In the upcoming weeks every family is encouraged to consider making a generous pledge payable over a period of three to four years. The campaign is being conducted on the basis of equal sacrifice, not equal giving. Not every family can make the same size pledge, but every family can make the same size sacrifice.

Your Support is a Vote of Confidence!

The challenge we face as a parish family is obvious; the need is clear. Now is the time for St. Thomas More to move forward with the Renovation of our Church and to repave our parking lot. We are meeting the challenge in much the same way our parents and grandparents met the challenge by establishing our parish and building the buildings we use today. By our response to this new challenge, we become an important part of that heritage and lay the foundation on which the future will be built.

Campaign Presentations Continue!

All parishioners have been invited to attend a short presentation to learn more about the important details of our campaign.

Please join us In the Church after all of the Masses on the weekend of June 10th & 11th

Campaign Office Opens

If you have any questions about the campaign, please call Andy White our Campaign Director at 234-5551 or on his cell phone at 516-607-3635.

Novena Prayers to St. Thomas More

First Day (For each of us)

Dear St. Thomas More, in your earthly life, you were a model of prudence. You never thrust yourself rashly into any serious undertaking; instead, you tested the strength of your powers and waited on God's will in prayer and penance, then boldly carried it out without hesitation. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for me the virtues of patience, prudence, wisdom and courage. Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be...

Second Day (For our children)

Dear St. Thomas More, in your earthly life, you were a model of diligence. You shunned procrastination, applied yourself with fervor to your studies, and spared no effort in achieving mastery in any skill. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for our children the virtue of diligence and persistence in my preparations for all undertakings.

Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be

Third Day (For those suffer from unemployment)

Dear St. Thomas More, in your earthly life, you were a model of industriousness. You threw yourself wholeheartedly into everything you did, and you found enjoyment even in the most serious things. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for me the grace of always having suitable employment, the grace to find interest in everything fitting, and the fortitude always to pursue excellence in whatever task God gives me to do. Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be...

Fourth Day (For peace with those with whom we struggle to live/work)

Dear St. Thomas More, in your earthly life, you were a brilliant lawyer and a just and compassionate judge. You attended to the smallest details of your legal duties with the greatest care, and you were unflinching in your pursuit of justice tempered by mercy. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for me the grace to overcome every temptation to laxity, arrogance, and rash judgment in my (legal) duties. Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be...

Fifth Day (For those who suffer the problem of addiction)

Dear St. Thomas More, in your earthly life, you were a model of humility. You never allowed pride to lead you to take on enterprises beyond your abilities; even in the midst of earthly wealth and honor, you never forgot your total dependence on your Heavenly Father. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for me the grace of an increase in humility, and the wisdom not to overestimate my own powers. Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be...

Sixth Day (For a happy home and peace in the family)

Dear St. Thomas More, in your earthly life, you were a model husband and father. You were loving and faithful to both of your wives, and a diligent provider and example of virtue for your children. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for me the grace of a happy home, peace in my family, and the strength to persevere in chastity according to my state of life.

Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be...

Seventh Day (For health and spiritual welfare)

Dear St. Thomas More, in your earthly life, you were a model of Christian fortitude. You suffered bereavement, disgrace, poverty, imprisonment and a violent death; yet you bore all with the strength and good cheer for which you were known throughout your life. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for me the grace to bear all the crosses that God sends me with patience and joy. Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be...

Eighth Day (For the gift of discernment)

Dear St. Thomas More, in your earthly life, you were a loyal child of God and a steadfast son of the Church, never taking your eyes off the crown for which you strove. Even in the face of death, you trusted in God to give you the victory, and He rewarded you with the palm of martyrdom. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for me and mine the grace of final perseverance and protection from sudden and unprovided death, so that we may one day enjoy the Beatific Vision in your glorious company. Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be...

Ninth Day (For the special needs of the family)

Dear St. Thomas More, you spent your whole earthly life preparing for the life to come. Everything you endured prepared you not only for the glory God wished to bestow upon you in heaven, but for your work as the patron of lawyers, judges and statesmen, and steadfast friend to all who call upon you. Through your prayers and intercession, obtain for us aid in all our necessities, both corporal and spiritual, and the grace to follow in your footsteps, until at last we are safely home with you in the mansions our Father has prepared for us in heaven.

Our Father...Hail Mary...Glory Be..
