Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

April 22, 2018
Fourth Sunday of Easter
Acts 4:8-12
Psalm: 118:1, 8-0, 21-23, 26, 28, 29
1 John 3:1-2
John 10:11-18

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

Jesus said:

"I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. A hired man, who is not a shepherd and whose sheep are not his own, sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away, and the wolf catches and scatters them. This is because he works for pay and has no concern for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd. This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down on my own. I have power to lay it down, and power to take it up again. This command I have received from my Father."

Focus questions:

1. What name do you use for God when addressing Him in prayer? What does that say about your relationship with God?
2. Who are some of the good shepherds who have guided you in your life?
3. Describe a time when you heard the voice of the Good Shepherd.

Family and children's question:

This week try to say Psalm 23 each night.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

A pessimist complains about the noise made when opportunity knocks at the door.

An optimist rejoices to hear the footsteps of opportunity when it comes to knock at the door. The Resurrection stories we read in the four Gospels are optimistic. At every appearance Jesus uplifted the disciples from their despair and prepared them to look with optimism and hope at their life with Jesus henceforth.

In the Gospel Jesus shows how to look at his death and Resurrection. As much as his crucifixion was inflicted on Him by the people's ignorance of who He is, Jesus now does not hold them for their failures or make them feel guiltier. Rather he invites them to see in Him and accept Him as the fulfillment of God's plan, as foretold in the scriptures.

In the first reading Peter repeats to his hearers what Jesus explained to them. By pointing out how people have failed to see what Scripture has already foretold about Jesus death and Resurrection, Peter invites them to see the fulfilment of Scripture in Jesus and to live the time of God's fulfilled promises.

Resurrection is the most generous act of God not to accuse us of what we have failed to do but to acquit us and to cherish all the promises of God which begin to be reality in Jesus' resurrection. Let us start anew. Let us allow God's promises to be realized in our hearts.

First Holy Communion of our young men and women will be celebrated at the 5:00 pm Mass of Saturday, April 21st and 28th and at 12:15 pm Mass of Sunday, April 22nd and 29th. We appreciate everyone's understanding if their usual seat is not available at those Masses.

Please mark your calendar for the Volunteer Appreciation Party on Friday, May 4th at 7:00 pm. It is a dinner and dance evening for all our volunteers. The dinner is free; but please ensure your place by depositing a $20check which will be returned to you when you show up for the dinner. If by mistake any of the volunteers did not get an invitation by mail, please feel free to call Theresa Recce at the Rectory. We need you to join the party. Cordial welcome to all volunteers for the appreciation party.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

PARISH OUTREACH

It's finally springtime planting season; the earth is ready for renewal, neighbors are finally leaving their indoor comfort zones and emerging into the daylight! So what are you going to do to celebrate the beauty and joyousness of this season? Are you going to plant a bush? Grow a garden? Help a neighbor with some outdoor task? Whatever you decide, do it for a good reason; to celebrate life! To rejoice in the fact that you are alive and able to do things, no matter how insignificant you might think it is. Helping others is what we are all about here at Outreach; we are privileged to see the effects our help can achieve. If you can donate some food or paper products or personal items like toothpaste or shampoo, etc., it can make such a difference to someone's world.

And remember: All of us could take a lesson from the weather. It pays no attention to criticism.

Christians Are Persecuted, Not Privileged, as Students are Taught at GWU:

George Washington University in Washington D.C. is hosting a training seminar to teach the perils of "Christian privilege." The event description asks, "How do Christians in the USA experience life in an easier way than non-Christians?" "... are there places where Christians have built-in advantages over non-Christians?" The learning objectives indicate the session will touch on "white privilege" as well.

However, the many Christians who have been mocked, ostracized, sued, lost jobs, businesses, or military rank for following their Christian beliefs and conscience, could challenge the premise of this training seminar at GWU and a similar philosophy at Simmons College in Boston and other universities. Instances of prejudice and persecution against Christians has substantially increased in the U.S. and the world.

- * German Chancellor Angela Merkel declared that Christianity is "the most persecuted religion in the world."
  - * UK researcher, Rupert Short, says "Christians are targeted more than any other body of believers" and that Christianity is in peril, like no other religion. He is concerned that "200 million Christians are socially disadvantaged, harassed or actively oppressed for their beliefs."
  - * The Scottish Parliament is demanding that more be done to protect Catholics who bear the brunt of religiously-motivated hate crimes in Scotland. While Catholics comprise only 15% of Scottish population, they suffer 57% of hate crimes.
  - * In the Middle East, the birthplace of Christianity, Christians are escaping or being killed, tortured, or enslaved. For example, in 1990, Iraq had 1.2 million Christians. Today, there are less than 200,000.
