Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

June 3, 2018

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ
Exodus 24: 3-8

Psalm: 116: 12-13, 15-16, 17-18

Hebrews 9: 11-15

Matthew 14: 12-16, 22-26

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew:

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, Jesus' disciples said to him,

"Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

He sent two of his disciples and said to them,

"Go into the city and a man will meet you, carrying a jar of water. Follow him. Wherever he enters, say to the master of the house,

"The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"

Then he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make the preparations for us there."

The disciples then went off, entered the city, and found it just as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover.

While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said,

"Take it; this is my body."

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it.

He said to them,

"This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Focus questions:

1. The disciples left the Last Supper singing. Do you sing at Mass? If not, what keeps you from singing?
2. Imagine not being able to receive the Eucharist. How would that affect you?
3. Relate a time when you prepared a special meal.

Family and children's question:

How often do you eat together as a family. If you do not eat together each night because of different schedules, what can you do to make the meals the whole family shares special?

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

A dad was complaining to his friend about his son, a college student. "My son neither calls, nor emails... no communication."

The friend advised him: "The surest way to get your son to communicate home is to send him a letter saying, 'Here is $200. Spend it any way you like.'"

"And that will make my son write to me or call me?"

"Yes indeed. You forget to enclose the money."

The son will call home to find out the mystery of the letter. That is what a mystery does. It invites to communicate and enter into a relationship which we believe to be in our heart but not yet realized.

Today is the Solemn Feast of the Holy Trinity: God is one in being but three in persons. It is a big unsolvable mystery. This mystery of God is not given to us to be solved but to approach Him to be experienced and lived. Trinity is a mystery in the sense it cannot be expressed in any human categories but it can uplift humans to experience it in divine categories. One cannot explain it to others but one can always help oneself and others to enter into it and live it.

God the Father created the universe out of love. Jesus manifested this divine love by offering himself on the Cross. The Holy Spirit is the fire of love in the hearts of believers to uplift them to love God and others as God does. Love is the key for the mystery to be understood, lived and shared with others. Let us reflect the love of our Trinitarian God.

Parish Feast of St. Thomas More: This year we celebrate our Parish Patron feast of St. Thomas More on the weekend of June 16th and 17th. St Thomas More is a father of a family, a saint of and for the family. We will pray special Novena Prayers through him for our families, especially for our children, starting from Saturday 9th to Sunday 17th June. We will also have social events to celebrate ourselves as a parish-family under the patronage of St. Thomas More.

Saturday, June 16th at 7:00 pm is "Dancing Under the Stars" -Parish Dinner/ Dance party. $25 per person.

Volunteers are at the Narthex to take your orders for the Dinner/Dance.

Sunday June 17th after every Mass we have the pancake breakfast. It is our parish family time. Please include this parish family event in your personal calendar and be part of the parish family celebration.

Feast Weekend Raffle is a major fund raising event. The first prize is $10,000; Second prize $2,000 and third prize is $1,000 . Please try your luck to win the grand prize-- $50 a ticket; three tickets for $100.

Raffle Tickets are sold in the Narthex.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

PARISH OUTREACH

Have you seen our beautiful “new” Hauppauge Library??? Located at 1373 Veterans Hwy., opposite the Dunkin Donuts on Sparton Lane, it is a light, airy, spacious place to wander among the book and DVD collections, sit at a computer, get comfortable with a book in a lounge chair, or perhaps take a class in Chair Yoga or play a game or two of Mahjong, Scrabble or anything else you can dream up! There are special nights of Bingo or discussions of Opera, or even cooking classes. Our library is a very active place to be, and now it is a spacious place to be!!!!

Everything everywhere is beginning to bloom...and so should we...It’s time for that renewal of spirit, of commitment, of hope. Plant something, do something, go somewhere. Get out, not just outdoors, but outside of your routine. Even if it’s just for a short while, do something different – you would be surprised how refreshed you will feel.

Thank you for your contributions to The Lenten Project! Thanks to you, Outreach benefitted greatly, and will be able to provide many needed items for our clients!!!

Tip of the week: Spray your Tupperware with non-stick cooking spray before pouring in tomato-based sauces... no more stains!!!!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

Thank you to all those who supported the 7th graders at their Yard Sale last Saturday. Rain did not dampen their enthusiasm! The 7th graders raised over $2,700 for Mary’s Meals, an organization that feeds over a million poor children everyday at their schools. The 7th graders were terrific, they helped organize the items, sell, carry purchases to people’s cars and clean up after.

Note of THANKS

I wanted to once again say a few words of thanks to my wonderful parish family of St. Thomas More. Your prayers, support and encouragement were a great blessing to me as I undertook my four years of diaconate formation. You have so warmly welcomed me as a new deacon. As a member of this parish since it began, though, this is no surprise to me, because this is how my family and I have been loved by countless many, and how I've witnessed the love shared between others here, for over 50 years. I am overjoyed and humbled to be assigned here to minister to you all along side my brother deacons and our beloved pastor and visiting priests. Together, sharing the Spirit of love, let us build the City of God.

Your servant in the peace of Christ,
Deacon Matt

"Military power wins battles, but Spiritual power wins wars." General George Marshall

On Memorial Day we honor our deceased veterans and remember that, even today, they are under attack by freedom-from-religion groups.

In 1934, the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) erected the Mojave Desert Veterans Memorial Cross atop Sunrise Rock in the middle of the 1.6 million-acre Mojave National Preserve in CA, in honor of WWI veterans. But in 2001, the ACLU brought a lawsuit from one individual who lived outside the state. Fortunately, in 2010, the U.S. Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality of the land transfer of the veterans memorial to the VFW, allowing the cross to be restored. "Judges and lawyers may have played their roles, but it was the veterans who earned this memorial, and it is for them it rises once more," said a Liberty Institute attorney.

A 40 foot-tall World War I memorial in the shape of a cross has stood for almost a century in Bladensburg, MD. A U.S. Court of Appeals has declared this Peace Cross unconstitutional. Defenders of the monument hope to take the case to the Supreme Court arguing that the ruling sets a dangerous precedent, threatening other national treasures.

A Memorial Day display featuring 79 white, handmade crosses, representing residents who died in America's wars, were posted along a state highway in Georgia. The crosses were abruptly taken down when one person complained about the display. "It was never about religion - it was to honor them," said Mayor Philyaw. "The cross is a 'rest in peace' symbol to me."
