Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

May 19, 2019
Fifth Sunday of Easter
Acts 14:21-27
Psalm 145:8-9, 10-11, 12,13
Revelation 7:1-5a
John 13:31-33a. 34-35

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

When Judas had left them, Jesus said, "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him. If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and God will glorify him at once. My children, I will be with you only a little while longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Focus Questions:

1. How do you try to love others as Jesus loved?
2. Describe a time when you were shown compassion. How did that lead you to be more compassionate?
3. Share a story of someone whose love for others mirrored what Jesus calls his followers to do. How has that person inspired you?

Family and children's question:

How do you try to show love to others?

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

A friendly waitress couldn't get a smile out of a certain customer, who was dour, depressed and dejected all through the dinner, even though the food was delicious. As the woman paid her bill and was leaving, the waitress said, "Have a nice day!" The woman responded snappishly, "I'm sorry, but I have made other plans."

Life's happiness or sadness depends on whatever we let happen. No one can make us happy unless we allow it to happen.

Today's Gospel uses the imagery of the Shepherd and sheep to explain the indivisible and everlasting relationship between God and His people through Jesus. Jesus the Shepherd, explains the everlasting and never perishing love of God by saying, "I give them eternal life and they shall never perish." He adds that, "No one can take them out of my hand." It means that He holds us together forever, not to chain or imprison us but to live endlessly with us. As He explains in another place (Luke 15:3-7) through the same imagery, we have all the freedom to get lost from his flock. But He never fades in His everlasting love to search and join us to the flock.

From God's side the love relationship is everlastingly open. Unless we prefer to get lost, there is nothing hindering us to savor and cherish His love. The love between the shepherd and the sheep is as indivisible as the love between Jesus and God the Father. "My Father ... has given them (Sheep) to me, ... and no one can take them out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one."

Congrats to Deacon Bob Weisz: Deacon Bob celebrates 25 years of his service as a Deacon to the community of St. Thomas More, Hauppauge; it is the Silver Jubilee Year of his Diaconate. Bob is the longest serving clergy for our community. Let us celebrate Him on May 19 at 12:15 pm mass for all that God has done through him. Felicitations will follow in Walden Hall after the mass.

LET US CELEBRATE: Parish Feast Weekend: Please include this event of your parish-family in your personal calendar and be part of your parish-family celebration.

Our Feast Day committee has planned to begin the celebration with a Dinner/ Dance, "Dancing Through Decades" on Saturday June 8th at 6:00 pm; just $25 per person. Sunday June 9th we will have Pancake Breakfast after every mass. The children go free.

Feast Weekend Raffle is a major fund raising event. The first prize is $10,000, second prize $2,000 and third prize is $1,000. Please try your luck to win the grand prize-- $ 50 a ticket; three tickets for $100.

Q & A by Fr. Antony

Why is it ALWAYS referred to as Jesus seated at “the RIGHT hand of the father”? Does the word “right” mean the actual right hand or does “right” mean the CORRECT side of The Father?

“Hand” most frequently represents the ownership, power, or control that its possessor (either an individual or a people) exercises. The hand can represent the whole person, symbolizing the achievement of what is promised with the mouth. This can be seen in the story of the exodus from Egypt. God's hand, described as mighty (Exodus 3:19-20), overcomes the hand of the Egyptians (Exodus 3:8) through miraculous plagues and the parting of the Red Sea. The “right hand” can be used interchangeably with the “hand” in poetic texts (Judges 5:26 ; Psalm 74:11 ). The hand of God, and especially the right hand, is also understood as a place of salvation, refuge, and protection. Of all God's work of salvation, sending His own Son is the greatest and complete work of God.”

In times past, God spoke in partial and various ways to our ancestors through the prophets; in these last days, he spoke to us through a son, whom he made heir of all things and through whom he created the universe. (Letter to Hebrews 1:1).

At His death Jesus proclaimed that He has completed God's work.

(Jesus said, “It is finished.” And bowing his head, he handed over the spirit - Gospel John 19:30). Then He went back to God from whence He came (John 16:18) and is enthroned at the right Hand of God (Acts of the Apostles 2:33).

Thus in this background “Seated at the Right Hand of God” is an expression to mean that God accomplished His Salvation work fully and once and for all in Jesus. Jesus, the Second Person of the Trinity has accomplished God's work in His incarnation, passion, death and Resurrection. God's Hand has saved the world through His Son.

Right Hand is the Biblical expression, not to diminish or degrade the Left Hand. It is a Semitic (Bible) expression to describe that the work of Salvation is completed and the mission of God is accomplished according to God's will.

Protecting Religious Freedom & Conscience Rights for Doctors & Nurses

The Conscience & Religious Freedom office within the Department of Health & Human Services (HHS) was created last year to hear complaints from pro-life medical personnel who claimed they're getting fired or retaliated against for their beliefs. Although federal law already barred employers from discriminating against anti-abortion medical practitioners, these laws failed to give a practical remedy - the right to file a civil suit. This new office was intended to correct this and to stop what Cardinal Timothy Dolan called the "increasing and fierce attack on conscience rights" in medicine.

According to Director Roger Severino, the division's purpose is to protect health care providers "from being coerced into participating in activities that violate their consciences, such as abortion, sterilization, or assisted suicide."

In its first year, the HHS division received 348 complaints about religious or moral discrimination, a significant increase over previous years. "The word has gotten out that we're open for business and we are going to take the laws that we enforce seriously," said Director Severino. "There's a real issue out here where people feel their rights have been violated and that they need redress and I think that explains the big growth in the number of complaints. It's been long overdue that they need attention."

Other issues the office considers is people who oppose vaccines that are derived from fetal tissue from aborted babies, and medical students who object to being trained to do abortions. Conscience protections for those who oppose doctor-assisted suicide is also a growing concern as more states legalize the life-destroying practice.

The Conscience & Religious Freedom office not only "furthers the cause of religious freedom but recognizes that religious freedom is more than just the right to believe what we want in the privacy of our heads, homes, and houses of worship," wrote author John Stonestreet. "Instead, it's the right to orient our lives, including our public lives, around our beliefs." (lifeneews.com, 4/18/19; townhall.com, 1/24/18; cnsnews.com, 1/24/18; bpnews.net, 3/6/19)

"The only thing that doesn't abide by majority rule is a person's conscience."

Harper Lee, author of To Kill a Mockingbird

We pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet every Wednesday at 3:00 pm in the Church.

Level I Confirmation Yard Sale

St. Thomas More
Saturday - May 18th - 9am till 2pm
Rain or Shine
All profits will go to Mary's Meals

Come support the St. Thomas More 7th graders at this huge Yard Sale. If it is sunny we will be on the church walkway and if it rains we will be in the Parish Center

Mary's Meals -- Story behind the name

A British businessman, moved by seeing children going hungry in Malawi was inspired to start a feeding program in the local schools. This would encourage the children to pursue an education as a way out of poverty. He placed the whole project in the hands of the Virgin Mary. Next a Scotsman named, Magnus McFarlane-Barrow began working with his project and Mary's Meals grew. Today Mary's Meals feeds 600,000 children in 16 different countries around the world.
