Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

June 23, 2019

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

Genesis 14: 18-20

Psalm 110: 1, 2, 3, 4

1 Corinthians 11: 23-26

Luke 9: 11B-17

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

Jesus spoke to the crowds about the kingdom of God, and he healed those who needed to be cured.

As the day was drawing to a close, the Twelve approached him and said,

"Dismiss the crowd so that they can go to the surrounding villages and farms and find lodging and provisions; for we are in a deserted place here."

He said to them, "Give them some food yourselves."

They replied, "Five loaves and two fish are all we have, unless we ourselves go and buy food for all these people."

Now the men there numbered about five thousand.

Then he said to his disciples,

"Have them sit down in groups of about fifty."

They did so and made them all sit down.

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd.

They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets.

Focus Questions:

1. What is your reaction to the miracle of the loaves and fishes?
2. Describe a time when you thought you didn't have enough food to feed people but the food stretched enough for everyone.
3. Relate a time when you received help when you thought the situation was hopeless.

Family and children's question:

This week pray a blessing before meals.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Maurice bragged, "I'm not afraid of anything. Once I even cut off a lion's tail with my pen knife." Someone asked, "Why did you not cut off his head?" Maurice looked a bit sheepish. "Well, to tell you the truth, someone had already cut it off." The full truth never needs proof. A half-truth has to boast in order to prove its presence. Today is the Solemn Feast of the Holy Trinity. Jesus says that "the Spirit of Truth will guide us to all truth." What is "All Truth"? It is the complete truth, not half-truth, nor a version or fraction of the Truth, nor an explanation or an interpretation of the Truth. Full Truth is just the Truth in its pure form experienced and lived by the receiver for exactly what it is.

Jesus explains at the end of today's Gospel how the Holy Spirit will lead to "All Truth." "Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he (Holy Spirit) will take from what is mine and declare it to you." The Holy Spirit will communicate the Truth to the believer as the loving experience of God the Father to God the Son. The believer experiences the "All Truth" as God's wonderful act of love shown to us in Jesus Christ and communicated to us through the Holy Spirit. Thus God's love is the full, complete All Truth which is not an entity to be proved or explained but is a God-given gift to the believer who by living it becomes transformed into Truth itself. Let us pray to the Trinity to become Truth by living it.

Happy Father's Day to all fathers, grandfathers, great grandfathers, foster fathers, spiritual fathers, godfathers and all kinds of fathers. As we thank them for being the wonderful gentlemen in our lives, we pray for their good health, cheer of heart and glad spirit to be continuing guides and support to us.

Congrats to Robert Hoelzer who received the Sacrament of Confirmation, sealed with the gifts of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost Sunday when we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the whole Church. Thanks to the RCIA team for having instructed and formed him for this gracious moment.

Thanks a million to all who helped celebrate our Parish Feast Weekend. I have to acknowledge first the Parish Feast Committee for having given the encouraging start. Diane and Steve Phelan, Donna and Gary Fortmeyer, the Rectory Staff, and their helpers threw the Dinner/Dance Party spectacularly; they also took care of selling the raffle-tickets.

The Knights of Columbus were tirelessly making pancakes for the festive pancake breakfast with the support of the Columbiettes. Religious Education staff and the formators took care of gathering young families and their children for the evening mass. The whole parish contributed to the fund raising event of the raffle.

We are thankful also to Terry Moore who delighted young and old alike with his art of creating different animals from balloons.

Thanks to all for your continued interest in building our parish as a great witness to God's kingdom of love and peace. May St. Thomas More intercede for us and bring God's blessings to our families.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

MINISTRY MATTERS AT ST. THOMAS MORE

The RCIA Team has answered God's call
To help guide seekers to the Catholic Christian Life,
The Easter Vigil culminates months of preparation
As the candidates receive the Easter Sacraments

RCIA stands for "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." The RCIA Team is composed of committed individuals who are entrusted to share our faith with those adults who express a desire to become Catholic Christians. However, we the team, cannot achieve this alone. Just as it takes an entire village to raise a child, it takes the gifts of an entire loving, prayerful community to make a committed Catholic Christian. We need you, the faith-filled community of St. Thomas More to reach out and welcome new seekers and catechumens. Perhaps you can greet them and assure them of your prayers as they walk through their faith journey, so they may fully feel a part of our loving St. Thomas More family.

This And That With Deacon Matt

In July and August, Deacon Matt will be making time to visit with small groups of parishioners in the home. Do you have questions about our faith? Do you find it difficult to follow teachings of the Church in this day and age? Are there issues you'd like to discuss, or suggestions you'd like to make? The floor is yours! Deacon Matt will be the facilitator. The format is simple: find 6-10 people to gather at your home on a specific date, serve dessert, and come with your questions/topics.

Deacon Matt is especially interested in hearing the voice of the young. So teenagers and young adults are most certainly encouraged to get a group together.

To see what dates are available and to sign up, go to a page we've setup on our website: <https://stmli.org/ThisAndThat2019>. You may also send an email to ThisAndThat2019@stmli.org or leave a message at the Rectory for Deacon Matt to call you.

Congratulations!

Robert Hoelzer received the Sacrament of Confirmation on Pentecost Sunday at the 12:15 pm Mass. He took the name “Joseph” as his Confirmation name.

God bless you on your journey of faith.

The Knights of Columbus prepared the Pancake breakfast on Sunday of the Feast Weekend—thanks guys!

The Fight for Freedom in Schools

* The Lyceum, a small, classical Catholic H.S. in Ohio, sued the City of South Euclid, arguing an anti-discrimination law passed last year violates the school's religious rights by threatening penalties for its Catholic stances on issues such as marriage and gender. The new law includes sexual orientation and gender identity as protected classifications. Therefore, if denied a religious exemption, the school's employment and admissions policies, based on deeply-held religious beliefs, could be illegal.

"Religious schools must be free to operate consistently with their faith without fear of unjust government punishment. A good outcome for The Lyceum will help protect the freedom of other faith-based schools to abide by their religious convictions as well," said Headmaster Luke Macik.

Thankfully, the city recently ruled that The Lyceum has the right to hire employees that share its beliefs and the lawsuit was dismissed. This was a David vs Goliath case and, this time, David won.

* The U.S. Supreme Court declined to hear a case concerning a PA school district policy to allow transgender students to share a shower, locker room, or restroom matching their gender identity and disregarding the bodily privacy rights of other students. However, in the past, the Supreme Court had affirmed that real, biological differences between men and women mean that privacy must be protected.

The school had made the policy change without informing students or teachers. This resulted in male students being embarrassed and confused when a female student was changing clothes in their locker room. Female students were distressed to find a male in their bathroom. "I saw a reflection of a man (in mirror). My body went into immediate shock," said one student. Alliance Defending Freedom plans to continue to represent those who believe no one's privacy right should depend on what others believe about their own gender.
