June 30, 2019

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Kings 19: 16B, 19-21

Psalm 16: 1-2, 5, 7-8, 9-10, 11

Galatians 5:1, 13-18

Luke 9: 51-62

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

When the days for Jesus' being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem, and he sent messengers ahead of him. On the way they entered a Samaritan village to prepare for his reception there, but they would not welcome him because the destination of his journey was Jerusalem.

When the disciples James and John saw this they asked, "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?" Jesus turned and rebuked them, and they journeyed to another village.

As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." Jesus answered him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head."

And to another he said, "Follow me." But he replied, "Lord, let me go first and bury my father." But he answered him, "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God."

Focus Questions:

1. Talk about some of the distractions that keep you away from putting Jesus first in your life.
2. Describe what it means to you to be a disciple of Jesus.
3. Relate a time when you were called to change direction in your life. How did you respond?

Family and children's question:

What can you do this week to help someone?

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

There was a young bride, a poor cook. Her husband came home to find her crying. “The dog ate the biscuits I cooked,” she sobbed. “Never mind, honey,” he said. “We’ll get us another dog.” We need to eat the right food for we become what we eat. If we are not careful, the food that is supposed to nurture our life, may kill it.

Today is the Solemn Feast of Corpus Christi – The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. We celebrate Jesus Christ as our true food given by God to nurture in us an everlasting life. On Holy Thursday, at the Last Supper with his disciples Jesus offered Himself as food. He gave them the bread saying, “This is my body that is for you.” Then he gave them the cup of wine saying, “Take this and drink from it, for this the cup of my blood.” Thus at the last Supper he sacramentally gave his body and blood in the form of bread and wine which on Good Friday He did by offering his body on the Cross.

To put it in the powerful words of St. Mother Teresa, “When you look at the crucifix, you understand how much Jesus loved you then. When you look at the Sacred Host, you understand how much Jesus loves you now.”

Today let us make a solemn promise to ourselves that we will approach as often as possible this God who is waiting in Jesus in the form of Food and Drink. Jesus is the right food who feeds us, strengthens us to face life with vigor so that we live and cherish our life in all moments with heavenly joy. Jesus is food that makes our life full on earth and eternal in Heaven. He says, “I am the living bread... if anyone eats this bread he/she will live forever.”

Devotion to the Holy Eucharist: Every first Tuesday we have an hour of Adoration to the Most Holy Eucharist. The Holy Hour begins with a hymn and vespers followed by 15 minutes of silent prayer. Then we pray the chaplet of Divine Mercy which is followed by another 15 minutes of silence. We close the hour with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

It is a most empowering hour of prayer in silence. Mother Teresa claimed that the Eucharist empowered her all the time and every day to work tirelessly, to express and experience the power of God’s love in serving the poorest of the poor. You are invited every First Tuesday to empower yourself during the Eucharist Adoration. Or please find your own time any time on a weekday, to be empowered by this Eucharistic Lord who is in the Tabernacle.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

MINISTRY MATTERS AT ST. THOMAS MORE

The RCIA Team has answered God's call
To help guide seekers to the Catholic Christian Life,
The Easter Vigil culminates months of preparation
As the candidates receive the Easter Sacraments

RCIA stands for "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." The RCIA Team is composed of committed individuals who are entrusted to share our faith with those adults who express a desire to become Catholic Christians. However, we the team, cannot achieve this alone. Just as it takes an entire village to raise a child, it takes the gifts of an entire loving, prayerful community to make a committed Catholic Christian. We need you, the faith-filled community of St. Thomas More to reach out and welcome new seekers and catechumens. Perhaps you can greet them and assure them of your prayers as they walk through their faith journey, so they may fully feel a part of our loving St. Thomas More family.

This And That With Deacon Matt

In July and August, Deacon Matt will be making time to visit with small groups of parishioners in the home. Do you have questions about our faith? Do you find it difficult to follow teachings of the Church in this day and age? Are there issues you'd like to discuss, or suggestions you'd like to make? The floor is yours! Deacon Matt will be the facilitator. The format is simple: find 6-10 people to gather at your home on a specific date, serve dessert, and come with your questions/topics.

Deacon Matt is especially interested in hearing the voice of the young. So teenagers and young adults are most certainly encouraged to get a group together.

To see what dates are available and to sign up, go to a page we've setup on our website:

<https://stmli.org/ThisAndThat2019>.

You may also send an email to

ThisAndThat2019@stmli.org or leave a message at the Rectory for Deacon Matt to call you.

St. Mother Teresa at the National Prayer Breakfast in Washington, D.C. on February 5, 1994—

By abortion, the mother does not learn to love, but kills even her own child to solve her problems. And, by abortion, that father is told that he does not have to take any responsibility at all for the child he has brought into the world.

The father is likely to put other women into the same trouble. So abortion just leads to more abortion. Any country that accepts abortion is not teaching its people to love, but to use any violence to get what they want. This is why the greatest destroyer of love and peace is abortion.

Q & A by Fr. Antony

Is Jesus man or God? What is Eucharist?

The world at the time of Jesus was dominated with Greek Philosophical duality of considering body (flesh) is weak and evil, and the soul, holy and divine. Such a philosophical duality existed in early Greek Church to such an extent that some even denied that Jesus was only a divine spirit. Jesus was not human. He, 100% God did not die. Just His body, which His Divine Spirit hired to live, died. But from the first century the mother church always believed that Jesus is 100% God and 100% human. Through various councils down the centuries this belief was reiterated again and again as doctrine.

Eucharist is the Sacramental expression from Jesus telling us that He, the God-man offers His presence of both God and Human in the form of bread and wine. The Sacrament of Eucharist is not only a presence of Jesus with us in his body, blood, soul and divinity, it is also Jesus Sacrifice expressing God's love for us, "God so loved the world that God gave us His Son... (John 3:16). St. Paul explains this in his letter to the church of Philippi (Philippians 2:5-11) that at the death of his body on the Cross Jesus emptied his Goodhood also. Thus the Sacrament of Eucharist reminds us that Jesus, 100% God and 100% human died to show God's love for us and God's dwelling among us. God-man Jesus brings God to us and us to God.

Eucharist is not a division like Greek philosophical duality. But it is God's way of loving us and dwelling with us. That is why we have a Tabernacle in catholic churches proclaiming that this is the new way of God's dwelling among us as God did in the Old Testament days of Exodus to Promised Land.

CATHOLICS FOR FREEDOM OF RELIGION

Focus on Religious Freedom from Catholics for Freedom of Religion

www.cffor.org

Religious Freedom Week 2019: Strength in Hope

Join us from June 22, the Feast of religious freedom martyrs, Saints Thomas More & John Fisher - to June 29, the Solemnity of martyrs, Saints Peter & Paul, as Americans are encouraged to Pray, Reflect, and Take Action on religious liberty, both here in this country and abroad.

The theme, Strength in Hope, is taken from Romans 8:18: Among the trials of this life, find strength in hope, convinced that, "the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come that will be revealed to us."

Archbishop William Lori wrote, "Religious freedom is not a 'carve-out' granted by the state. It's an inalienable right.

"In the West, we are complacent about the threats to religious freedom. Many people don't even perceive them; they happen in courtrooms, board-rooms, legislatures and government agencies. In other parts of the world it's bloody, violent, overt, but in both cases, it's denial of the rights of conscience.

"In the Middle East and elsewhere in the world, we see what societies without religious freedom look like. We see that once religious freedom disappears, human dignity suffers and communities disintegrate." (usccb.org, stbernardchurch.org)

"Without religious freedom, a merciless society emerges from the shadows."

Archbishop William Lori

Plan to watch Catholic school students from the Diocese of Rockville Centre sing, dance, perform in a wind ensemble and speak in support of religious freedom.

"Concert for America" will show on Catholic Faith Network (formerly Telecare) to celebrate Religious Freedom Week and the 4th of July! Optimum channels 29 & 137; Verizon Fios channel 296; Charter Spectrum channels 162 & 471

Times: July 4 at 10:30am & 9:30pm; July 5 at 10:30am; July 6 at 4:30pm; July 7 at 8:30pm

We pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet every Wednesday at 3:00 pm in the Church.

CIRCLE OF WOMEN

It is the mission of the Circle of Women Book Group to focus on the spiritual influence of contemporary writing that facilitates our own reflections of God's action in our daily lives.

Our next meeting will be on September 9, 2019 at 2:30 pm. The book for discussion will be The Chilbury Ladies Choir by Jennifer Ryan. Facilitator—Marilyn Miller.

We meet on the second Monday of the month at 2:30 pm in the Meeting Room. For further and/or to register, call Marilyn at 631-234-5805 or Joan at 631-234-1739.
