Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

July 14, 2019

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Deuteronomy 30: 10-14

Psalm 69: 14, 17, 30-31, 33-34, 36, 37

Colossians 1:15-20

Luke 10:25-37

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said,

"Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?"

He said in reply,

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."

He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live."

But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus,

"And who is my neighbor?"

Jesus replied, "A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side.

But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.' Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?"

He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy."

Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Focus Questions:

1. Who are the people whose differences make them hard for you to love?
2. What impact does the Good Samaritan have on you?
3. Relate a time when you were a good neighbor to a stranger.

Family and children's question:

Look for an opportunity to be a Good Samaritan this week.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

A man asked the clerk of stationary store for a “birthday-anniversary” card. The clerk replied, “We have birthday cards and we have anniversary cards. Why not take one of each?” The man said, “You don’t understand. I need a card that covers both events. You see, we are celebrating the fifth anniversary of my wife’s thirty-fourth birthday.”

We can arrange or rearrange numbers in order to make truth appear as we like. But is life or truth measurable by numbers? Or can any type of measure express the nature of life or truth? Life is immeasurable and abundant.

Today’s Gospel proclaims that our life here on earth, in the words of Jesus, is God’s kingdom amidst us with its abundant harvest. We are the laborers sent by Jesus to harvest and spread out this abundance. It is here already at our hand. We, as laborers, are just announcers, inviting people to be aware of it. God’s kingdom is so abundant and so powerful that we are not expected to argue and spend time or energy to make people accept its abundance.

God’s kingdom is so positive in its force that we are sent by Jesus as messengers wishing to all and everyone “peace” even if our peace would not be well received.

If they don’t accept, Jesus instructs us, to move away from them to the next place. Our message is so rich that the messengers need not depend on anything like money, impressive outfits or attractive speeches to spread it. Their success is not measured by what they gain or lose but by how much the Kingdom of God is received by the hearers as God’s abundance

It is not the human numbers or any other measure but heaven is their measure. Jesus encourages us to work hard with joy “because their names are written in heaven.” Our reward is that we bring heaven (god’s abundance) as the experience of those who receive our message.

Masstimes.org: This is a wonderful website to find out a nearby place to go for a Sunday mass when you are on your summer vacation. Just open the site and type the place you are and it gives you all the churches in and around you and the mass timings.

Faith Direct: In summer families go on trips and our congregation becomes less in number. That you may support our church even when you may not be able to worship with us here, please join electronic giving, called ‘Faith Direct’. This is a great way of supporting your church. For more information please call the rectory.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

This And That With Deacon Matt

In July and August, Deacon Matt will be making time to visit with small groups of parishioners in the home. Do you have questions about our faith? Do you find it difficult to follow teachings of the Church in this day and age? Are there issues you'd like to discuss, or suggestions you'd like to make? The floor is yours! Deacon Matt will be the facilitator. The format is simple: find 6-10 people to gather at your home on a specific date, serve dessert, and come with your questions/topics.

Deacon Matt is especially interested in hearing the voice of the young. So teenagers and young adults are most certainly encouraged to get a group together.

To see what dates are available and to sign up, go to a page we've setup on our website:

<https://stmli.org/ThisAndThat2019>.

You may also send an email to ThisAndThat2019@stmli.org or leave a message at the Rectory for Deacon Matt to call you.

MINISTRY MATTERS AT ST. THOMAS MORE

The RCIA Team has answered God's call
To help guide seekers to the Catholic Christian Life,
The Easter Vigil culminates months of preparation
As the candidates receive the Easter Sacraments

RCIA stands for "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." The RCIA Team is composed of committed individuals who are entrusted to share our faith with those adults who express a desire to become Catholic Christians. However, we the team, cannot achieve this alone. Just as it takes an entire village to raise a child, it takes the gifts of an entire loving, prayerful community to make a committed Catholic Christian. We need you, the faith-filled community of St. Thomas More to reach out and welcome new seekers and catechumens. Perhaps you can greet them and assure them of your prayers as they walk through their faith journey, so they may fully feel a part of our loving St. Thomas More family.

CATHOLICS FOR FREEDOM OF RELIGION

Focus on Religious Freedom
www.cffor.org

The Faith of Our Founders
 "Religious thinking, religious questioning and religious faith permeated the Revolution and the Founding," wrote world history author, H. McDougal. "The American cause was profoundly religious for Protestants and Deists alike because both identified America's future with a Providential (God) design ..." "The evangelical tradition (fueled by the preachers of the First Great Awakening) supplied spiritual propulsion to the Patriotic cause that was unsurpassed by any other element of Patriotic ideology," wrote historian T. Kidd.

Most of the nation's 55 Founders were openly religious, believing that "true Religion and good Morals are the only solid foundations of public liberty and happiness".

Samuel Adams

"Samuel Adams was the archetype of the religiously passionate American founder ... an apostle of liberty ... a man of deep religious conviction whose confidence, zeal, and endurance in the struggle for freedom were grounded in a belief that an intervening God was on his side," said history professor S. Stoll.

After the signing of the Declaration of Independence, Adams wrote:

"We have this day restored the Sovereign to whom alone men ought to be obedient. He reigns in Heaven, and with a propitious eye beholds his subjects assuming that freedom of thought and dignity of self-direction which He bestowed on them. From the rising to the setting of the sun, may His kingdom come!"

"And for the support of this Declaration, with firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor." The final line of the Declaration of Independence

(str.org; lehrmaninstitute.org; hnp.org; The Faiths of Our Fathers by Alf Mapp)

We pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet every Wednesday at 3:00 pm in the Church.

CIRCLE OF WOMEN

It is the mission of the Circle of Women Book Group to focus on the spiritual influence of contemporary writing that facilitates our own reflections of God's action in our daily lives.

Our next meeting will be on September 9, 2019 at 2:30 pm. The book for discussion will be The Chilbury Ladies Choir by Jennifer Ryan. Facilitator—Marilyn Miller.

We meet on the second Monday of the month at 2:30 pm in the Meeting Room. For further and/or to register, call Marilyn at 631-234-5805 or Joan at 631-234-1739.

Outreach provides assistance with food, referrals and information regarding other agencies to meet various family needs and other emergency assistance.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel today we see how Jesus sent his Apostles out two by two. In this spirit, the Society of SVdP members "go out two by two" to visit those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance.

Know that the members of the Society of SVdP bring your gift directly to the poor and needy in our parish.
