Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

July 21, 2019

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Genesis 18:1-10A
Psalm 15:2-3, 3-4, 5
Colossians 1:24-28
Luke 10:38-42

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said,
"Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me."
The Lord said to her in reply,
"Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her."

Focus Questions:

1. If Jesus were to come to your home, what would you do, would you act like Mary or like Martha?
2. Describe a time when work, entertaining others or household chores distracted you from listening to Jesus.
3. How do you extend hospitality to others as a member of the Church?

Family and children's question:

Where is your home away from home? Who makes you feel welcome there?

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

A surgeon was discussing a case with medical students: “The muscle in the patient’s right leg has contracted until it is shorter than the left. Therefore he limps. What would you do in such a circumstance?” A student raised his hand and said, “I’d limp too.” The student’s answer describes what would happen to him but not how he could help the patient in such a circumstance.

Today’s Gospel is Jesus’ famous story of the Good Samaritan. The story is the answer to the question “who is my neighbor?” The simple answer is - “the one who is near to you is your neighbor.” The first two, the priest and the Levi passed by the wounded man. They did not help the wounded person because they answered the question, “what would happen to me if I were to help the wounded person?” But the Samaritan helped him because he answered the question, “What would happen to the wounded person if I did not help him?”

Jesus helped the lawyer find out the answer to his question, “who is my neighbor?” by making him focus not on himself but on the need of the other. If we focus just on our own needs we will have no neighbors. We would treat everything and every person for our selfish needs. Each of us will be living in our own selfish fortress, safeguarding and securing our individual selves. But when the focus is turned towards the needs of others, especially those deserving our help, then the whole world will be flourishing with life, peace and prosperity. Life is in peril when we close ourselves. Life blossoms in reaching out to others.

Masstimes.org: This is a wonderful website to find out a nearby place to go for a Sunday mass when you are on your summer vacation. Just open the site and type the place where you are and it gives you all the churches in and around you and the mass timings.

Faith Direct: In summer families go on trips and our congregation becomes less in number. That you may support our church even when you may not be able to worship with us here, please join electronic giving, called ‘Faith Direct’. This is great way of supporting your church. For more information please call the rectory.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

This And That With Deacon Matt

In July and August, Deacon Matt will be making time to visit with small groups of parishioners in the home. Do you have questions about our faith? Do you find it difficult to follow teachings of the Church in this day and age? Are there issues you'd like to discuss, or suggestions you'd like to make? The floor is yours! Deacon Matt will be the facilitator. The format is simple: find 6-10 people to gather at your home on a specific date, serve dessert, and come with your questions/topics.

Deacon Matt is especially interested in hearing the voice of the young. So teenagers and young adults are most certainly encouraged to get a group together.

To see what dates are available and to sign up, go to a page we've setup on our website:

<https://stmli.org/ThisAndThat2019>.

You may also send an email to

ThisAndThat2019@stmli.org or leave a message at the Rectory for Deacon Matt to call you.

MINISTRY MATTERS AT ST. THOMAS MORE

The RCIA Team has answered God's call
To help guide seekers to the Catholic Christian Life,
The Easter Vigil culminates months of preparation
As the candidates receive the Easter Sacraments

RCIA stands for "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." The RCIA Team is composed of committed individuals who are entrusted to share our faith with those adults who express a desire to become Catholic Christians. However, we the team, cannot achieve this alone. Just as it takes an entire village to raise a child, it takes the gifts of an entire loving, prayerful community to make a committed Catholic Christian. We need you, the faith-filled community of St. Thomas More to reach out and welcome new seekers and catechumens. Perhaps you can greet them and assure them of your prayers as they walk through their faith journey, so they may fully feel a part of our loving St. Thomas More family.

CATHOLICS FOR FREEDOM OF RELIGION

Focus on Religious Freedom
www.cffor.org

Religious Freedom Victories at Supreme Court

* The Supreme Court ruled 7-2, that a 40-foot World War I memorial cross, erected over 90 years ago, can stay on public land in Bladensburg, Maryland. The cross "has become a prominent community landmark, and its removal or radical alteration at this date would be seen by many not as a neutral act but as the manifestation of a hostility toward religion that has no place in our Establishment Clause traditions," wrote Justice Samuel Alito in the majority decision. "The Religion Clause of the Constitution aims to foster a society in which people of all beliefs can live together harmoniously, and the presence of the Bladensburg Cross on the land where it has stood for so many years is fully consistent with that aim."

"A government that roams the land, tearing down monuments with religious symbolism and scrubbing away any reference to the divine, will strike many as aggressively hostile to religion."

* The Supreme Court lifted an order that punished a Christian couple in Oregon, ordering them to pay a $135,000 fine for declining to create a wedding cake for a same-sex couple. The high Court told a lower court in OR to reconsider the dispute in light of the Supreme Court's decision last year involving Christian baker, Jack Phillips, in Colorado. The justices had found for Phillips because a CO state panel had displayed hostility toward his religious beliefs.

A Religious Freedom Loss at the Supreme Court in 2018 concerned a similar controversy in Washington state where a florist declined a request for floral arrangements at the wedding of a longtime same-sex patron. The high court returned the matter to a Washington state court with orders to reconsider the case in light of its CO decision. The Washington Supreme Court once again ruled against the florist on June 6, 2019. She will now file a second appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court.*

In today's Gospel, when Jesus asks "which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" The scholar of the law answered, "the one who treated him with mercy." Jesus then said, "Go and do likewise."
