Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

August 4, 2019

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23

Psalm 90:3-4, 5-6, 12-13, 14 and 17

Colossians 23: 1-5, 9-11

Luke 12: 13-21

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus,
“Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me.”
He replied to him,
“Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?”
Then he said to the crowd,
“Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.”

Then he told them a parable.

“There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest. He asked himself, ‘What shall I do, for I do not have space to store my harvest?’ And he said, ‘This is what I shall do: I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones. There I shall store all my grain and other goods and I shall say to myself, ‘Now as for you, you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!’”
But God said to him,
‘You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?’ Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God.”

Focus Questions:

1. Share a time when you felt God calling you to simplify your life.
2. Our culture values having lots of things. What is your feeling about all you have accumulated over the years?
3. Describe a person you admire who lives with less because of a desire to be more like Jesus.

Family and children’s question:

Take a look around your home. Decide what you can donate to others because it is more than you need.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

The art of negotiation is learned at an early age. You'd be amazed how many teens get a car by asking for a motorcycle. Humans always negotiate for a lesser evil. God negotiates for the greater good.

In the first reading Abraham negotiates with God in order to save Sodom and Gomorrah from impending destruction. God changes his mind six times to meet the demands/suggestions of Abraham from saving 50 to just 10 innocent people. God accepts human conditions in order to save people. God does not go by the majority. God's negotiation is not profit-oriented in the sense that God does not act for God's own profit. It is always for the salvation of the people. God's negotiation is beyond all human numbers and calculations. It is the expression of God's mercy and forgiveness. Its aim is to make humans realize that goodness is more lively and joyful than evil; that God's mercy is bigger than human sins.

The Gospel reading begins with the prayer of Jesus, "Our Father" and continues with the story of forgiveness. Like the prayer, "forgive us our sins, as we forgive everyone ..." the story also invites us to imitate God in forgiving others. Forgiving is not merely our generous act towards others but it is our way of living and our power of believing. If we believe that good is more powerful than evil we will try to behave as God, promoting greater good in forgiving. If we trust mercy is more life-promising than sin we will live not negotiating for better profit in life but positively engaging ourselves for the greater good of humanity.

Summer rest and planning: Summer activities are in full swing. As much as we spend time in fun let us also take some time in the relaxed summer days in planning to engage our children in some spiritual activities during the school year... like doing some service as altar servers or choir members or in youth ministry... Education and sport will nurture their body and intellect. Church activities will feed their spirit to unite the mind and body in order to make the child into one un-split and integrated person.

My summer visit to India: I will be in India with my mom and my brothers' families for the month of August. See you all in September.

Welcome to Rev. Dr. Alexander Mariadass: While I am away Fr. Alexander Mariadass, (Fr. Alex) will be here helping us in the parish. He is a priest for 13 years from the diocese of Coimbatore, India. He defended his thesis in June in the Urban Pontifical University, Rome, Italy and now has a full-pledged doctorate. We welcome him. We wish him all the best in his ministry among us.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

This And That With Deacon Matt

In July and August, Deacon Matt will be making time to visit with small groups of parishioners in the home. Do you have questions about our faith? Do you find it difficult to follow teachings of the Church in this day and age? Are there issues you'd like to discuss, or suggestions you'd like to make? The floor is yours! Deacon Matt will be the facilitator. The format is simple: find 6-10 people to gather at your home on a specific date, serve dessert, and come with your questions/topics.

Deacon Matt is especially interested in hearing the voice of the young. So teenagers and young adults are most certainly encouraged to get a group together.

To see what dates are available and to sign up, go to a page we've setup on our website:

<https://stmli.org/ThisAndThat2019>.

You may also send an email to

ThisAndThat2019@stmli.org or leave a message at the Rectory for Deacon Matt to call you.

MINISTRY MATTERS AT ST. THOMAS MORE

The RCIA Team has answered God's call
To help guide seekers to the Catholic Christian Life,
The Easter Vigil culminates months of preparation
As the candidates receive the Easter Sacraments

RCIA stands for "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." The RCIA Team is composed of committed individuals who are entrusted to share our faith with those adults who express a desire to become Catholic Christians. However, we the team, cannot achieve this alone. Just as it takes an entire village to raise a child, it takes the gifts of an entire loving, prayerful community to make a committed Catholic Christian. We need you, the faith-filled community of St. Thomas More to reach out and welcome new seekers and catechumens. Perhaps you can greet them and assure them of your prayers as they walk through their faith journey, so they may fully feel a part of our loving St. Thomas More family.

Now Airing - Catholic Faith Network Video Series
Commemorating 50th Anniversary of NY Mets Winning World Series
A daily one-minute video series is now airing on the Catholic Faith Network. Hosted by Bishop John Barres and Rev. Msgr. James Vlaun, President and Chief Executive Officer of Catholic Faith Network, the summer-long series commemorates the 2019 Fiftieth Anniversary of the New York Mets winning the World Series in 1969. Each video in the series reflects on a moment of Met nostalgia which then ties in to the pursuit of dramatic missionary growth in the Diocese of Rockville Centre. The videos are also available on the diocesan website – www.drvc.org and its Facebook page - @RVCDiocese.

Focus on Religious Freedom www.cffor.org

Defending Religious Freedom

The head of NASA, America's space program, gave a speech in April at Capital Ministries, a Christian organization that since 1997 has sponsored Bible studies for State and Federal officials.

Bridenstine talked about NASA history: Buzz Aldrin taking communion on the moon and the Apollo 8 astronauts' Bible reading in orbit. He said, "We're not trying to Christianize the U.S. government. We believe in an institutional separation, but we also believe in influence." They want the same freedom to bring their personal views to bear on public policy that secularists have.

However, his remarks brought criticism and ire from some secular public officials who claimed, "... legal experts outside of NASA have expressed concern over Bridenstine's speech. They believe it ran afoul of the establishment clause of the First Amendment." Perhaps these secular officials should consider their own beliefs & influence and review numerous Supreme Court decisions that recognize atheism as equivalent to a "religion for the purposes of the First Amendment." Likewise, in 2014, a federal judge in Oregon ruled that secular humanism is a religion "for Establishment Clause purposes."

New Commission Tackles Freedom

The State Department unveiled a new Commission on Unalienable Rights, aimed at providing the Secretary with "an informed review of the role of human rights in American foreign policy."

Sec. Pompeo wants to make sure Americans are all reading off the same page when it comes to our fundamental freedoms. He said words like "rights" can be used for "good and evil" and some have "hijacked" human rights rhetoric to be used for "dubious or malignant purposes."

"The distinctive mark of Western civilization is the belief in the inherent worth of human beings, with the attendant respect for God-authored rights and liberties." What are those rights and liberties? This new commission aims to explain.

(dailysignal.com,4/24/19; businessinsider.com,4/17/19; christianitytoday.com,11/5/14; politico.com,7/8/19; cnn.com,7/8/19; fro.org,7/8/19)

"The right to religious freedom is rooted in the very dignity of the human person."

Pope Benedict XVI

We pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet every Wednesday at 3:00 pm in the Church.

CIRCLE OF WOMEN

It is the mission of the Circle of Women Book Group to focus on the spiritual influence of contemporary writing that facilitates our own reflections of God's action in our daily lives.

Our next meeting will be on September 9, 2019 at 2:30 pm. The book for discussion will be The Chilbury Ladies Choir by Jennifer Ryan. Facilitator—Marilyn Miller.

We meet on the second Monday of the month at 2:30 pm in the Meeting Room. For further and/or to register, call Marilyn at 631-234-5805 or Joan at 631-234-1739.
