Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

August 25, 2019
Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time
Isaiah 66: 18-21
Psalm 117: 1-2
Hebrews 12: 5-7, 11-13
Luke 13: 22-30

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

Jesus passed through towns and villages, teaching as he went and making his way to Jerusalem. Someone asked him, "Lord, will only a few people be saved?" He answered them, "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough. After the master of the house has arisen and locked the door, then will you stand outside knocking and saying, 'Lord, open the door for us.' He will say to you in reply, 'I do not know where you are from. And you will say, 'We ate and drank in your company and you taught in our streets.' Then he will say to you, 'I do not know where you are from. Depart from me, all you evildoers!' And there will be wailing and grinding of teeth when you see Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God and you yourselves cast out. And people will come from the east and the west and from the north and the south and will recline at table in the kingdom of God. For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last."

Focus Questions:

1. When you hear Jesus say to enter through the narrow gate, are you encouraged or discouraged?
2. Recall a time when you witnessed someone who was judged too quickly.
3. Each day presents us with new opportunities to learn from Jesus, to do what God wants of us. How open are you to Jesus' instruction?

Family and children's question:

Name a time when you took the easy way out, instead of the better, more difficult way.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

“Blood is thicker than water” is a saying we use to express that our family relationship is stronger than any other type of relationship. Family can be more influential on a person than any other relationship. To break off from a family-relationship is more heart-breaking than any other.

Jesus says in today’s Gospel, “Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. From now on a household of five will be divided, three against two and two against three.” The message of these lines is not to divide the family. It is rather about what influences the decision- making- process of an individual. Is life one’s own choice to decide what she/he wants to be? Or is it the family’s choice (parents, siblings and other relatives) to form and mold the member of the family?

Jesus wants himself to be the influencing force in the decision making process of his believers. It is neither the individual self nor the family relationship that would play any important role. But Jesus wants to be the influencing force in our decision making process even if it were to go against our own family’s traditional influences or relationships.

Jesus’ aim is not to cause any division in the family but to call us to be totally and radically influenced by him even to the extent of renouncing our own umbilical relationship of family. In another saying Jesus calls us to renounce one’s own self in order to be influenced by him, “if anyone comes to me without hating.....even his own life, he cannot be my disciple.” (Luke 14:26)

Who influences us in our decision making process? Our family? Friends? Our own convenient self? Or God’s call revealed to us in Jesus? How far are we to go with Jesus’ influence, to the level of denying ourselves, even our closest relationship? When we begin to answer these questions we will understand the hardest saying of Jesus, “Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division.”

You are invited to St. Thomas More Beach Mass and Picnic. Please remember to mark your calendar— September 8th, the date at Otto Schubert Beach, Nissequogue, starting with Mass at Noon. Picnic follows the mass with burgers, hot dogs, chips, beverages. Please fill the Response Form found in the bulletin and be a part of our parish celebration at the beach.

Summer rest and planning: Summer activities are in full swing. As much as we spend time in fun let us also take some time in the relaxed summer days in planning to engage our children in some spiritual activities during the school year... like doing some service as altar servers or lectors or choir members or in youth ministry... Education and sport will nurture their body and intellect. Church activities will feed their spirit which is the basis of both mind and body.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

This And That With Deacon Matt

In August, Deacon Matt will be making time to visit with small groups of parishioners in the home. Do you have questions about our faith? Do you find it difficult to follow teachings of the Church in this day and age? Are there issues you'd like to discuss, or suggestions you'd like to make? The floor is yours! Deacon Matt will be the facilitator.

The format is simple: find 6-10 people to gather at your home on a specific date, serve dessert, and come with your questions/topics.

Deacon Matt is especially interested in hearing the voice of the young. So teenagers and young adults are most certainly encouraged to get a group together.

To see what dates are available and to sign up, go to a page we've setup on our website:

<https://stmli.org/ThisAndThat2019>.

You may also send an email to

ThisAndThat2019@stmli.org or leave a message at the Rectory for Deacon Matt to call you.

MINISTRY MATTERS AT ST. THOMAS MORE

The RCIA Team has answered God's call

To help guide seekers to the Catholic Christian Life,

The Easter Vigil culminates months of preparation

As the candidates receive the Easter Sacraments

RCIA stands for "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults." The RCIA Team is composed of committed individuals who are entrusted to share our faith with those adults who express a desire to become Catholic Christians. However, we the team, cannot achieve this alone. Just as it takes an entire village to raise a child, it takes the gifts of an entire loving, prayerful community to make a committed Catholic Christian. We need you, the faith-filled community of St. Thomas More to reach out and welcome new seekers and catechumens. Perhaps you can greet them and assure them of your prayers as they walk through their faith journey, so they may fully feel a part of our loving St. Thomas More family.

Young at Heart

Game day in July was enjoyed by all.

We will have another game day at our regular meeting on Friday, August 23rd at 12:30 pm. Please bring your own games or play with ours.

Military Chaplains Corp - Still Under Attack

In July, the Army Chaplain Corps, founded on July 29, 1775 in response to a request from Gen. George Washington to the 2nd Continental Congress, commemorated their 244th Anniversary. Washington knew that in addition to physical preparedness, his troops would need spiritual fortitude and the moral strength to persevere in the face of the formidable British army.

Today, a diverse and expanding group of over 200 religions are represented among military chaplains, ranging from majority religions such as Christianity to minority religions such as Judaism, Islam, and Buddhism.

Sadly, military chaplains of today often face risks in carrying out their duties and living out their faith. There are activist groups such as the misnamed Military Religious Freedom Foundation working to suppress faith and religious freedom in the Army, Navy, and Air Force.

Examples include:

- * Navy Chaplain Wes Modder almost lost his career when he answered questions from a sailor seeking counseling about his church's teaching on marriage.
- * Navy Chaplain Gordon Klingenschmitt was court marshaled for standing against a policy that prohibited sectarian prayers while in uniform. Eventually Congress rescinded this policy.
- * Army Chaplain Scott Squires faced disciplinary action after he complied with his denomination's doctrines and declined to conduct a marriage retreat for same-sex couples.

These attacks on chaplains are becoming more frequent and hold the risk that troops could lose the spiritual strength they need as they prepare to risk their lives for our freedom. Some organizations are asking for an Executive Order directing officials to protect and uphold religious freedom in America's military.
