Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

September 29, 2019
 Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
 Amos 6: 1A, 4-7
 Psalm 146:7, 8-9, 9-10
 1 Timothy 6:11-16
 Luke: 16: 19-31

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

Jesus said to the Pharisees:

"There was a rich man who dressed in purple garments and fine linen and dined sumptuously each day. And lying at his door was a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who would gladly have eaten his fill of the scraps that fell from the rich man's table. Dogs even used to come and lick his sores. When the poor man died, he was carried away by angels to the bosom of Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried, and from the netherworld, where he was in torment, he raised his eyes and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus at his side. And he cried out, 'Father Abraham, have pity on me. Send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am suffering torment in these flames.'

Abraham replied,

'My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established to prevent anyone from crossing who might wish to go from our side to yours or from your side to ours.' He said, 'Then I beg you, father, send him to my father's house, for I have five brothers, so that he may warn them, lest they too come to this place of torment.'

But Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them.' He said, 'Oh no, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.' Then Abraham said, 'If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead.'"

Focus Questions:

1. Describe a time when you responded to down and out people on the street.
2. What divides you from people who are poor? How can you close that divide?
3. How has economic anxiety influenced your decision about money?

Family and children's question:

Who are the people you ignore that could benefit from your kindness?

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

“The one who smiles when things go wrong is just going off shift.” When there is a problem, either we don’t want to be there or we want to solve it with as little hurt as possible to ourselves, or sometimes we cunningly take selfish advantage of escaping from it by blaming it on others.

The first reading explains what the unjust rich do at the time of social problems and how they cheat the poor. They hoard their products to create a higher demand for them so that they can be sold for a higher price. They diminish the measure and raise prices, making the poor poorer and their rich selves richer.

In the Gospel Jesus explains how a dishonest steward tries cunningly to write false accounts in order to have a secured future. Jesus then comments how the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. Jesus invites us to be prudent in doing good as the others are using their time and energy to save themselves in dishonest and sinful ways.

The good has to be more active than the evil. War and hunger still exist in the world not because we don’t have enough good will or sufficient food. Rather the good will and generosity are not as active as are the cunningness (fraud) and selfishness. Jesus wants us to actively engage in promoting good. No time to blame how bad the world is, but to spend all time and energy in being good. No time to blame darkness but to burn one’s lamp to expel the darkness.

Family Mass and Youth Ministry Kick-Off: This Sunday, Sept. 22nd is the monthly family mass at 5:30 pm. All are welcome. Soon after the mass our parish youth ministry begins with a barbeque for all. The Youth ministry invites all of us to join them. Joe Gast who has been our Youth Minister for almost 25 years is retiring, and Dan our new Youth Minister begins his ministry this Sunday. Let us join with them for the evening meal after the mass. We will wish all the best for the youth ministry.

Deep gratitude to Martin Dolan who painstakingly re-varnished the outdoor Stations of the Cross on our grounds and restored them to their original beauty. Thank you very much Martin and may God Bless you for your work.

As children become busy with their school schedules, we request parents to help include some spiritual activities in their life.like doing some service as altar servers, or singing in the choir, readers at mass, or as members of the youth ministry... Church activities will feed their spirit with God’s wisdom and strength to be successful in education and sport. Unless you bring them to church they are helpless to come to God. Please help them to find God.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

MINISTRY MATTERS AT ST. THOMAS MORE

RCIA TEAM

Our Purpose and Responsibilities

To share our faith with those who express a desire to become a Catholic Christian and to lead them to the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation.

THE RCIA NEEDS EVERYONE

Just as it take an entire village to raise a child, it takes all the gifts and talents of a loving and prayerful community to make a committed Catholic Christian.

THEREFORE...

We invite ALL Members of St. Thomas More to join us in praying for those seeking to join us in our Faith Community and welcoming those who are now on their journey to the Easter Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation.

THE RCIA NEEDS EVERYONE!

NYS Proposes to Deny Religious and Private Schools Control Over Curriculum

While 30 states presently dictate the content of teaching core academic subjects (science, English, social studies, math) for religious & private schools, NY State has proposed a version of control that includes a much wider range of subjects and much more oversight. The proposed NYS law, S6589, known as "Substantially Equivalent Instruction for Nonpublic School Students," would require public school administrators to oversee private schools within their border, whether or not their own schools are achieving academic proficiency, and would unconstitutionally force compelled speech, content discrimination, and viewpoint discrimination.

Leaders of Jewish, Catholic and other private schools explain that they already undergo accreditation by groups such as the NYS Association of Independent Schools. "Our schools go through a very thorough process, the gold standard of accreditation," said the Association director. "To do anything in addition is redundant, unfunded and doesn't make sense."

"The proposed regulations disregard the long history of success demonstrated by private schools across NY State, they undermine the choices made by parents who choose private schools for their children, and they substitute the education bureaucracy in Albany for the private school leadership sought by parents and students," wrote Parents For Educational & Religious Liberty in Schools (PEARLS).

Kellenberg Catholic H.S. principal, Bro. Kenneth M. Hoagland S.M., wrote, "NYS Education Dept. (NYSED) is attempting to drastically expand its authority over non-public schools... (Catholic schools) have always maintained a comprehensive educational program, equal or superior to the program of studies dictated by the NYSED. Under the proposal the (local school district) would oversee... lesson plans, testing scores, report cards and the like...No public school should have the authority to oversee our academic program."

The immediate targets of the regulations are 39 Yeshivas that, for religious reasons, reject much of secular education and teach mostly in Yiddish rather than English. Many Jewish leaders see this law as a violation of religious rights, a threat to the traditional religious focus of their schools. The Catholic School Administrators Association of NYS argue that "the oversight of Catholic Schools by a (public school local district) is a clear conflict of interest and the proposed regulations are ill conceived and unacceptable."

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In today's Gospel we see that prudent decisiveness means that we recognize that all our choices in daily living are really choices for eternal life. Admission into heaven is something money cannot buy. The only currency that has any value to secure our entrance is that of love.

Whenever you donate to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering.
