Romans 6:3-4. 8-11
Matthew 10: 37-42

A reading from the Gospel of St. Matthew::

Jesus said to his apostles:

“Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me,
and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me;
and whoever does not take up his cross
and follow after me is not worthy of me.
Whoever finds his life will lose it,
and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

"Whoever receives you receives me,
and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.

Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward,
and whoever receives a righteous man
because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward.
And whoever gives only a cup of cold water
to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple—
amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward.”

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

An enthusiastic young man who had just graduated as a plumber was taken to see Niagara Falls. He studied it for a minute, then said, "I think I can fix it." Praise God that we are born with great enthusiasm. Our enthusiasm, while we were children, was so great that nothing seemed impossible; we feared less and dared to do everything. In the Gospel today Jesus says "Fear no one." What makes us be afraid of any person or anything? The words of Jesus reveals to us "Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known."

Everything is open and unhidden to those whose heart is open. If everything/every person is known for what they are, then there is nothing that could frighten us. Fear arises in a person who sees the other person or thing for one's own selfish end. Fear is the outcome of the person's inability to get what the individual wants in the other. Thus there is no fear where there is self-realization that everything we need for our personal life is given and revealed within each of us, not from anything or any person outside.

That is why Jesus continues to encourage us by entrusting us to God who cares for every living creature, "Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows." If we fail to self-realize our inner worth we will begin to be in fear of anything and everybody. But if we believe in our individual selves and entrust ourselves to the caring providence of God we will be a people of real strength and enthusiasm. Let us pray that God grant us the wisdom to realize our worth and courage to surrender our life in the caring and providing hands of God.

This Sunday is Father's Day: Let us pray for all our fathers both those with us and those with God. We thank God for the gift of these wonderful persons in our life who taught us life and guided our ways with courage and wisdom. May God bless our fathers with good health, long life and cheer of heart. Happy Father's Day too all the fathers of our Parish.

June 22, Feast of our Parish Patron St. Thomas More: St. Thomas More, one of the martyrs of the English Reformation, was a devoted husband and father. Though thoroughly devoted to the practice of law, who would eventually go on to become Lord Chancellor of England, his dedication to his family came first and foremost. More married Jane Colt in 1505. More gave his young wife a better education than she had previously received at home, and tutored her in music and literature. The couple had four children before Jane died in 1511: Margaret, Elizabeth, Cicely, and John. Given that he was left a widower with four young children, Thomas More married a rich widow, Alice Harpur Middleton to provide his children with a stepmother to assist in raising them. More had no children from his second marriage and raised Alice's daughter from her previous marriage as his own.

St. Thomas More serves a very good example for all our fathers in faith and raising their children. May St. Thomas More intercede for our fathers and guide our families with the strength of Faith in God. Let us pray every day the following prayer of St. Thomas More.

Prayer for Good Humor

Grant me oh Lord, good digestion,
and also something to digest.
Grant me a healthy body, and the necessary good humor to maintain it.
Grant me a simple soul that knows to treasure all that is good and that doesn't frighten easily at the sight of evil,
but rather finds the means to put things
back in their place.
Give me a soul that knows not boredom,
grumbles, sighs, and laments,
nor excess of stress, because of that obstructing thing called "I."
Grant me O Lord, a good sense of humor,
Allow me the grace to be able to take a joke
to discover in life a bit of joy,
and to be able to share it with others.
(By St Thomas More)

St Thomas More, Pray for Us ...

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

Last Sunday, June 14, 2020, 7 Salesians were ordained to the Diaconate in the Church of All Nations, Gethsemane, Jerusalem. Congratulations and may God be with each one of you as you journey towards the priesthood.

The newly ordained Salesian Deacons.
On the right are:

Brother Steven De Maio, Brother Craig Spence, and Brother Leonard Carlino of our own parish of St. Thomas More.

June is the month dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

St. Margaret Mary of Alacoque received several private revelations of the Sacred Heart, the first on 27 December 1673 and the final one 18 months later. The visions revealed to her the form of the devotion, the chief features being reception of Holy Communion on the first Friday of each month, Eucharistic adoration during a "Holy hour" on Thursdays, and the celebration of the Feast of the Sacred Heart. She stated that in her vision she was instructed to spend an hour every Thursday night to meditate on Jesus' Agony in the Garden of Gethsemane. The Holy Hour practice later became widespread among Catholics.

Our Parish Church is open every day from 9:00 am to 6:00 pm. During this time of Corona Virus and Social unrest please spend some time in the Church before the Blessed Sacrament

Please Pray that Jesus who is gentle and lowly in heart to make our yoke easy and burden light and to find our rest in his Healing Grace.

Let us pray that the Sacred Heart of Jesus may open the hearts of people to understand and accept each other with dignity and respect. May the Sacred Heart inspire our leaders with wisdom and courage to promote peace and fraternal love.

KIND REMINDER

Our Parish offers Mass every day.
We also live-stream the Sunday Masses every Saturday at 5:00 pm.

Please visit our Parish Website stmli.org.
You will find instructions on how to participate and pray
the Mass with us every day at your convenient time in your home.

Every weekend there will a Mass on Saturday at 5pm in the church and 2 Masses on Sunday at 10 am in the Church and at 12noon in the Parking Lot (weather permitting)

THE RCIA NEEDS EVERYONE

We pray for all who cannot receive Jesus in the Sacrament of Eucharist. The Catechumens, those needing Baptism, and Candidates, those previously baptized who have hit a roadblock on their way to join the community at the table of the Lord. They have followed your example to remain faithful and on the spiritual path. We ask all parishioners of Saint Thomas More to continue to support those who are journeying to join us to be nourished at the table of our Lord, Jesus Christ. The Catechumens are, Zhiping Fennekohn, Anthony and Rick Vigo. The Candidates are Marissa Abram, Eric Abram, Aiden Lepore, Nina Latchman, and Cynthia Leon

CIRCLE OF WOMEN

It is the mission of the Circle of Women Book Group to focus on the spiritual influence of contemporary writing that facilitates our own reflections of God's action in our daily lives.

The Circle of Women Book Club will be postponed until September 14, 2020.

PRAY FOR THE SICK

Pamela Brosnan, Veronica Corvasce, Diane DiChristina, Walt Drechsler Jr., Rosemarie Flore, Marilyn Gast, Gail, Laurie Holmes, Jean Marsala Kieffner, Lauren Lossani, Jim Marsala, Joan Nachtman, Mary Ann O’Gara, Rita Platia, Maura Reddy, Rosalie Rocchio, Joyce Rose, Jerry Smith, Peggy Stepanek, Richard Tulipan, Chase Turano, Andrew J. Valentine, Andrew M. Valentine, Rosalind Warmuth, Diane Weisz, Janet Weil, Don Wieman, Pat Yezek, Ashley Zabelsky

Please re-submit names of those people you wish to put on our Sick List.

This listing will expire on September 30, 2020.

During these difficult times, as a family of faith, we turn to our Heavenly Father in prayer. You are invited to submit your prayer intentions and those of your family. All prayer intentions will be placed in a basket near the altar in St Thomas More before each Mass. We are streaming Sunday Mass on Saturday at 5pm at www.stmli.org. Daily mass is posted Monday through Friday on YouTube

The basket will serve as a silent reminder that we are united in faith, hope and love as we lift one another up in prayer and support, while placing our trust in the Lord.

“For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy.”

Focus on Religious Freedom

www.cffor.org

Beginning June 22, the

Feasts of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) celebrates religious freedom and urges Catholics to pray, reflect and take action on religious liberty.

In response to the call from the USCCB, please join Catholics for Freedom of Religion (CFFOR) in praying to Mary Immaculate, Patroness of America, for the healing of our Nation and full restoration of religious freedom. The Rosary for America which dedicates each bead to one of our 50 states, will be recited in public prayer outside several churches during Religious Freedom Week.

In the Secret of the Rosary, Saint Louis de Montfort states: "Public prayer is far more powerful than private prayer to appease the anger of God and call down His mercy."

The text of the Rosary for America can be printed from the home page of www.CFFOR.org and is used by many individuals, ministries and churches as ongoing prayer for our Nation.

Please spend time in prayer for the healing of our Nation.

Catholic Bishops Designate Religious Freedom Week - June 22-29:

"To be Catholic and American should mean not having to choose one over the other. Our allegiances are distinct, but they need not be contradictory, and should instead be complimentary. That is the teaching of our Catholic faith, which obliges us to work together with fellow citizens for the common good of all who live in this land. That is the vision of our founding and the Constitution, which guarantees citizens of all religious faiths the right to contribute to our common life together."

O God our Creator,

We ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith. Amen

Gift Report

- | | | |
|---|--------|--------------------------|
| ◆ | 20,396 | gifts have been received |
| ◆ | $330. | is the average gift |

We, at the Catholic Ministries Appeal office, hope you are doing well during this time. As always, we are available for anything you may need. Please give us a call or email us.

During this time, it grows increasingly difficult to raise and ask for money. However, the good news is that our parishioners are giving! The CMA and Text2Give option for Offertory are still bringing in money from our parishioners who are still thinking of others, despite their own issues. We suggest that you continually mention the importance of your weekly offertory. A customized Text2Give Icon is available for your online bulletin, website and social media. Since we have offered the Text2Give for Parish Offertory, our Text2Give option for Parish Offertory has brought in over $95,000 with about 15% being recurring gifts! During this time, more than ever, every cent counts.

Another option we suggest you consider is signing on with Vanco e-giving. If you do not have e-giving, this is the best time to sign on with Vanco as they will set up an online giving option that is both user-friendly for your parishioners and economic for the parish. We have had a parish that recently signed on during this difficult time and it has been well received. Additionally, parishes are reporting an increase in online donors. If you are interested in this company, please reach out to us or directly to Peter Johnson, our representative from Vanco, at Direct: 952.352.8136 Mobile: 612.889.3418.

Summer Mailing

There will be a July mailing-from Bishop Barres going out on July 14th to any parishioner who has given in the past but not yet at this time.

We will provide bulletin inserts of the letter along with a pulpit announcement and general intercession closer to the mail date.
