Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

July 5, 2020

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time`

Zechariah 9: 9-10

Psalm: 145: 1-2, 8-9, 10-11, 13-14

Romans 8:9, 11-13

Matthew 11: 25-30

A reading from the Gospel of St. Matthew::

At that time Jesus exclaimed:

“I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones.

Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will.

All things have been handed over to me by my Father.

No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him.”

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves.

For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

A miser was looking for a gift for a friend. Everything was too expensive except for a glass vase that had been broken, which he could purchase for almost nothing. He asked the store to send it, hoping his friend would think it had been broken in transit. In due time, he received an acknowledgement from his friend. "Thanks for the vase," it read. "It was so thoughtful of you to wrap each piece separately." A gift becomes a gift only when it is given whole heartedly. If the heart of the giver is only partially involved, even the precious object will have the value of broken pieces. It is not the person's honor or the purse but the heart that gives the gift its value.

The words of today's Gospel sound very radically demanding. Jesus expects his disciples to love Him more than their own family (father, mother and children). In other places Jesus seems to place tougher demands, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself." (Mt. 16:24) "If any one comes to me without hating his father* and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple." (Lk 14:26). Such a kind of discipleship is too radical to live.

On the other hand, today's Gospel ends saying that even the smallest, next to nothing act of kindness will not go unrewarded by God. "Whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because he is a disciple—amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward." As much as He demands a radical following, Jesus is also very sensitive to even the smallest good a person does.

Thus it is not about how much a disciple sacrifices in following Jesus but how much the disciple involves his/her total self in the small or big sacrifice. Life is giving oneself whole heartedly not half-heartedly. In the eyes of Jesus, the widow's few cents were worth more than the abundance of the big donors because the widow gave the whole of her existence while the others donated something from their excess. Let us pray that God makes us give from the heart. May our life be a whole-hearted living, not a half-hearted one.

Welcome back to church: As we have opened the church for public worship with 25% capacity of our church, Mass attendance gradually increases. As it stands our church can accommodate close to 180 people; some 60-100 in the Church (depending on individual or family seating) and another 60 to 100 in the Halls with open walls facing the altar. Feel free to come at your convenience and as much as your health condition allows. For your convenience we hold mass also at the parking lot at noon. There seem to be more people who prefer to attend the outdoor mass. If the weather is favorable be assured that the mass will be outdoors.. Let us pray for favorable weather on Sundays

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

OUR PARISH SACRAMENTAL LIFE

EUCCHARIST

Weekend Masses: Saturday: 5pm
Sunday: 8am, 9:15am, 10:45am, 12:15pm
Weekday Mass: 9am, Monday through Saturday.

BAPTISM- As soon as your child is born, please call the Parish Office to make Baptism arrangements. Preparation session and welcoming Mass attendance are required.

MARRIAGE- As soon as a couple decides to marry, and BEFORE making any other arrangements, call the Church Office to schedule an appointment with the Parish Office or one of the deacons.

RECONCILIATION- Celebrated in Church every Saturday from 4pm to 4:45pm, or by previous appointment with Parish Office.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK- Call the Church Office to request visitation of the sick.

CONFIRMATION- Those who have not been confirmed should call the Parish Office to receive further information.

HOLY ORDERS- Contact the Parish Office for more information about the priesthood or diaconate.

June is the month dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

St. Margaret Mary of Alacoque received several private revelations of the Sacred Heart, the first on 27 December 1673 and the final one 18 months later. The visions revealed to her the form of the devotion, the chief features being reception of Holy Communion on the first Friday of each month, Eucharistic adoration during a "Holy hour" on Thursdays, and the celebration of the Feast of the Sacred Heart. She stated that in her vision she was instructed to spend an hour every Thursday night to meditate on Jesus' Agony in the Garden of Gethsemane. The Holy Hour practice later became widespread among Catholics.

Our Parish Church is open every day from 9:00 am to 6:00 pm. During this time of Corona Virus and Social unrest please spend some time in the Church before the Blessed Sacrament

Please Pray that Jesus who is gentle and lowly in heart to make our yoke easy and burden light and to find our rest in his Healing Grace.

Let us pray that the Sacred Heart of Jesus may open the hearts of people to understand and accept each other with dignity and respect. May the Sacred Heart inspire our leaders with wisdom and courage to promote peace and fraternal love.

KIND REMINDER

Our Parish offers Mass every day.
We also live-stream the Sunday Masses every Saturday at 5:00 pm.

Please visit our Parish Website stmli.org.
You will find instructions on how to participate and pray
the Mass with us every day at your convenient time in your home.

Every weekend there will a Mass on Saturday at 5pm in the church and 2 Masses on Sunday at 10 am in the Church and at 12noon in the Parking Lot (weather permitting)

THE RCIA NEEDS EVERYONE

We pray for all who cannot receive Jesus in the Sacrament of Eucharist. The Catechumens, those needing Baptism, and Candidates, those previously baptized who have hit a roadblock on their way to join the community at the table of the Lord. They have followed your example to remain faithful and on the spiritual path. We ask all parishioners of Saint Thomas More to continue to support those who are journeying to join us to be nourished at the table of our Lord, Jesus Christ. The Catechumens are, Zhiping Fennekohn, Anthony and Rick Vigo. The Candidates are Marissa Abram, Eric Abram, Aiden Lepore, Nina Latchman, and Cynthia Leon

CIRCLE OF WOMEN

It is the mission of the Circle of Women Book Group to focus on the spiritual influence of contemporary writing that facilitates our own reflections of God's action in our daily lives.

The Circle of Women Book Club will be postponed until September 14, 2020.

Valentine, Andrew M. Valentine, Rosalind Warmuth, Diane Weisz, Janet Weil, Don Wieman, Pat Yezek, Ashley Zabelsky, Denise Zappia

Please re-submit names of those people you wish to put on our Sick List.

This listing will expire on September 30, 2020.

During these difficult times, as a family of faith, we turn to our Heavenly Father in prayer. You are invited to submit your prayer intentions and those of your family. All prayer intentions will be placed in a basket near the altar in St Thomas More before each Mass. We are streaming Sunday Mass on Saturday at 5pm at www.stmli.org. Daily mass is posted Monday through Friday on YouTube. The basket will serve as a silent reminder that we are united in faith, hope and love as we lift one another up in prayer and support, while placing our trust in the Lord.

“For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy.”

St. Therese of Lisieux

Focus on Religious Freedom

Celebrating "Religious Freedom Week" - June 22-29

The Christian Roots of America's Longing for Liberty - Part 1

In the 17th century (1600's), many of the British North American colonies that eventually formed the United States were settled by men and women who, in the face of European persecution, refused to compromise passionately held religious convictions and fled Europe. The colonies of NJ, PA, and MD were conceived and established "as plantations of religion." While some settlers came for secular reasons, the great majority left Europe to worship God in the way they believed to be correct. They enthusiastically supported the efforts of their leaders to create "a city on a hill" or a "holy experiment," whose success would prove that God's plan for his churches could be successfully realized in the American wilderness. ⁽¹⁾

In 1634, a mix of Catholic and Protestant settlers arrived from England at St. Clement's Island in Southern Maryland. They came at the invitation of the Catholic Lord Baltimore, who had been granted Maryland by the Protestant King Charles I. While Catholics and Protestants were killing each other in Europe, Lord Baltimore imagined Maryland, Mary Land in honor of Queen Henrietta Marie, as a society where people of different faiths could live together peacefully. Maryland's 1649 Act Concerning Religion, also called the "Toleration Act", was the first law in our nation's history to protect an individual's right to freedom of conscience. ⁽²⁾

Maryland's early history teaches us that, like any freedom, religious liberty requires constant vigilance and protection, or it will disappear. Maryland's experiment in religious toleration ended within a few decades. The colony was placed under royal control, and the Church of England became the established religion. Discriminatory laws, including the loss of political rights, were enacted against those who refused to conform. Catholic chapels were closed, and Catholics were restricted to practicing their faith in their homes. The Catholic community lived under these conditions until the American Revolution. ⁽³⁾

(Library of Congress/Religion & the Founding of the American Republic (1); USCCB/Our First, Most Cherished Liberty(2)(3)

"In addition to this summer's observance, we also urge that the Solemnity of Christ the King - a feast born out of resistance to totalitarian incursions against religious liberty - be a day specifically employed by bishops and priests to preach about religious liberty, both here and abroad.

"To all our fellow Catholics, we urge an intensification of your prayers and fasting for a new birth of freedom in our beloved country. We invite you to join us in an urgent prayer for religious liberty."

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus tell us: "Whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple--Amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

Jesus example reveals that disciples on mission become channels of divine blessings to those who provide for their needs. The smallest considerate gesture to anyone earns heavenly rewards.

Your support of SVdP enables us to act as disciples of Jesus. Thank you for this blessed opportunity

2020 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL
DIOCESE OF ROCKVILLE CENTRE

“No vocation is born of itself or lives for itself. A vocation flows from the heart of God and blossoms in the good soil of faithful people. Did not Jesus say: “By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another” (Jn 13:35)?

--Pope Francis

Your Appeal donation supports vocations to the priesthood in our Diocese. It ensures that our seminarians have the time, resources and guidance they need to discern their vocation, begin their human and spiritual formation and embark on a life-time commitment of holy service as priests.

On June 20th, our Diocese received a double blessing when Bishop Barres ordained two more men to serve God's people in this time and place as members of Christ's priesthood. With great generosity of mind, heart, and spirit, Fr. John Crozier and Fr. Rafal Borowiejski have willingly dedicated their lives to Christ and have become wonderful role models for all of us, by placing their trust in Jesus and answering the call to follow Him more closely.

“Catholic priests are contemplative and missionary instruments of the Divine Mercy of Jesus Christ expressed in the Word of God, the Catholic Mass and all the Sacraments.”

- Bishop Barres

Please consider donating to the Appeal and support Vocations in our Diocese.
