A reading from the Gospel of St. Matthew:

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him.

He began to teach them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for
righteousness,

for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of
righteousness,

for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you

and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me.

Rejoice and be glad,

for your reward will be great in heaven.”

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

On visiting a seriously ill lawyer in the hospital, his friend found him sitting up in bed, frantically leafing through the Bible.

“What are you doing?” asked the friend.

“Looking for loopholes” replied the lawyer.

The Bible is not merely a book of laws where one can find loopholes. Nor is it merely a book of instructions which one can conveniently handle according one’s own whims and convenience. Rather the Bible is the record of how God operates. It inspires the believers to realize how God continues to operate in their lives.

In today’s Gospel a scholar of the law asked Jesus, “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?” As the Gospel exposes, the purpose of the question was not to know the right answer but to trick Jesus. They were ready to have a legal dispute with whatever answer Jesus would give them. Jesus took the word “greatest” not to mean any gradation in the commandments of the Law. For Him all the commandments are equally great. No law is greater or lesser than any other Every law in some way or other reflects the wish and wisdom of God.

Jesus Himself preached the importance of all the laws. “Heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or the smallest part of a letter will pass from the law. Whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. Jesus has come not to abolish but to fulfill the law.” (Mat.5: 17-19) Jesus takes the word; “Greatest” to mean the essence that ties all the laws together as the expression of God’s will and covenantal love. Thus His answer places the love of God and love of neighbor as the greatest expression and aim of the laws.

His answer explains the aim of the laws is the relationship with God and the people. Law must promote not legality but the relationship. The observer of the law must be interested not in mere observation of the laws but in living the relationship with God and neighbor. Jesus answered the scholar of the law, “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.”

In two weeks we will celebrate ‘All Souls Day’, the day we remember and pray for all who lived with us and have gone to live with God for ever. Please send the envelopes with the names of those we would pray for during the All Souls Novena Masses. Envelopes are also found on the bulletin stands in the Narthex of the church.

November 1st All Saints Day the 9:30 am Mass is the Costume Mass for Children: This year, All Saints Day, November 1st falls on a Sunday. It is our parish tradition that children come to the All Saints Mass (the Day after Halloween) in their costumes. This year we encourage families to bring their children in their costumes to the 9:30 am Mass in the Parking Lot on Sunday, November 1st. After the homily we will give the children an opportunity for photographs and for a parade before the congregation gathered in the cars. Later after 12:00 noon Mass the high schoolers will have the youth meeting with Halloween All Saints celebration..

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

Why we pray the Rosary:

We pray the Rosary throughout October because October 7th is the feast of Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary, and The Miracle of the Sun, also known as the Miracle of Fatima, is reported to have occurred on October 13, 1917. On that day a large crowd had gathered in Fatima, Portugal, in response to a prophecy made by three shepherd children, Lúcia Santos and Francisco and Jacinta Marto. In all her monthly apparitions from May 13 to October 13, Our Lady asked the children and all of us to pray the Rosary for Peace.

We suggest and request you to pray the Rosary every day; If not the full Rosary, at least a decade of it, which is one Our Father, 10 Hail Marys and a Glory be.

How to Pray the Rosary

Begin the Rosary by making the sign of the Cross: In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Then say the Apostle's Creed: I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son Our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into Hell; the third day He rose again from the dead;

He ascended into Heaven, and sits at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen.

Then say one Our Father, three Hail Marys (for the virtues of Faith, Hope, and Charity) and one Glory Be:

Our Father, Who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

GLORY BE to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Lord.

Embracing Goodness & Truth

*"Woe to you that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter."
Isaiah 5:20*

"Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship" from USCCB

Political and social questions require citizens to develop a well-formed conscience. "Conscience is not something that allows us to justify doing whatever we want, nor is it a 'feeling' about what we should or should not do. Rather, conscience is the voice of God resounding in the human heart, revealing the truth to us and calling us to do what is good and shunning evil."⁽¹⁾ "There are some things we must never do, as individuals or as a society, because they are always incompatible with love of God and neighbor and are called 'intrinsically evil' actions. These actions must always be rejected and opposed."⁽²⁾

In "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship" the US Conference of Catholic Bishops states, "The threat of abortion remains our preeminent priority because it directly attacks life itself, because it takes place within the sanctuary of the family, and because of the number of lives destroyed."⁽³⁾

"As we all seek to advance the common good - by promoting religious freedom, by defending human life from the moment of conception until natural death, by defending marriage, by feeding the hungry and housing the homeless - it is important to recognize that not all possible courses of action are morally acceptable."⁽⁴⁾ The Catechism of the Catholic Church states, "Some things are always wrong and no one may deliberately vote in favor of them. Citizens support these evils indirectly if they vote in favor of candidates who propose to advance them."⁽⁵⁾

Pope Francis said, "We are living in an information driven society which bombards us indiscriminately with data - which leads to superficiality in the area of moral discernment. We need to develop critical thinking and encourage development of moral values."⁽⁶⁾

Happening Now: San Francisco Archbishop Denounces Draconian Restrictions

"One person at a time inside this great Cathedral to pray? What an insult! This is a mockery," said Archbishop Cordileone on Sept. 20, 2020. "Why can people shop at Nordstrom's at 25% capacity but only one of you at a time is allowed to pray inside this great Cathedral? ... I never expected that the most basic religious freedom, the right to worship - protected so robustly in our Constitution's First Amendment - would be unjustly repressed by an American Government."⁽⁷⁾

Be Silent No More!

Elected officials and their staff listen to, read and tabulate citizens' concerns and opinions when making decisions for their state and for the country. Do not be silent. ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In this Sunday's Gospel we find the truth that loving God isn't merely a matter of fervor in our hearts, but that it must be expressed in doing good for the sake of others.

Each month, through your gifts, we are able to show that we indeed love our neighbors by assisting them in various ways (utility bills, auto insurance and repairs, rent arrears, etc.)

Thank You!

Religious Education News

We are in the process of registering new and returning students in Religious Education. If you have or know of a child in grades 1-8 who would like to be enrolled in the Religious Education Program this year, please contact us at 631 234-0397 or reled@stmli.org and we will be glad to assist you.

Because of the pandemic Religious Education will look different this year. Beginning the second week of September small classes will meet outside. Catechists and children will wear masks and maintain the correct social distance. We will continue outdoor classes as long as it is safe to do so and the weather permits. After that we will switch to online learning.

We anticipate that we will be able to celebrate First Communion and Confirmation later next spring or early summer as we did this past July when we celebrated the sacraments in smaller groups following Diocesan guidelines.

Please pray for the children, their families and catechists as they continue on their journey of faith.
