May 22, 2021
Pentecost Sunday
Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11
Psalm 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34
1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13
John 20:19-23

A reading from the Gospel according to John:

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them,

“Peace be with you.”

When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side.

The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

Jesus said to them again,

“Peace be with you.

As the Father has sent me, so I send you.”

And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit.

Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.”

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

While eating at a fast food restaurant, a little boy took his tray to the garbage can to throw away the trash. He studied the lid of the receptacle for a few moments and came running back to his mom and proudly announced that he knew how to spell “garbage” - P-U-S-H. His mom asked him if he knew what L-O-V-E spells. The boy said he did not. The mother hugged her son and told him that was how she felt about him. The primary goal of language is to convey the meaning, not the grammar. Spelling fixes the form of a word. Its meaning gives it life. The Church is the only form whose meaning and life is the Holy Spirit whom Jesus sends from the Father.

The last (seventh) week of the Easter Season falls in the 10 day-period between Jesus' Ascension and Pentecost (coming of the Holy Spirit). It is the time of changing the baton of the church, from Jesus Christ to the Holy Spirit. The readings speak about how the first believers gathered in the name of Jesus, getting ready to carry the mission of Jesus with the promised power of the Holy Spirit.

The first reading narrates that they fill the place left empty by Judas with the election of Matthias. God the Father in the Old Testament chose his own people and led the Redemptive History through the twelve tribes of Israel until the time of Jesus. Now in the New Testament the church continues God's Redemptive action of Jesus through the 12 apostles and the first believers. The time of the Church begins with the power of the Holy Spirit which Jesus sent 10 days after His Ascension.

In today's Gospel Jesus prays to His Father for the mission of His Church (believers), “I do not ask that you take them out of the world but that you keep them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world. Consecrate them in the truth. Your word is truth.” Jesus consecrates the Church. Consecration means to “set apart for a special purpose.” The Church of Jesus is set apart for the Truth of Jesus and set apart from the Truth of the world; which means the church, living in the world, will be serving the Truth of Jesus, but at the same time the church will not let herself be affected by the Truth of the world. Thus the mission of “the Set Apart Church” is to live in the World as servants of Jesus' Truth.

As we are all preparing to celebrate the Feast of Pentecost, let us put on the mind of Jesus to set us apart for Jesus-Truth as servants offering Jesus-Truth in our lives, words and deeds.

I would like to inform you of the Diocesan New Guide lines. Beginning May 19, 2021, 100% of your church's capacity may be occupied.

- Since the NY State current regulation re distancing is still 6 feet, people are encouraged to wear masks and to maintain some distance as best as possible, especially those who do not belong to the same household/family.
- Masks should continue to be worn, except by children under 2 years of age and those individuals with breathing difficulties. Priest celebrants do not wear masks during the celebration of Holy Mass, except during the distribution of Holy Communion.
- Offertory processions should not resume because of the added complications of handling the gifts, interaction with ushers, etc.
- The Precious Blood should not be distributed until further notice.
- Holy Water fonts should remain empty indefinitely, but Holy Water should be available to the faithful in Holy Water tanks / dispensaries.
- Outdoor Masses should not be the norm. However, if they are celebrated, care should be given to the dignity of the celebration. In addition, Holy Communion distribution protocols must be strictly observed. Communion should not be brought to cars, distributed in plastic bags, etc.
- As per prior communications, pastors may request faculty to administer Confirmation through the fall of 2021. Beginning in the spring of 2022, we anticipate that the usual procedures for booking episcopal Confirmations will likely resume.
- The dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday and Holy Day of Obligation Masses remains in effect. We anticipate a future lifting of the dispensation together with the entire New York Province when we can accommodate our people without distancing limits. However, people are encouraged to return to in-person participation in the Holy Mass and Sacraments as much as possible.

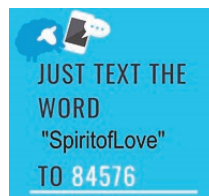

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

Focus on Religious Freedom

Critical Race Theory continued: "By a landslide vote, they don't want racially divisive 'critical race theory' (CRT) taught to their children or forced on their teachers," said newly elected Texas school board member Hannah Smith after parents overwhelmingly rejected candidates in favor of CRT. "(This vote) is a referendum on those who put personal politics and divisive philosophies ahead of ...students and families and their common American heritage and Texas values." <sup>(1)</sup>

More school districts around the country are also supporting school board candidates who oppose critical race theory as harmful to their children.

"There's no room in our classrooms for things like critical race theory," said FL Gov. DeSantis. "Teaching kids to hate their country and to hate each other is not worth one red cent of taxpayer money." <sup>(2)</sup>

Legislation hoping to ban the Marxist ideology of CRT has been introduced in many states (NH, FL, IA, OK, AK, etc) in an effort to push-back against the government proposals to overturn an executive order of Sept., 2020, that banned instilling "divisive concepts" that claim "an individual, by virtue of his/her race or sex, is inherently racist, sexist, or oppressive ..." <sup>(3)</sup>.

Critical race theory has gradually proliferated in recent decades through academia, government structures, school systems and the corporate world. It views individuals through the lens of Marxist principles of the "oppressors" (bourgeois - white people) and the "oppressed" (proletariat - everybody else).

In April, the administration proposed offering grants for K-12 history classes that use curriculum in support of critical race theory and other ideologies that teach the United States is inherently racist. In a letter to the Secretary of Education who is endorsing and promoting CRT,

House members from Colorado & South Carolina wrote, "CRT commits to an unremitting attack on Western institutions and norms in order to dismantle all aspects of society... CRT is antithetical to the fundamental values and beliefs of America and the American dream." <sup>(4)</sup> (nypost.com, 5/3/21(1); theepochtimes.com, 3/31/21(2)(3); dailywire.com, 4/27/21(4); wnd.com, 4/27/21; educationviews.org, 5/3/2; dailymail.co.uk, 5/3/21; freebeacon.com, 4/22/21(5); persecution.org, 4/28/21)

"I have a dream that my 4 little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character." - Martin Luther King Jr.

Happening Now: Shifting Focus Away from International Religious Freedom:

Sec. of State Blinken reversed a 2020 executive order that directed federal agencies to "prioritize international religious freedom in the planning & implementation of U.S. foreign policy."

Blinken vowed to "repudiate" the focus on religious freedom in foreign policy, which he said came at the cost of other human rights issues such as gay rights & abortion. <sup>(5)</sup>

This listing will expire on September 30, 2021.

During these difficult times, as a family of faith, we turn to our Heavenly Father in prayer. You are invited to submit your prayer intentions and those of your family. All prayer intentions will be placed in a basket near the altar in St Thomas More before each Mass. We are streaming Sunday Mass on Saturday at 5pm at www.stmli.org. Daily mass is posted Monday through Friday on YouTube. The basket will serve as a silent reminder that we are united in faith, hope and love as we lift one another up in prayer and support, while placing our trust in the Lord.

“For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy.”

St. Therese of Lisieux

PRAY FOR THE DECEASED

Christopher Loring, for all those who have succumbed to COVID-19, our deceased loved ones and our deceased service men and women.

USING FAITH DIRECT? - It's quick and easy! Consider having automatic deductions from either your checking or savings or use a credit card to Support St. Thomas More each week. With Faith Direct, there is no fee to you! Please visit the Faith Direct website at www.FaithDirect.net to sign up: our church code is NY227. # RCIA

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Have you been called by Name? Do you want to Know Jesus!!
Do you feel like there is more? Then step into the light and join us at the RCIA where your faith journey leads those seekers to meet Jesus in the Easter Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation.
The RCIA team is comprised of committed individuals who are entrusted to share our faith with those adults who express a desire to become a Catholic or to complete one or more of the sacraments. To find out how to start this faith journey call the rectory at 631-234-5551.
