Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

July 4, 2021
Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Exekiel 2: 2-5
Psalm 123: 1-2, 2, 3-4
2 Corinthians 12:7-10
Mark 6:1-6

A reading from the Gospel according to Mark:

Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples.

When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished.

They said, "Where did this man get all this?

What kind of wisdom has been given him?

What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands!

Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?"

And they took offense at him.

Jesus said to them,

"A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house."

So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them.

He was amazed at their lack of faith.

A prophet is not without honor except in his native place

This And That With Deacon Matt

In July and August, Deacon Matt will be making time to visit with small groups of parishioners in the home.

Do you have questions about our faith? Do you find it difficult to follow teachings of the Church in this day and age?

Are there issues you'd like to discuss, or suggestions you'd like to make?

The floor is yours! Deacon Matt will be the facilitator.

The format is simple: find 6-10 people to gather at your home on a specific date, serve dessert, and come with your questions/topics.

Deacon Matt is especially interested in hearing the voice of the young. So teenagers and young adults are most certainly encouraged to get a group together.

To see what dates are available and to sign up, go to a page we've setup on our website:

<https://stmli.org/ThisAndThat2021>.

You may also send an email to ThisAndThat2021@stmli.org or leave a message at the Rectory for Deacon Matt to call you.

Surprise Visit of Bishop John O. Barres to St. Thomas More on Saturday, June 18, 2021 for the 5pm Mass

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

A customer walked in an insurance office looking for a quote. But first, the agent had to lead her through a litany of questions including “Marital status?”

“Well”, she began, “I guess you could say we are happy – as happy as most other couples nowadays.” A simple question can sometime bring an unexpected answer. Likewise, when we approach God with a simple petition of our single need, God would respond to our petitions in God’s abundance, more than we asked for.

Today’s Gospel is a double miracle, one intertwined into the other explaining how the touch of Jesus responds to a simple prayer with God’s abundant grace. In the first miracle the woman, suffering from a hemorrhage for twelve years, approached Jesus with a simple petition, “If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured.” Her wish was so singularly simple that she wanted to touch Him and be healed anonymously without anyone’s knowledge.

But touch always includes two people. When she touched Him for healing, He touched her and not only healed her but also turned her into a public witness of faith in Him. ““Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction.” When a faithful touches God with prayer, God touches the faithful with favor of God’s abundance. The faithful becomes not only the healed but also the public witness of faith in the Healer.

The second miracle is a pleading call from a father for Jesus’ touch. “My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live.” On his way to the girl’s house, Jesus was delayed by the first miracle and he could only reach the house after the death of the girl, only to be ridiculed by the people. He took the child by the hand and said to her, “Little girl, I say to you, arise!” The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. The touch of God brought the dead to life. What is impossible for people is possible with God.

When everything around us seems unpromising, impossible and deadly Jesus only repeats the same words that He said to the girl’s father, “Do not be afraid; just have faith.” Yes faith makes things Possible, not easy. Both miracles encourage us to approach God with faith. Our prayer in faith may express just what we want but God would answer us more than we have prayed, expected, dreamt or imagined. (Ephesians 3:20)

Congratulations to 120 teenagers who will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation this week; 40 on Monday, June 28th, 40 on Wednesday, June 30th and 40 on Friday, July 2nd. Please pray for them and their families that they may be inspired by the reception of the Holy Spirit and begin to live as witnesses to God’s love and testimony to Jesus’ message.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

Religious Freedom Week: June 22-29 continued

The annual observance of Religious Freedom Week began as the Fortnight for Freedom in 2012, when the Church and other religious liberty advocates were concerned about threats to the Defense of Marriage Act⁽¹⁾ In 2021, the U.S. Bishops continue to see threats to Catholic institutions in many different areas of concern. Also, this year's observance comes as the Supreme Court is due to rule on a Philadelphia First Amendment case that has implications for religious freedom in the area of foster care and adoption. "Domestically, a major area of concern continues to be freedom for Catholic institutions, such as schools, hospitals, and child welfare service providers, to carry out their missions with integrity," said a bishops' press release.⁽²⁾

The Church is encouraged to "Pray - Reflect - Act" on the following themes:

Adoption & Foster Care
Catholic Social Services during the Pandemic
The Equality Act
Church Vandalism
Catholics in Nigeria
Conscience Rights for Medical Professionals
Solidarity with Christians in Iraq
Free Speech⁽³⁾

"The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) Committee for Religious Liberty collaborated with the Office of International Justice and Peace to raise awareness and show solidarity with people throughout the world who suffer for their faith, from the persecution of Christians in Nicaragua to highlighting Pope Francis's trip to Iraq this year."⁽⁴⁾
Through prayer, education, and public action

during religious Freedom Week, the USCCB hopes to promote the essential right of religious freedom for Catholics and for those of all faiths.

"Religious freedom remains one of American's most precious possessions. And, as my brothers, the United States Bishops, have reminded us, all are called to be vigilant, precisely as good citizens, to preserve and defend that freedom from everything that would threaten or compromise it. " -Pope Francis

Happening Now: Ruling that Vermont Cannot Deny Aid to Catholic School Students

Vermont's Town Tuition Program (TTP) provides funding for students in towns where the public school system does not cover all grade levels. When TTP administrators refused funding to four students who chose to attend a Catholic high school, their parents and the diocese sued and won at the Court of Appeals.

"Four years ago, the Supreme Court reminded states that it has repeatedly confirmed that denying a generally available benefit solely on account of religious identity imposes a penalty on the free exercise of religion ..." wrote Judge Steven Menashi.

"Officials who administer Vermont's (TTP) Nevertheless continued to discriminate against religious schools and students in violation of the first Amendment."⁽⁵⁾

RCIA NOTE

Who are these folks leaving after the sermon? The RCIA Group dismisses them at the completion of that part of the Mass known as the Mass of the Catechumens (The Liturgy of the Word). These are the people going to a different area of the Church to reflect on the scriptures and how the scriptures relate to their lives. The words of Jesus are the primary teacher of those wishing to become catholic or complete their sacraments.

You as part of the community are also teachers for our inquirers. Please continue to offer a warm welcome to our catechumen, Richard.

He is grateful for your warm welcome and for your prayers as he continues on his journey.

RCIA 2021 – 2022

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) invites all parishioners of Saint Thomas More to welcome Richard Kramer.

Richard has committed himself to the path which leads to Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil.

ST. THOMAS MORE NEW MASS SCHEDULE

Valentine, Andrew M. Valentine, Rosalind Warmuth, Janet Weil, Diane Weisz, Julia Westbrook, Edward Zebrowski,

This listing will expire on September 30, 2021.

During these difficult times, as a family of faith, we turn to our Heavenly Father in prayer. You are invited to submit your prayer intentions and those of your family. All prayer intentions will be placed in a basket near the altar in St Thomas More before each Mass. We are streaming Sunday Mass on Saturday at 5pm at www.stmli.org. Daily mass is posted Monday through Friday on YouTube. The basket will serve as a silent reminder that we are united in faith, hope and love as we lift one another up in prayer and support, while placing our trust in the Lord.

“For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy.”

St. Therese of Lisieux

PRAY FOR THE DECEASED

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In today's Gospel we see how in faith, Jarius asked Jesus to heal his daughter and how Jesus then answered his prayer. In prayer we also come to know that we are loved by God, and in that trust we ask for healing for ourselves, our loved ones and all those who are suffering. Thus week, please join the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in praying for the healing of all those who are ill and especially those who have no one to pray for them.
