A reading from the Gospel according to Mark:

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

The music minister rushed into the new pastor's office and began to complain about the director of Religious Education. After hearing the string of complaints the new pastor summoned the director of Religious education. Once both were in the office, the new pastor bade the Music Minister to continue his diatribe. He refused. "All right," said the pastor, "you two step into the hallway and thrash this out. If you can't reach an agreement in fifteen minutes, I will have to let one of you go." In five minutes they were back. Both were smiling. This story asks each of two questions about our inner drive. In the first place what drove the music minister to make a string of complaints? Then at the end what drove both of them to reach a peaceful agreement quickly?

Today's readings address the inner drive that motivates and empowers our word and deeds. In the first reading Amaziah, the Royal prophet appointed by the king, disputes with Amos, a Charismatic Prophet that he must not prophesy in Bethel, the king's sanctuary and a royal temple, because he is not a prophet appointed by the King.

But Amos defends that his prophetic ministry is inspired and empowered by God, not by the king. His prophecies are not inspired by the power given to him by the King but by the inspired inner drive that is infused into him by God.

In the Gospel Jesus send his disciples in His Name, with His Power. Jesus instructs them not to take nothing more than what they need for a day's journey, because the driving force of their mission should be nothing but the power and message of Christ, their master. Their mission is not what they plan and do but what Christ inspires and empowers. Their mission is not what they can achieve for God but what God can achieve in them for God's people.

In the light of the first reading and the Gospel, Paul, in the second reading explains the power and meaning of our life as Jesus' disciples. God has created each of us as the expression of His Blessings. Even if we had messed our God-Blessed life by sinning, no worry, God has forgiven all our sins through the death and resurrection of His Son Jesus Christ. God in all wisdom and insight wants to continue His original plan for each of us. He has infused each of us with His Holy Spirit as a driving force in order that we may live our life in fullness, as God intended, as God's blessing.

We become what drives us from within. If God's Spirit is the driving force we become Godly. If anything else but God becomes the driving force we will be less than our full potential to be God's image. Let us pray that God's Spirit becomes our driving force. Let us pray that the Holy Spirit may fill each of us with the power to live our potential to its fullness.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

www.cffor.org

"With countless other people of goodwill, (American Catholics) are concerned that efforts to build a just and wisely ordered society respect their deepest concerns and their right to religious liberty ... one of America's most precious possessions." - Pope Francis

America's First Freedom: Freedom of Religion

The 4th of July, Independence Day, is the United States' celebration of the love of liberty that is at the heart of our nation's founding principles. "Religious freedom is one of the most cherished of these liberties, and it is anchored in the right of an individual to act upon his or her conscience and deeply held beliefs, both privately and publicly... (it) is America's First Freedom, enshrined in the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and (has affected) the lives of successive generations of Americans for nearly 250 years," wrote Michael Warsaw, National Catholic Register.<sup>(1)</sup>

Over the years, this God-given freedom of conscience & religion, protected by the Constitution, has been challenged through regulations and lawsuits brought by individuals and groups misunderstanding or opposed to this freedom. These challenges to religious freedom have accelerated in the past decade. Fortunately, advocacy groups and law firms have emerged to develop a strong understanding of the importance of religious freedom, particularly in serving the vulnerable and working to establish justice in society.

"Barbara Samuells, president of Catholics For Freedom of Religion (CFFR), a NY based grassroots advocacy group that educates Catholic parishes about the importance of religious freedom, said that religious freedom both 'allows us to teach the truth about our Catholic faith' and carry on the work of the Gospel 'without being pushed out of the public square,' " wrote Peter Smith, National Catholic Register.<sup>(2)</sup> Samuells said, "(CFFR) has helped educate families about their children's constitutional right to pray and wear religious identification in public schools and that the wall of separation of church and state was meant to keep government out of the churches, not to keep the church out of the public square."... "(The Founders) knew that when the government steps in and tells people what they can and cannot believe, or what conscience they can and cannot follow, there is always tyranny. In order for our country to flourish, they wanted a moral and religious people."<sup>(3)</sup>

Happening Now: Religious Freedom Wins in Supreme Court

In an unanimous ruling, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled in favor of a Catholic Social Services adoption agency in Philadelphia that had lost its contract with the city in 2018 because it would not certify same-sex couples as foster parents on religious grounds. The high court ruled the city violated the Free-Exercise Clause of the First Amendment.

This And That With Deacon Matt

In July and August, Deacon Matt will be making time to visit with small groups of parishioners in the home.

Do you have questions about our faith? Do you find it difficult to follow teachings of the Church in this day and age?

Are there issues you'd like to discuss, or suggestions you'd like to make?

The floor is yours! Deacon Matt will be the facilitator.

The format is simple: find 6-10 people to gather at your home on a specific date, serve dessert, and come with your questions/topics.

Deacon Matt is especially interested in hearing the voice of the young. So teenagers and young adults are most certainly encouraged to get a group together.

To see what dates are available and to sign up, go to a page we've setup on our website:

You may also send an email to ThisAndThat2021@stmli.org or leave a message at the Rectory for Deacon Matt to call you.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel today we see how Jesus sent his Apostles out two by two. From the beginning of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, members visit in pairs "two by two," those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance.

Have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

Dear Friends:

This past Spring, Pope Francis spoke about the importance of having a prayer life that is complimented with acts of love. He stated, “A small act of pure love is more useful to the Church than all the other works combined.” One way we can perform an act of love is by supporting this year’s Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA). Your gift, given in love to God and neighbor, will help spread Dramatic Missionary Growth across Long Island.

The CMA helps fund the education of our seminarians—the future priests of the Diocese of Rockville Centre. Your gift helps these young men focus on their studies and prayer life, instead of worrying about how they will financially support their education. Last month, I ordained 3 men to the priesthood; your gift helped make that possible and will be remembered for years to come as they offer the Sacrifice of the Mass for generations to come.

Along with the seminarians, the CMA helps hundreds of thousands of Long Islanders each year. Your dollars can be used to help a pregnant mother looking for resources to help her family, a homeless veteran find housing, or an individual struggling with a drug addiction receive treatment. Your gift combined with the gifts of your fellow Long Island Catholics can be life changing for so many people—and be a light of hope for those who are in darkness.

This past year and a half have been difficult for all for us, especially those who have lost loved ones or have suffered severe financial hardships. If you have suffered from those instances, please reach out to your local parish for support and care or call Catholic Charities at 516-733-7000. If you are able to give to the CMA, I ask you to please pray on it and give what you can. I speak for myself and your pastor when I say thank you for your gift. Your generosity and compassion are very much appreciated.

May God bless you and your loved ones.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre
