A reading from the Gospel according to John:

When the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into boats and came to Capernaum looking for Jesus. And when they found him across the sea they said to him,
“Rabbi, when did you get here?”
Jesus answered them and said,
“Amen, amen, I say to you, you are looking for me not because you saw signs but because you ate the loaves and were filled. Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For on him the Father, God, has set his seal.”
So they said to him,
“What can we do to accomplish the works of God?”
Jesus answered and said to them,
“This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent.”
So they said to him,
“What sign can you do, that we may see and believe in you? What can you do?”
Our ancestors ate manna in the desert, as it is written:
He gave them bread from heaven to eat.”
So Jesus said to them,
“Amen, amen, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave the bread from heaven; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.”
So they said to him,
“Sir, give us this bread always.”
Jesus said to them,
“I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.”

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Two fellows newly arrived in Heaven and were walking the golden streets of God's celestial realm. There was more beauty and more splendor and more joy there than they had ever dreamed imaginable. One of them turned to the other and said, "Isn't this wonderful?" The other replied, "Yes, and to think we could have gotten here ten years sooner if we hadn't eaten all that strict diet of oat bran." Output is in proportion to input" is the law of the human world. It is strictly mathematical and logical. "Output always equals Input." Or "if there is no input, there is no output." More brings More, Less brings Less.

Today's readings show that the logic of God's world is quite different. It is Kingdom Logic which does not operate in terms of input and output. Kingdom Logic reflects God's generosity and His abundant Grace. In the first reading human logic states that 20 loaves (little input) cannot feed hundred people (big output). But Elisha shows how God's generosity can bring a bigger output (food for hundred) from the less input (twenty loaves). God's world of Nature can make a single seed bear thousands of fruits which in turn are ready with thousands of seeds to yield millions of fruits in the next generation.

Jesus, in today's Gospel, shows how it works in the spiritual world of humans. He multiplies the generous gift of the boy (little input of five loaves and two fishes) to feed five thousand and more with left overs in twelve baskets (abundant output). Jesus could have fed the crowd without the five loaves and two fish, because it is in and through Him everything was created 'ex nihilo' (from nothing). He did not need any input to bring any output. He did not need the boy's contribution to feed the hungry crowd. Jesus only wants to teach us how God's generosity will bless and magnify human generosity.

The miracle story begins with Jesus asking His disciples, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" Jesus' question was not "Where can I" but "Where can we". God wants the Godly abundant generosity to be shown and lived in human generosity. Not that God needs our five loaves and two fishes. But anything (like generosity) which is Godly in character will reflect God's generosity in full measure. Our readiness to donate the little (input) will put the Kingdom-Logic to come alive in God's measure (Godly great output).

What we see outwardly, is five loaves and two fishes becoming food for five thousand and more. But what we are called to realize inwardly, is the human generosity being blessed and becoming God's generosity. To do good, all I need is a generous heart to do the little good I can, no matter how little or small it may be. God operates through the good work that I can do.

God's kingdom becomes alive in the little things we can do. God will multiply our 'little inputs' according to the need of the great hunger that exists. Instead of wasting our time and energy in analyzing or accusing, and in finger-pointing or justifying the evil around us, let us act generously with our own five loaves and two fishes and God will multiply our generosity.

Our 'Less input, with lots of love would abound into 'more output' of God's blessings for His people.

We will resume the Obligation to attend Sunday Mass on the weekend of August 15th, the Solemn Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. We would celebrate it as a WELCOME HOME Mass.

We will begin all masses of the Weekend of August 14th and 15th with a procession from the Parking Lot to the Church carrying a decorated Statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary. All masses will be celebrated as we used to do before Pandemic with the choir and all the ministries participating in the mass. I request all ministers of the different ministries to sign up for the masses they can assist. Please spread the news to all our parish families. Let us start back our Normal and Regular celebration of God and our community.

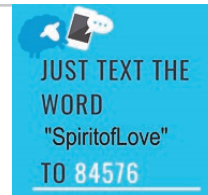

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

This And That With Deacon Matt

In July and August, Deacon Matt will be making time to visit with small groups of parishioners in the home.

Do you have questions about our faith? Do you find it difficult to follow teachings of the Church in this day and age?

Are there issues you'd like to discuss, or suggestions you'd like to make?

The floor is yours! Deacon Matt will be the facilitator.

The format is simple: find 6-10 people to gather at your home on a specific date, serve dessert, and come with your questions/topics.

Deacon Matt is especially interested in hearing the voice of the young. So teenagers and young adults are most certainly encouraged to get a group together.

To see what dates are available and to sign up, go to a page we've setup on our website:

<https://stmli.org/ThisAndThat2021>.

You may also send an email to

ThisAndThat2021@stmli.org

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel, Jesus supersedes both the apostles' and the crowds' expectations: with little he feeds many...Jesus is the sign of God's lavish presence and love. Your donation to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is indeed a sign of God's extravagant love to the lonely and the poor.
