A reading from the Gospel according to John:

The Jews murmured about Jesus because he said, “I am the bread that came down from heaven,” and they said,

“Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother?”

Then how can he say, ‘I have come down from heaven’?”

Jesus answered and said to them,

“Stop murmuring among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him, and I will raise him on the last day. It is written in the prophets:

They shall all be taught by God.

Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.”

Focus Questions:

1. Has other people’s gossip ever affected you in a negative way? If so, how?

2) When a group of people you are with begin to negatively gossip, how do you re-act?

3) In your opinion, what are the reasons people enjoy gossiping?

Family and children’s question:

When the conversation in your presence turns to negative gossip, redirect the conversation to something positive.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Jim hates to work out, which means the treadmill in his bedroom barely gets used. Nevertheless, he swears by it. "It really works."

"I throw my jeans over it, and they get smaller."

Every time we don't use a device properly, we begin to misuse it. At the end we bring hurt and harm to ourselves. When we don't understand rightly and try to take advantage of a person, we only misunderstand and make use of that person as we like, not as that person is.

Today's Gospel is the continuation of last Sunday's. Last week was the story of feeding more than 5000 people. This week the people come in search of Jesus but Jesus openly points out to them why they came to Him, "You are looking for me not because you saw signs but because you ate the loaves and were filled." While making them realize that they came to him for more free food, He invited them to avail themselves for the everlasting food from Him, "Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you."

God in Jesus begins with us as the giver of what we need but wants to make us as the receivers of what He offers. God feeds us with our worldly needs first only to make us thirst for Godly life. God sustains us not merely according to the human standard we set but uplifts us to the Divine standard that we are capable of living as His children.

Our search for Him or our prayers to Him are not merely our petitions to acquire or achieve what we need/want. Our spiritual moments with God are our yearnings and cravings to realize our full potential.

At the end of today's Gospel Jesus invites us to live our full potential, saying, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." The goal of all our searching and prayers must be to be fed by Jesus in such a way that we will never be hungry. Jesus guarantees that He is the person who would make it happen for us. Our believing in Jesus and praying to Him can bring in us a great fulfillment that we will never thirst for anything else,; that is to say that all our worldly thirsts will be quenched. All our thirsts will be quenched by our thirst for Jesus who alone will fulfill all our needs and cravings.

"Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." (2 Corinthians 5:17)

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

This And That With Deacon Matt

In July and August, Deacon Matt will be making time to visit with small groups of parishioners in the home.

Do you have questions about our faith? Do you find it difficult to follow teachings of the Church in this day and age?

Are there issues you'd like to discuss, or suggestions you'd like to make?

The floor is yours! Deacon Matt will be the facilitator.

The format is simple: find 6-10 people to gather at your home on a specific date, serve dessert, and come with your questions/topics.

Deacon Matt is especially interested in hearing the voice of the young. So teenagers and young adults are most certainly encouraged to get a group together.

To see what dates are available and to sign up, go to a page we've setup on our website:

<https://stmli.org/ThisAndThat2021>.

You may also send an email to

ThisAndThat2021@stmli.org or leave a message at the Rectory for Deacon Matt to call you.

Significant Rise in Christian Persecution Worldwide

"Let us pray for the many Christians in the world who still suffer persecution and violence. May God grant them the courage of fidelity." Pope Francis

More than 340 million Christians across the globe live in perpetual fear that they will be punished, harmed or even killed for merely practicing their faith. The annual World Watch List 2021 from Christian charity Open Doors showed this is a huge increase over previous years; the 2019 figure was about 260 million. Every day, 13 Christians worldwide are killed for their faith; 12 churches or Christian buildings are attacked; 12 Christians are unjustly imprisoned and another 5 are abducted.

Open Doors identified three main trends driving the increase:

"Covid-19 acted as a catalyst for religious persecution through relief discrimination, forced conversion, and as justification for increasing surveillance and censorship."

"Extremist attacks opportunistically spread further throughout Sub-Saharan Africa, from Nigeria to Mali and beyond."

"Chinese censorship systems continue to propagate and spread to emerging surveillance states."⁽¹⁾

"My heart breaks when I hear of believers in India and Vietnam being refused food and told 'let your God feed you.' Or when I hear of women like a Christian mother-of-three from Egypt who was kidnapped by the Muslim Brotherhood and forced to declare she had 'converted' in a video," said Open Doors CEO, Henrietta Blyth.⁽²⁾

"The pandemic has legitimized increased surveillance by totalitarian governments, with China leading the way. And nationalism driven by religious identity is increasing in countries such as India and Turkey."⁽³⁾

"It is tragic and unacceptable that this happen to anyone, whatever their faith or none. Christians will only be freed from persecution when freedom of religion and belief is guaranteed for all."⁽¹⁾

(christianitytoday.com, 1/3/21(1); christian.org.uk, 1/15/21(2)(3); lcbn.com, 2/16/20; persecution.org, 4/28/21; lifesitenews.com, 4/12/21)

Let us Pray: Lord, the plight of our brothers & sisters is deep and the suffering of Christians is severe and frightening. Therefore, we ask you Lord to spare their lives, to grant them patience & courage to continue their witness of Christian values with trust and hope. Grant us the peace and stability that will enable us to live with each other without fear and anxiety, with dignity and joy. Amen

RCIA

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Have you been called by Name? Do you want to Know Jesus!!
Do you feel like there is more? Then step into the light and join us at the RCIA where your faith journey leads those seekers to meet Jesus in the Easter Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation.
The RCIA team is comprised of committed individuals who are entrusted to share our faith with those adults who express a desire to become a Catholic or to complete one or more of the sacraments. To find out how to start this faith journey call the rectory at 631-234-5551.
