A reading from the Gospel according to Mark:

Jesus and his disciples left from there and began a journey through Galilee, but he did not wish anyone to know about it. He was teaching his disciples and telling them,

“The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him, and three days after his death the Son of Man will rise.”

But they did not understand the saying, and they were afraid to question him.

They came to Capernaum and, once inside the house,

he began to ask them,

“What were you arguing about on the way?”

But they remained silent. They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest. Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them,

“If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.”

Taking a child, he placed it in the their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them,

“Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me.”

Focus Questions:

1. Is there anything that makes you feel truly great while doing God’s work?
- 2) How difficult is it not to compare yourself to others?
- 3) When has a child taught you a Christian lesson?

Suggestions for Action:

Help an elderly person on a fixed income this season by doing chores around their house for them.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

My friend told me he doesn't trust doctors.

When I asked why, he said, "I developed pain in my leg and began to limp. My doctor told me that one of my legs was shorter than the other, and that I would need to wear special shoe inserts to even them out."

I replied, "That doesn't sound crazy. Why would that make you distrust doctors?"

He said, "Well, I wanted a second opinion, so I went to another doctor and he told me I had the exact opposite problem that one of my legs was *longer* than the other!"

Opinions are like the burning torches that throw a small circle of light around them and everything outside the circle is darkness. We have to move with the light to see anything beyond the given circle of light.

In today's Gospel Jesus starts with the opinion of who others say He is. Then He asked His disciples, the close circle of friends, for their opinion about Him. Then he ends up saying openly His own expression of who He is. He is the Son of Man, who would suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and rise after three days.

His own description of who He is, is completely different from the people's opinions about Him. That is why Peter rebuked Jesus for having such a wrong opinion about Himself. But Jesus rebuked him back saying that Peter is like Satan influencing Him to live according to people's expectation and not God's revelation. Then Jesus instructed all His followers, that if one want to live one's own God given identity, that person has to take up their cross and follow Jesus.

Our identity is not what others or our own close family or friends say about us. But as Jesus does in today's Gospel, it is what each of us say about our individual selves.. If we live according to what others would say, our life will be shaped according to the poll number we like to see.

But when we begin to live from the realization of our inner self identity, our life will be more meaningful, joyful living, empowering us and others around us. Let us prayerfully ask ourselves individually "what do I say about myself?"

This weekend, Saturday is September 11 is the 20th anniversary of the tragedy that took place on 9.11.2000. "During the September 11 attacks in 2000, 2,977 people were killed, 19

hijackers committed murder–suicide, and more than 6,000 others were injured. The immediate deaths included 265 on the four planes (including the terrorists), 2,606 in the World Trade Center and in the surrounding area, and 125 at the Pentagon. The attacks remain the deadliest terrorist act in world history." (Wikipedia). Its direct and indirect consequences are still seen in the physical and mental health of the affected families, economics, world politics, peace and security. On this day of the painful memory, let us pray and make a pledge. Let us light a candle and pray for the repose of all those who lost their lives and for the comfort of the families who still suffer from it in many different ways.

Let us also make a pledge that we will be instruments of peace imitating St. Francis of Assisi, "where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy." We know, "An eye for an eye" makes the whole world blind. So be the change that you want see in the world."

(Mahatma Gandhi)

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

New Pastoral Letter from Bishop Barres.

Our Holiness and Mission in the Changing World of Work.

A Pastoral Letter Celebrating St. Joseph the Worker on Labor Day. In this pastoral letter, Bishop John Barres examines what St. Joseph teaches us about the true nature of human labor in God's plan for our happiness. The pastoral letter extolls the role of hard work in building families, businesses and our country and gives some thoughts, inspired by St. Joseph's example, on how work forms our character and influences our relationship with God and neighbor.

Focus on Religious Freedom

"The happy union of these states is a wonder; their Constitution is a miracle; their example the hope of liberty throughout the world." - James Madison

Celebrating Constitution Week, September 17-23, in All Schools

"The U.S. Constitution stands as a testament to the tenacity of Americans throughout history to maintain their liberties, freedoms and inalienable rights." <sup>(1)</sup> Then, in 2004, Sen. Robert Byrd, correctly believing that American school children lacked significant knowledge regarding the Constitution, proposed an amendment, passed by Congress, requiring that all educational institutions receiving federal funds implement educational programs relating to the U.S. Constitution on Sept. 17 every year, celebrating the signing of the Constitution on Sept. 17, 1787.

Since federal law requires schools, colleges and universities to observe Constitution Day with appropriate programs, those schools failing to observe the day or week, risk losing their federal funds.

Some of the original delegates to the states were troubled that the original Constitution lacked a description of individual rights. In 1791, Americans added the first 10 Amendments known as the Bill of Rights. The first and foundational right is: "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; ..." <sup>(2)</sup>

"Hold on, my friends, to the Constitution and to the Republic for which it stands.

Miracles do not cluster and what has happened once in 6,000 years may not happen again.

Hold on to the Constitution, for if the American Constitution should fail, there will be anarchy throughout the world." - Daniel Webster, lawyer and statesman (1782-1852)

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In today's Gospel Jesus says "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me,"

The cross of Jesus and the crosses of his members can evangelize us: the sick, who bear illness with courage; the grieving, who hope against hope; the dying, who clearly trust in the resurrection; the suffering of our poor brothers and sisters who are hungry and homeless, but who still trust in God's love.

Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of job or an illness? Please leave a message for your conference of St. Vincent de Paul (at 631 648 2760)...we want to help!
