Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

September 26, 2021
Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Numbers 11:25-29
Psalm 19: 8, 12-13, 14
James 5: 1-6
Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

A reading from the Gospel according to Mark:

At that time, John said to Jesus,
"Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us."

Jesus replied,

"Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me. For whoever is not against us is for us. Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward.

"Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed than with two hands to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life crippled than with two feet to be thrown into Gehenna. And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. Better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into Gehenna, where 'their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.'"

Focus Questions:

1. What makes you feel like a member of God's team?
- 2) How does being part of God's team inspire you to perform good works?
- 3) What does being a member of God's team mean to you?

Suggestions for Action:

Spend fifteen minutes each day this week meditating on what God is asking of you.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Today's readings reminded me of a saying "Confidence is entering a sales contest and wondering who is going to come in second." When one is sure of one's identity no one can make that person feel second to anyone. As God's wonderful creation, each of us is so unique and incomparable that none of us is second to anybody.

Today's Gospel invites us to experience our uniqueness. It begins with Jesus foretelling how He is going to die like a servant on the cross and rise again on the third day. However His disciples followed Him discussing who was the greatest among them. Jesus took this opportunity to instruct them who is the greatest and what one should do in order to be the greatest.

In Jesus (God's) wisdom, greatness consists in giving oneself to others and not in competing or comparing with each other. Competing with each other would only end in each one elevating oneself or eliminating the other. Comparing oneself with the other would only make one mindful of berating or belittling the other, and would never help any of us to live our original God-given identity that is unique to each of us.

Jesus had all the power and wisdom to prove to everyone that He was neither wrong nor weak as He could have easily destroyed everyone who condemned Him to the cross. But as God-Man He lived His Godly uniqueness by dying on the Cross and by forgiving His own persecutors. Jesus lived His real identity not in condemning but in embracing everyone compassionately and indiscriminately. His life was one of serving His best and thus empowering His believers to live their God-given best. Jesus was and is the greatest, not by proving His power and wisdom to be better than anyone or everyone; but by serving His power and wisdom, enabling His believers to live their best.

His Instruction to his disciples in today's Gospel presses this truth. "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all. The best consists not in proving one's worth against that of the other but in serving one's best to the others. We, the disciples of Jesus are called to serve not because we are unequipped with leadership qualities. In Jesus's community serving is the essential quality to be a leader, because in serving we are empowered to live the uniqueness which God has invested in us. Let us pray that God makes us servants to live the God-given uniqueness.

This Sunday we begin two important ministries to the younger generations of our Parish Family—the children and the teens. At the Children's mass we used to invite children to carpets to talk to them the weekly message of God. Starting this Sunday September 19th during the children's mass at 9:30 am, no more carpet message but group of volunteers will take the children ages 4-8 years old to Walden Hall to present them the message of the Gospel through multi-media. Then they will come back and join us in the main Church at the Offertory time. Please bring your children to the children's mass.

Children's Church

Also this Sunday we begin the youth ministry. Our new youth minister Noelle has a wonderful, spiritual and fun filled program for them. High school teens are invited to join the 11:30 am mass and continue with the youth ministry. Please invite and encourage our High School teens to be a part of our youth ministry.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

"The happy union of these states is a wonder; their Constitution is a miracle; their example the hope of liberty throughout the world." - James Madison

Celebrating Constitution Week,
September 17-23, in All Schools

"The U.S. Constitution stands as a testament to the tenacity of Americans throughout history to maintain their liberties, freedoms and inalienable rights."<sup>(1)</sup> Then, in 2004, Sen. Robert Byrd, correctly believing that American school children lacked significant knowledge regarding the Constitution, proposed an amendment, passed by Congress, requiring that all educational institutions receiving federal funds implement educational programs relating to the U.S. Constitution on Sept. 17 every year, celebrating the signing of the Constitution on Sept. 17, 1787.

Since federal law requires schools, colleges and universities to observe Constitution Day with appropriate programs, those schools failing to observe the day or week, risk losing their federal funds.

Some of the original delegates to the states were troubled that the original Constitution lacked a description of individual rights. In 1791, Americans added the first 10 Amendments known as the Bill of Rights. The first and foundational right is: "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof;

(dar.org(1); ciis.edu(2); nationalday.com; us-code.house.gov; Constitution of the United States)

"Hold on, my friends, to the Constitution and to the Republic for which it stands. Miracles do not cluster and what has happened once in 6,000 years may not happen again. Hold on to the Constitution, for if the American Constitution should fail, there will be anarchy throughout the world." - Daniel Webster, lawyer and statesman (1782-1852)

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In today's Gospel Jesus called the Twelve, and said to them, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Taking a child, He placed it in their midst, and putting His arms around the child, He said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives Me; and whoever receives Me, receives not Me, but the One who sent Me."
Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will help children feel the arms of Jesus around them.
