Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

A reading from the Gospel according to Luke:

Jesus proceeded on his journey up to Jerusalem. As he drew near to Bethphage and Bethany at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples. He said, "Go into the village opposite you, and as you enter it you will find a colt tethered on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. And if anyone should ask you, 'Why are you untying it?' you will answer, 'The Master has need of it.'"

So those who had been sent went off and found everything just as he had told them. And as they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying this colt?"

They answered, "The Master has need of it."

So they brought it to Jesus, threw their cloaks over the colt, and helped Jesus to mount. As he rode along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road; and now as he was approaching the slope of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of his disciples began to praise God aloud with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen. They proclaimed:

"Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord.

Peace in heaven and glory in the highest."

Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples."

He said in reply, "I tell you, if they keep silent, the stones will cry out!"

Focus Questions:

1. Describe a time when you were falsely accused of doing something. How did you react?
2. Describe a time when you felt alone, abandoned by even those closest to you.
3. What does your family do with the palms you receive on Palm Sunday?

Family and children's question:

Jesus forgave even on the Cross. Talk about the importance of forgiving each other.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

"I saw the angel in the marble and carved until I set him free. Every block of stone has a statue inside it and it is the task of the sculptor to discover it." (Michelangelo) It may look rough but it bears within it a priceless sculpture. It needs an artist to bring it out. It needs a rock to bear the pain of chiseling by the artist.

This Sunday is Palm Sunday. We begin Holy Week. The main message of Holy Week is how God chisels us into His beautiful marvelous handiwork through our sufferings. Holy week is the celebration of what happened to Jesus in the last week of his earthly life; His betrayal, passion, suffering and death. The Church's liturgical celebrations of these events invite us to recall and re-live our sufferings and pains in the light of Jesus' sufferings and pains.

Jesus is God who has all the power and wisdom to avert the pain inflicted on Him, or transform the suffering He underwent all of them even before they could happen to Him. Yet He endured all the shameful sufferings, bore all pains, and embraced death. Why?

It is to show that God's power can change even negative events like suffering, pain, shame and death, into positive fruits of forgiveness, mercy, service and love. The focus of Holy week is not merely to portray how much Jesus suffered for us but to proclaim how God in Jesus powerfully transforms even the negative moments/events to positive and life-giving moments/events.

Please, let us pay attention to all the readings and the liturgical expressions of Holy Week. We will be able to grasp how the sufferings and death of Jesus are God's chiseling moments, pouring abundantly God's mercy, forgiveness and love on His people, including even those who inflicted such horror on Him. As through His miracles, Jesus revealed God's power and love, so through His suffering and death He revealed God's mercy, forgiveness and love

We are God's creation; created after God's image. We bear God's presence within us. Holy week reminds us that we can live this God-given identity not only in favorable times but also in our unfavorable times. Every moment, both negative and positive can be a powerful positive moment of living our best God-given values of mercy, service and love. May Holy Week inspire and empower us to live our best in all seasons, both in blessings and pain. Within our hearts is carved a sculpture of God's love.

Holy Week invites us to be like Jesus. We too can become God's wonderful act of victory even over death. As St. Paul says, 'if we die with Jesus we will rise with Jesus'.

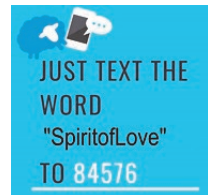

I extend a personal welcome to each of you to celebrate the mysteries of Holy Week. Let us journey with Jesus. Please go through the Holy Week Schedule and allow yourselves to be chiseled by God for the best of yourselves to come out as God's wonderful work of art.

Reconciliation Monday: Monday April 11th is Reconciliation Monday. Confessions will be heard from 3:00 pm to 9:00 pm in our Church and in all the Catholic Churches of our Diocese of Rockville Centre. Individual Confession cleanses and illumines the hearts to enter into the mystery of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday. All are welcome.

On Good Friday is Tenebrae, which is an evening prayer celebrating the Redemptive death of Jesus with candles in the dark and listening to the scriptures. Please come on Good Friday, April 15th at 7:30pm

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

PRAY FOR THE SICK

Marsha Augustyn, Carol Bartolotta, Pamela Brosnan, Robert Heaton, Jean Marsala Kieffner, Eleanor Kingsley, Barbara Mickelson, Al Pankus, Richard Rantz, Dolores M. Rudden, Ellie Stout, Andrew J. Valentine, Andrew M. Valentine, Rosalind Warmuth, Janet Weil, Edward Zebrowski,

This listing will expire on September 30, 2022.

During these difficult times, as a family of faith, we turn to our Heavenly Father in prayer. You are invited to submit your prayer intentions and those of your family. All prayer intentions will be placed in a basket near the altar in St Thomas More before each Mass. The basket will serve as a silent reminder that we are united in faith, hope and love as we lift one another up in prayer and support, while placing our trust in the Lord.

“For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy.”

Easter 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Christ is Risen, Alleluia!

Every Easter, as we celebrate our Lord's victory over death, we delight in the consolation that all is restored through the Resurrection, and we ponder God's relentless invitation to live the divine life given at baptism.

This is the good news of our faith: Christ has conquered death and we are invited to life. This good news needs to be heard time and again. Even when things are bleak, we remember Christ is victorious and that we have been invited to witness to his victory. As Pope Francis says:

“Where all seems to be dead, signs of the resurrection suddenly spring up. It is an irresistible force. Often it seems that God does not exist: all around us we see persistent injustice, evil, indifference and cruelty. But it is also true that in the midst of darkness something new always springs to life and sooner or later produces fruit. On razed land life breaks through, stubbornly yet invincibly. However dark things are, goodness always re-emerges and spreads. Each day in our world beauty is born anew, it rises transformed through the storms of history. Values always tend to reappear under new guises, and human beings have arisen time after time from situations that seemed doomed. Such is the power of the resurrection, and all who evangelize are instruments of that power.”¹

We know well the bleakness that can overwhelm us. How good it is to recall God's goodness! The Risen Lord moves through the locked doors of fear to lead us, to lead our families and to lead the world to peace. May we never forget God's triumph over death and our baptismal call to be an instrument of that power. May we show the Risen Lord to all we meet.

This Easter, as we rejoice in Christ's Resurrection, let us remember especially those who suffer in Ukraine and the millions who have been displaced by that tragic war. Together, we pray that the Risen Christ bring light to their darkness and give them peace.

Be assured of my prayers for you in these holy and joyful weeks.

Happy Easter!

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

St. Thomas More Lenten Project

This year's Lenten Project will support Holy Family Vocational Technical School (Sagrada Familia) in the Dominican Republic.

In 1979 the Diocese of Rockville Center adopted the parish of San Pedro Apostol in El Cercado, Dominican Republic. The El Cercado mission organized and empowered a network of faith-based communities in barrios and rural towns to build schools, safe homes, water systems, latrines, agriculture and preventative health services. There is currently an elementary and secondary school for over 600 students in pre-K to grade 12. A 3-floor physical structure was recently completed with plans to provide technical training to juniors and seniors, allowing these young people to become agents of change in their own community. The school was named "Sagrada Familia" in honor of the 50th anniversary of Holy Family Diocesan High School in Huntington. Fr. John Cervini, a former Associate Pastor at St. Thomas, spent 17 years as the Pastor in El Cercado and continues to support the El Cercado mission.

Donations from our Lenten project will support an electricity workshop, plumbing workshop, beauty & hygiene workshop, cooking and bakery workshop, arts & crafts and sewing workshop and an assembly room. The goal is to open the school this September. Future plans include evening courses for adults and senior citizens.

Any donation will be greatly appreciated. Checks can be made out to St. Thomas More and placed in the little house by the bulletin board.
