Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

June 5, 2022
Pentecost Sunday
Acts 2:1-11
Psalm 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34
1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13
John 20:19-23

A reading from the Gospel according to John:

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side.

The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you."

And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them,

"Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Focus Question:

- 1) Relate an experience when you felt the Holy Spirit helping or inspiring you.
- 2) Jesus wishes his disciples "Peace". How do you bring peace to those around you?
- 3) Where do you see courageous expressions of people loving one another against great odds?

Family and children's question

To be a follower of Jesus means being forgiven and being forgiving. How well do you forgive those who hurt you?

Two men who lived all their lives in the Arctic cold region travelled to Miami. On the bus to the hotel they saw people who were waterskiing. Having seen only their kayaks and other hand-propelled boats throughout their lives, one man asked the other, “what makes the boat so fast?” The other man watched for a few seconds, then replied, “Man on string pushes it.” What do we want to say about life? Is life a push or a pull or a simple flow?

The seventh week of Easter is an in-between week - between the Feast of Ascension, (which is Jesus going up to Heaven) and the Feast of Pentecost, (which is the Holy Spirit coming down upon Mary and the disciples of Jesus.) The Feast of Ascension is celebrated on the 40th day of Easter. The Feast of Pentecost falls on the 50th day of Easter. On Ascension Day Jesus commissioned His disciples to continue His Mission. On the Feast Day of Pentecost Jesus sent God’s gift, the Holy Spirit upon His disciples to live His Mission in the power, wisdom and guidance of His Spirit.

At the Ascension Jesus began the flow of Divine Life in the church and at the Pentecost the Holy Spirit enlightens and empowers the Church to join the flow of the Divine Life. Life in the Church is neither our attempt of trying to push life to reach somewhere nor our striving to pull life to the place where we want it to happen. Rather Life is just our willful joining its flow started by Jesus and guided by Holy Spirit.

These Nine days between the two Feasts of Ascension and Pentecost are very important days for the whole Church. She prays to Jesus to fill her members with the Godly gift of Holy Spirit. Her ardent prayers through these Novena (Nine) days are “Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the Earth.” If you take away their breath, they perish and return to their dust. When you send forth your spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the earth. (Psalms 104:29-30).

God has created us and supplied us with everything to lead a peaceful and meaningful life. But our weakness and unwillingness to co-operate and join the flow of life with God’s guidance, would enslave us to certain habits or selfish conveniences. We are always in need of renewing ourselves in order to live our full potential. Unless we break our cycle of living what we are conveniently used to, we will be like a guinea pig running inside the wheel but moving to no new place. We may sweat and toil but bearing no fruit and never being fulfilled in life. We need the Holy Spirit to guide us towards the fullness of life, wisdom to walk away from our lazy, convenient and selfish routine of life, and the divine power to live the divine image in which we are created.

Few lines from a Gregorian chant to the Holy Spirit can be the best prayer that we can pray every day to renew ourselves and revitalize our living.

*O most blessed Light divine, Shine within these hearts of Thine, And fill our inmost being !!
Where you are not, we, humans have naught, Nothing good in deed or thought, Nothing free from taint of ill.*

*Heal our wounds; renew our strength; pour Your dew on our dryness; Wash the stains of guilt away;
Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray.*

We have started the Novena to the Holy Spirit, and we pray through our Patron St. Thomas More for our families, especially for our Children and grandchildren. May the Holy Spirit guide them; May our Patron St. Thomas More intercede for us.

The color of the Holy Spirit Sunday is RED. So I kindly suggest all of you to wear something RED when you come to mass. RED everywhere and RED in all will remind the great gift of God for us, The HOLY SPIRIT.

Kind reminder: Next weekend is the great celebration of 1) Parish Feast of Our Patron St. Thomas More 2) Solemn Feast of Pentecost 3) Joyful coming back after Covid 4) 40th Anniversary of my Priestly Ordination. I invite you personally to participate whatever the event that is convenient for you. Please go through this bulletin to know more about the events. Come and be a part of the celebrations; LET US CELEBRATE.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

Catholic Communications Campaign

Next week our special collection supports the Catholic Communications Campaign. This campaign connects people with Christ and builds Catholic communities in the United States and developing countries using the internet, television, radio, and print media. Half of the money collected remains here in the Diocese of Rockville Centre to fund local communications efforts. Your support helps spread the Gospel message!

Memorial Day: A Catholic Understanding of the Nature and Call of Freedom

As Americans, this Memorial Day we remember those who died in service to our country. But as Catholic Americans, we reflect on the meaning of true freedom - a freedom we as Catholics are called to live to the fullest.

In The Gospel of Life, Pope John Paul II shows that when freedom is no longer based on objective truth, it destroys itself. When a person declares himself totally self-governing, autonomous, deciding his own truth, as in a secular state, then people will eventually reject each other, as each person seeks to have to have his own interests prevail. Such a society does not become more free; it becomes less free as vice, corruption, brutality and oppression inevitably increase.

This Memorial Day, Catholics rightly honor our fallen brothers and sisters, and we remember our Church, who has defended the dignity and freedom of the human person for 2,000 years. ⁽¹⁾

During these difficult times, as a family of faith, we turn to our Heavenly Father in prayer. You are invited to submit your prayer intentions and those of your family. All prayer intentions will be placed in a basket near the altar in St Thomas More before each Mass. The basket will serve as a silent reminder that we are united in faith, hope and love as we lift one another up in prayer and support, while placing our trust in the Lord.

“For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy.”
