A reading from the Gospel according to Luke:

When the days for Jesus' being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem, and he sent messengers ahead of him.

On the way they entered a Samaritan village to prepare for his reception there, but they would not welcome him because the destination of his journey was Jerusalem.

When the disciples James and John saw this they asked, "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?"

Jesus turned and rebuked them, and they journeyed to another village.

As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go."

Jesus answered him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head."

And to another he said, "Follow me."

But he replied, "Lord, let me go first and bury my father."

But he answered him, "Let the dead bury their dead.

But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God."

And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home."

To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God."

Focus Questions:

- 1) Describe a time when you found being a follower of Jesus hard to do.
- 2) How dependent are you on the material goods of life?
- 3) Describe a time when you were rejected because of your faith.

Family and children's question

Jesus tells his followers not to take revenge on villages that rejected them. How do you react to people who reject you?

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Jeff is informed about the passing away of a warehouse worker on a Sunday after working continuously for 12 hours leaving behind a wife and 2 young kids. Jeff said, "Let's make sure his hard work and sacrifice are not wasted...." then he ordered his subordinates "Find someone who can finish the remaining 2 hours of his shift". Whether it is work or life, it is the spirit of Sacrifice that makes it complete and effective.

Today is the solemn Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Today's readings speak about 'offering'. In the first reading Abraham offers a gift to the Priest Melchizedek who in turn offers him God's blessings. In the second reading Paul reminds his Corinthian congregation how the believers remember and celebrate Jesus' offering of Himself in their worship of breaking the bread and sharing the cup. In today's Gospel Jesus offers food by multiplying the five loaves and two fishes which His disciples offered to Him.

Today's feast is the celebration of Jesus offering Himself as food. On Good Friday Jesus offered Himself on the Cross and died and showed God's sacrificing love for us. The previous day, Holy Thursday Jesus celebrated with His disciples the Last Supper in which He gave Himself in the form of bread and wine. The Good Friday's sacrifice on the Cross was enacted in the Last Supper sacramentally, in Holy Symbols of bread and wine. By his sacrificial offering in the form of bread and wine Jesus made God's complete and effective love to be experienced by the believers in the sacramental form.

At the end of the Last Supper, he commanded His disciples to continue offering the bread and wine in memory of His death and Resurrection. We remember and celebrate the sacrificial presence of Jesus in the form of bread and wine. Jesus comes to us as Food. The food that goes inside the body becomes the body itself; Jesus whom we consume as food, can turn our nature into His nature. He becomes one with us and we become one with God.

EUCCHARIST is the well-known name for the Bread and Wine in which Jesus offers His Body and Blood. Eucharist is the anglicized Greek word 'eucharistein' which means 'to thank'. Since Jesus is becoming one with the person who takes Him in the form of bread and wine, the receiver is so filled with 'Thanks' that this food of Jesus got the name 'Thanks' – EUCCHARIST.

The Eucharist, which is Jesus' body and blood in the form of bread and wine, is the SACRAMENT. The Sacrament is the act and moment of receiving God's invisible Grace in the visible form. The bread and wine serve as a visible sign. Whenever we celebrate Jesus' last supper praying the same words of Jesus in the Holy Sacrifice of Mass, we believe that Jesus transforms (transubstantiates) the simple bread and wine as His body and blood. Thus, the recipients of the Eucharist are filled with Grace and presence of Jesus in the visible form of Bread and wine.

Jesus becomes one with us. Jesus that lives in us and others, bonds us as His One Body. We are united in His loving presence within us. we become the members of the body of Jesus. Eucharist, the Sacramental body of Jesus Christ is the Sacrament of unity bonding us in Jesus Christ.

Since the consecrated Bread and wine bear the presence of Jesus, we repose (preserve) the excess of bread from the Mass in the Holy Tabernacle in the Church. The churches where the tabernacle contains the Eucharist, are believed to be filled with Christ's presence, making the believers entering the House of God with reverence.

Let us have great love and reverence for Jesus in the Eucharist. Let us adore Him and get united in Him. Let us spend some time in the presence of Jesus before the Tabernacle and listen to Him speak to us in silence. In our Church every First Tuesday we have an hour of adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, Eucharistic adoration. Please give yourself a chance to experience His presence on a First Tuesday of the month.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

www.cffor.org

Focus on Religious Freedom

Religious Freedom Week 2022: Theme - Life and Dignity

Again this year the U.S. Bishops have declared June 22-29, 2022, Religious Freedom Week. We are all called to defend the God-given right to religious liberty which continues to face grave threats in the U.S. and the world. Religious freedom allows the Church and all religious communities, to live out their faith in public and to serve the good of all.

The USCCB chose June 22, the feast day of SS Thomas More (1478-1535) and John Fisher (1469-1535), the patron saints of Religious Freedom, to begin this important week when Catholics and all Americans are urged to pray, reflect and act to promote religious freedom.

SS Thomas More and John Fisher were talented and brilliant Renaissance men who bore witness to a deep faith in Christ and his Church. They were executed for following their consciences and refusing to sign an oath claiming the king was head of the Church.

"I die the King's good servant, but God's first." - St. Thomas More, 1535

Please join Catholics For Freedom of Religion parish volunteers on June 26, 2022, at St. Agnes Cathedral, Rockville Centre, NY, at 11am Mass, as we pray for religious freedom for all and celebrate ten years of ministry to educate and advocate for First Amendment Freedom of Religion for all.

Night of the # Sacred Heart

The month of June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. St. Patrick's Catholic Church cordially invites you to join us for Night of the Sacred Heart. It will be a beautiful candlelit evening, filled with adoration, contemplative silence, and moments of praise and worship. Selected excerpts from the revelations and writings of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque will be read intermittently, and throughout the evening, there will be an opportunity to venerate the relic of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque.

Whether you are looking to deepen your faith, or spend some time with our Lord in the blessed sacrament, you are invited to join us for an evening of quiet refuge and private prayer. Consider this evening as a mini-retreat to rest your head in the heart of Jesus.

Night of the Sacred Heart will be held Friday, June 24th from 7:30pm - 9:00pm at St. Patrick's Catholic Church, 280 East Main Street, Smithtown, New York 11787. Phone # (631) 265-2271 <https://stpatricksmithtown.org/>
