Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

August 7, 2022
Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Wisdom 18:6-9
Psalm 33:1, 12, 18-19, 20-22
Hebrfews 11:1-2, 8-19
Luke 12:35-40

A reading from the Gospel according to Luke:

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Gird your loins and light your lamps and be like servants who await their master’s return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival. Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself, have the servants recline at table, and proceed to wait on them.

And should he come in the second or third watch and find them prepared in this way, blessed are those servants. Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.

You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.”

Focus Questions:

- 1) What do you worry about that might happen in the future?
- 2) What do you treasure the most? How do you care for that treasure?
- 3) What has changed in your life because of your faith?

Family and children’s question:

Jesus tells his disciples not to be afraid. What are you most afraid of? Who helps you not to be afraid?

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Two farmers each won a million dollars in the state lottery. The first farmer said, "I am going to use this money to retire, move to Florida, and live the good life." When the second farmer was asked what he planned to do, he replied, "I don't know, I think I'll just keep on farming until it's all used up." According to the first farmer money can buy a better life. According to the second, money can help improve life. There is an old proverb, "Money is a wonderful servant but a terrible master."

Money can buy many possessions but not life and relationships. Money can be spent for gifts but cannot win the heart. Money can afford expensive medicines but not health. Money can build beautiful houses but not loving homes. Money can fill places outwardly but cannot fulfill a person inwardly. At the end, as the first reading says, with money, all will seem mere vanity, a life without substance.

Today's Gospel-story invites us not to lose the immeasurable gift of life at the cost of measurable quantity of money. The story explains the foolishness of sacrificing the present day-to-day life in order to earn possessions for a happy tomorrow. Jesus says the possessions for tomorrow are not a guarantee for the happiness of tomorrow. Living the present happily will equip us with the spirit and strength to live a happy tomorrow. The message is that we have to engage ourselves today totally and fully. As Jesus has instructed in the Sermon on the Mount, "Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Let the day's own trouble be sufficient for the day." (Matthew 6:34) Today's happy life will bring a bright tomorrow. Let us live our present.

You are invited to St. Thomas More Beach Mass and Picnic. Please remember to mark your calendar; September 18th is the date at Otto Schubert Beach, Nissequogue, starting with Mass at Noon. Please note that due to safety concerns, we won't be able to provide food this year. But we invite all to bring their own lunch and share social time with each other after Mass.

Summer rest and planning: Summer activities are in full swing. As much as we spend time in fun, let us also take some time in the relaxed summer days in planning to engage our children in some spiritual activities during the school year... like doing some service as altar servers, lectors, choir members or in youth ministry... Education and sport will nurture their body and intellect. Church activities will feed their spirit which is the basis of both mind and body.

I am also taking advantage of summer time to visit my mother and family in India. I will return to St. Thomas More for the Labor Day weekend.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

This And That With Deacon Matt

In July and August, Deacon Matt will be making time to visit with small groups of parishioners in the home. Do you have questions about our faith? Do you find it difficult to follow teachings of the Church in this day and age? Are there issues you'd like to discuss, or suggestions you'd like to make? The floor is yours! Deacon Matt will be the facilitator. The format is simple: find 6-10 people to gather at your home on a specific date, serve dessert, and come with your questions/topics.

Deacon Matt is especially interested in hearing the voice of the young. So teenagers and young adults are most certainly encouraged to get a group together.

To see what dates are available and to sign up, go to a page we've setup on our website: <https://stmli.org/ThisAndThat2022>. You may also send an email to ThisAndThat2022@stmli.org or leave a message at the Rectory for Deacon Matt to call you.

Altar Bread and Wine Memorial

During these difficult times, as a family of faith, we turn to our Heavenly Father in prayer. You are invited to submit your prayer intentions and those of your family. All prayer intentions will be placed in a basket near the altar in St Thomas More before each Mass. The basket will serve as a silent reminder that we are united in faith, hope and love as we lift one another up in prayer and support, while placing our trust in the Lord.

“For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy.”

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable about the rich man who selfishly stored all his grain and goods only to die and not enjoy his abundance anyway. What we struggle all our lives to learn is that life does not consist of possessions nor our perceived security, but of being possessed by God.

Whenever you donate to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you are realizing that in giving you indeed receive
