A reading from the Gospel according to Luke:

Jesus passed through towns and villages, teaching as he went and making his way to Jerusalem. Someone asked him, "Lord, will only a few people be saved?"

He answered them, "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough.

After the master of the house has arisen and locked the door, then will you stand outside knocking and saying, 'Lord, open the door for us.'

He will say to you in reply, 'I do not know where you are from.

And you will say, 'We ate and drank in your company and you taught in our streets.'

Then he will say to you, 'I do not know where you are from. Depart from me, all you evildoers!'

And there will be wailing and grinding of teeth when you see Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God and you yourselves cast out. And people will come from the east and the west and from the north and the south and will recline at table in the kingdom of God. For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last."

Focus Questions:

- 1) How much time and energy do you put into following Jesus compared to other areas of your life.
- 2) How do you help others enter through the narrow gate?
- 3) How well do you think Jesus knows you?

Family and children's question:

Summer is winding down. How have you made practicing your faith a part of your summertime activities?

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

A woman in the grocery department of a supermarket bent down to pick up some tomatoes. At that moment she felt a sharp pain shooting down her back; she became immobilized and let out a shriek.

A shopper standing next to her leaned over and said, "If you shriek at the price of tomatoes, you should see the price of the fish!"

What was he reacting to? Is it reality he was responding to? Or his assumptions about it?

Today's Gospel is a very difficult one. It begins with a question that seems to have an obvious answer: "Do you think I have come to bring peace to the earth?" Our answer: "Yes, of course we do. You are the Prince of Peace, after all. At your birth, the angels celebrated 'peace on earth.' You invited, "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." Matthew (11:28) So, yes, Jesus, we do think you have come to bring peace on earth." Then we hear Jesus' stunning response: "No, I have come to divide people against each other!" (12:51). Jesus goes on to explain how He will split families in a variety of ways. This was just about the worst thing one could imagine. And Jesus is saying he's going to do it.

There may be various ways of interpreting these verses. I would like you not to merely understand Jesus's words intellectually but more so to experience Jesus in these words. Words are like daggers. They can be used to pin down certain idea or release certain spirit/ power of living in the hearers. Literally these words of Jesus promote division and split in relationship. But His words of "division" are preceded by His declaration, "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing! There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished!"

Jesus supplies the background how the fire in heart is the power of living. Anything else but this fire would not be able to cause the peace we want to live and cherish. Everything else without this fire will only freeze people in their own comfortably chosen zone, making them unable to open their hearts towards others in peace. The ministerial presence of Jesus among the people aims to ignite the fire in the believers.

Without this fire of Baptism, the words of Jesus will be used as daggers, fix the believers in their own comfortable interpretations. Then the words of Jesus, instead of creating Jesus-experience in our hearts, would end up separating and dividing through opinions based on our convenient interpretations. Jesus knew that we would all be divided by our opinions and that is why He prayed for our unity, "I do not ask for these only, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me." (John 17:20-21)

As Jesus prayed, we became believers through their word. Unless Jesus becomes our common experience, His words will cause division in opinions, interpretations and theological statements. This is the reason we are divided into various denominations even though we all believe in the same person JESUS. Let us open our hearts and live the life of experiencing Jesus. Let us embrace wherever Jesus's experience is lived.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

This And That With Deacon Matt

In July and August, Deacon Matt will be making time to visit with small groups of parishioners in the home. Do you have questions about our faith? Do you find it difficult to follow teachings of the Church in this day and age? Are there issues you'd like to discuss, or suggestions you'd like to make? The floor is yours! Deacon Matt will be the facilitator. The format is simple: find 6-10 people to gather at your home on a specific date, serve dessert, and come with your questions/topics.

Deacon Matt is especially interested in hearing the voice of the young. So teenagers and young adults are most certainly encouraged to get a group together.

To see what dates are available and to sign up, go to a page we've setup on our website: <https://stmli.org/ThisAndThat2022>. You may also send an email to ThisAndThat2022@stmli.org or leave a message at the Rectory for Deacon Matt to call you.

NEEDS NEW MEMBERS!

The St. Thomas More Hospitality Guild provides refreshments (usually cake and coffee) for fellowship following the Sunday Masses the 3rd weekend of every month and for other special occasions.

We need new members to be able to continue this loving tradition!

We work as a team to set up, make coffee, serve and tidy-up the kitchen after the last Mass.

We also ask members to bring a baked good to place on our sharing table.

The commitment is not big but very important to our parish family.

Please consider joining us to help continue this wonderful tradition.

Current members will be available in the Narthex on Sunday, August 21st & 28th after each Mass to answer any questions and take down your contact information.

We can't wait to welcome you into our guild!!!
