A reading from the Gospel according to Luke:

On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully.

He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table. "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor. A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him, and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say, 'Give your place to this man,' and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place. Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, 'My friend, move up to a higher position.' Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table. For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Then he said to the host who invited him, "When you hold a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment. Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

Focus Questions:

- 1) Recall a time when you and your friends excluded someone from an activity. How do Jesus' words cause you to rethink what happened?
- 2) Describe a person you know who is loved and respected for their humility.
- 3) How important is your social status to you?

Family and children's question:

Talk about the importance of accepting others even if they are different from you.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Little Billy, caught in mischief, was asked by his mother, "How do you expect to get into heaven when you are so mischievous?"

He thought for a moment and then said, "Well, I will just run in and out and keep slamming the door until they say, "For heaven's sake, either come in or stay out. Then I will go in." One can enter Heaven only "for heaven's sake." Nothing but heavenly style of living will let one enter heaven.

Today's readings speak about Heaven not as space but a reality of humans living in God's presence. In the first reading, Isaiah portrays how God will gather all nation of every language to see His glory. People will bring their brothers and sisters from all nations as an offering to the Lord as Priests and Levites bring their offerings to God's Temple in Jerusalem. God and God's people living in God's glorious presence is Heaven.

Second reading encourages us to endure all trials as " God disciplining" His children. Because the Lord disciplines whom He loves; He scourges every son and daughter He acknowledges. The discipline and trials may seem "a cause not for joy but pain" but if God is with us the time of trials bring God's presence close to us.

In the Gospel, the disciples asked Jesus, "Lord, will only a few people be saved?" Jesus said that one must be strong-willed to enter through the narrow door, which means to say that one must discipline oneself, not easily vacillated between different opinions or actions or be indecisive. One must focus to enter the narrow gate (= disciplined living) before the master of the house has arisen and locked the door: (which means that entering God's presence should already start now while living here on earth.)

As St. Catherine of Sienna says, "All the way to Heave is Heaven." If the heaven does not happen now here on earth it would never happen. If we don't develop a relationship with the Heavenly God now, every day through the simple acts like drinking, eating and living with others we will end up hearing from God, "Depart from me, all you evildoers!" "I do not know where you are from."

Jesus wants us to realize that we have to start living the God's presence already from this moment. Jesus reminds us how He will welcome people to his eternal Kingdom. He said, "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." (Matthew 25:40) Heaven has started for those who began to live recognizing Jesus's presence in the least of the people, the poor, the hungry, the thirsty, the lonely, the sick and the downtrodden. Let us live the Heaven on earth. Let all our earthly moments bear the Heavenly character. Let us live with the Heavenly Lord while still living on earth.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

Presentation Of Babies

Deacon Ed blesses the babies and their families that are scheduled to be baptized at St. Thomas More in the coming months.

This And That With Deacon Matt

In July and August, Deacon Matt will be making time to visit with small groups of parishioners in the home. Do you have questions about our faith? Do you find it difficult to follow teachings of the Church in this day and age? Are there issues you'd like to discuss, or suggestions you'd like to make? The floor is yours! Deacon Matt will be the facilitator. The format is simple: find 6-10 people to gather at your home on a specific date, serve dessert, and come with your questions/topics.

Deacon Matt is especially interested in hearing the voice of the young. So teenagers and young adults are most certainly encouraged to get a group together.

To see what dates are available and to sign up, go to a page we've setup on our website: <https://stmli.org/ThisAndThat2022>. You may also send an email to ThisAndThat2022@stmli.org or leave a message at the Rectory for Deacon Matt to call you.

Altar Bread and Wine Memorial

To arrange the memorial for the Altar Bread and Wine, please call the Rectory at 631-234-5551. Donation for the week is $50. A card will be sent to the family.

All prayer intentions will be placed in a basket near the altar in St Thomas More before each Mass. The basket will serve as a silent reminder that we are united in faith, hope and love as we lift one another up in prayer and support, while placing our trust in the Lord.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us to "strive to enter through the narrow gate." Our call to be disciples and to follow Jesus demands that we learn to live for the sake of others.

This month your conference of St. Vincent de Paul has helped our neighbors with overdue auto insurance payments, rent arrears payments, the purchase of a car seat for a disabled child, etc. Without your help none of this would be possible. Thank you for your generosity.

The Saint Thomas More

Hospitality Guild

NEEDS NEW MEMBERS!

The St. Thomas More Hospitality Guild provides refreshments (usually cake and coffee) for fellowship following the Sunday Masses the 3rd weekend of every month and for other special occasions.

We need new members to be able to continue this loving tradition!

We work as a team to set up, make coffee, serve and tidy-up the kitchen after the last Mass.

We also ask members to bring a baked good to place on our sharing table.

The commitment is not big but very important to our parish family.

Please consider joining us to help continue this wonderful tradition.

Current members will be available in the Narthex on Sunday, August 21st & 28th after each Mass to answer any questions and take down your contact information.

We can't wait to welcome you into our guild!!!
