A reading from the Gospel according to Luke:

Great crowds were traveling with Jesus, and he turned and addressed them, “If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if there is enough for its completion? Otherwise, after laying the foundation and finding himself unable to finish the work the onlookers should laugh at him and say, ‘This one began to build but did not have the resources to finish.’ Or what king marching into battle would not first sit down and decide whether with ten thousand troops he can successfully oppose another king advancing upon him with twenty thousand troops? But if not, while he is still far away, he will send a delegation to ask for peace terms. In the same way, anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.”

Focus Questions:

- 1) What is the most valuable asset you own? What do you have to do to maintain it?
- 2) Whose life as disciple of Jesus commands your respect?
- 3) Describe a time when your faith came between you and family members or friends.

Family and children’s question:

Talk about how you can use your resources to help others.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

“If there’s one thing, I’m better than everyone else... It is humility... my favorite thing about myself is that I’m humble.” When I speak proudly of my humility, I only disprove what I claim. Humility is not thinking less of oneself; it is thinking of oneself less. It is the maturity to be aware that universe is not going around oneself but to be open to the truth that we are together in the universe. Everyone is equally important, and the universe needs everyone for who they are and what they do.

Today’s readings invite us to reflect on our life through the light of humility. Ben Sira in the first reading says, “the humble person will be loved more than a giver of gifts.” The proud person gives objects that others may draw attention to the giver. The humble person gives out of paying attention to the need of the receiver. In humility the giver is not the center but the receiver. In the act of giving the humble person is not present. The receiver’s wellness and betterment are highlighted. Only the humble person can give gifts. Giving without humility is basically commercially motivated for a personal profit in one form or the other.

The Gospel explains how the life can be a party when we live it in humility. Life is a party time, a time of celebration given to us by God the Host. In God’s world life is the celebrative dinner to be cherished by all of us, the guests. Life loses its celebrative moments when you and I spend time in establishing who is higher in status than whom. The celebration stops and competition starts once we are not able to celebrate life as party. The whole time of living will turn into putting down one against the other. Competition will lock each of us in our pride as selfish individuals or in our closed groups.

When our life becomes the moment of proving one’s proud status, we will have no time to celebrate the life as party, cherishing the time of living as guests of God, enjoying, and cherishing His dinner. Jesus invites us to attend the life-party for the reason God, the Host has invited us, i.e., to cherish it in joy in the company of one another. All we need is not to think of oneself as the center, not to expect to think oneself higher than the other in status but to be humble, to think of oneself less. Humility opens one’s heart to see the life-party hosted by God. If only we allow the life-party to happen as intended by God the Host, no one will be asked to go to lowest place. No one need to assume the higher position in order to prove one’s higher status. When life-party is rightly celebrated in humility, each guest will be rewarded their own respective position by the Host.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

This And That With Deacon Matt

In July and August, Deacon Matt will be making time to visit with small groups of parishioners in the home. Do you have questions about our faith? Do you find it difficult to follow teachings of the Church in this day and age? Are there issues you'd like to discuss, or suggestions you'd like to make? The floor is yours! Deacon Matt will be the facilitator. The format is simple: find 6-10 people to gather at your home on a specific date, serve dessert, and come with your questions/topics.

Deacon Matt is especially interested in hearing the voice of the young. So teenagers and young adults are most certainly encouraged to get a group together.

To see what dates are available and to sign up, go to a page we've setup on our website: <https://stmli.org/ThisAndThat2022>. You may also send an email to ThisAndThat2022@stmli.org or leave a message at the Rectory for Deacon Matt to call you.

Altar Bread and Wine Memorial

All prayer intentions will be placed in a basket near the altar in St Thomas More before each Mass. The basket will serve as a silent reminder that we are united in faith, hope and love as we lift one another up in prayer and support, while placing our trust in the Lord.

“For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy.”
