A reading from the Gospel according to Luke:

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." The Lord replied, "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. "Who among you would say to your servant who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here immediately and take your place at table'? Would he not rather say to him, 'Prepare something for me to eat. Put on your apron and wait on me while I eat and drink. You may eat and drink when I am finished'? Is he grateful to that servant because he did what was commanded? So should it be with you. When you have done all you have been commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.'"

Focus Questions:

- 1) How have you experienced the struggle between what God wants and doing what you want?
- 2) Jesus said, if anyone has even a tiny bit of faith, they could accomplish much. Relate a time when you acted even though your faith was small.
- 3) Relate an experience when you thought God asked too much of you.

Family and children’s question:

Talk about what you can do to fulfill your obligation to be a servant of God.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Henny Youngman's one of the one-liners is "I have a very fine doctor. If you can't afford the surgery, he touches up the X-rays." Whatever we do or say is like X-rays. They are the outward expression of what makes our belief-system and what inspires our lifestyle. If love is our belief and inspiration our words and deeds will be just the X-ray picture of the love that wells within us.

Today's Gospel is the story of the rich man and the poor Lazarus. It begins at the home of the rich man eating sumptuously and poor Lazarus at his door looking for scraps of bread from his table. And the story ends with the same rich man at the nether world begging for a drop of water from the tip of Lazarus's finger while Lazarus is now resting at the bosom of Abraham. The earthly life of the rich man appeared to be good and happy but ended up in torment and suffering. The heavenly reality of the rich man and poor Lazarus is the just opposite of the earthly appearance. The earthly appearance was not the reflection of heavenly reality.

The rich man was valuing his life as a blessed one from what he possessed and from the joy he had from them. His concern of mercy and kindness to the suffering around him was blinded and deafened by his self-indulgence. His possession ruled him, and he was not able to live his spiritual richness of his mercy, kindness etc. to others. His life was not reflecting his spiritual richness rather he allowed the material richness to reign his life. As his life was merely material, he least cared to live his spirituals. That made him blind to Lazarus's presence who was so close to him, at his door.

After death, when he became deprived of all the material possession, the rich man's spiritual eyes were opened and now he is able to see Lazarus. He now knows that life is not just the material possessions but fundamentally the spiritual relationship with God and humans. Now his cries for Lazarus help become in vain. He now realizes that life is only spiritual relationship and nothing else. With or without the material possessions life can be lived in its abundance. But without spiritual relationship with God and other humans life will be empty and will end up in emptiness and loneliness.

After having realized this, the rich man begs Abraham to send Lazarus to his brothers that they might escape from coming to this empty and lonely nether world like him. Abraham's advice to him was that they have enough help on earth. Earth is full of God's presence, wisdom, and guidance to lead people to fullness of life in spiritual relationship. What we need is to open our eyes and ears to God's message around us; to be sensitive to the sufferings and cries of the poor 'Lazaruses' around us. We have to start living our lives in fulness by loving God and others. What we have not began here can not be reached after death. Or life must reflect our destination we have chosen. All our deeds and actions are just the X-rays of the reality we choose to live.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony
