A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew:

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled: Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death light has arisen. From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.” As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.” At once they left their nets and followed him. He walked along from there and saw two other brothers, James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They were in a boat, with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him. He went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people.

Focus Questions:

- 1) Describe a time when you felt God’s presence guiding you.
- 2) What does God’s kingdom mean to you?
- 3) Relate a time when you felt called to follow Jesus.

Family and children’s question:

Talk about what it means to be a follower of Jesus.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

My mom told me, “You are not old enough to play baseball or football. You are not yet eight. When you start baseball, you aren't going to be able to run that fast because you had an operation.” I told mom, “I wouldn't need to run that fast. When I play baseball, I'll just hit them out of the park. Then I'll be able to walk.” Life, like the baseball is not about what you cannot do. It is very much about what you can do which no other can ever do.

This Sunday is the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time. That means the festive time we began at the end of November as Advent focusing on Christmas has ended the time of celebrating Christmas and New Year 2023 with all the festivities. Now we enter into the regular time of focusing more on the routine activities of life.

Today's readings invite us to bring the essence and the power of the festive time into the ordinary time. In the first reading God invites His people saying, “You are my servant, Israel, through whom I show my glory.” People of Israel are going to be God's Glory by being God's servants. The terms 'servant' and 'Glory' seem to be incompatible with each other. 'To be a servant' means being subservient to a master giving all glory to the master and not to the servant. But in God's kingdom even the servants have their own glory of God to shine. Everyone, in whatever social status one may be, is known to be God's shining Glory.

Today's second reading reminds all those who believe in Christ, their identity as the Holy Ones (Saints) because they are sanctified by God in Christ Jesus. Whoever we are, and whatever situation of life we may live, we can be Holy ones, which means to say, that we bear within ourselves something that belongs to God alone, His Holiness. Unless we trade ourselves to something less than God Himself, we will always be God's image, God's shining Glory. We may look ordinary but every one of us carries something extraordinary which is God's wonderful gift within us to live.

In today's Gospel John the Baptist explains how this spiritual truth becomes a living power in each of the believer. Jesus, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world will baptize (the believers) with the Holy Spirit. Jesus will empower to live our Holy Identity by the power of the Holy Spirit which He gives. It is the same Holy Spirit that came upon Mary to bear and give birth to Jesus. The Holy Spirit we received in our baptism empowers us every day, to live the Holy Purpose which God has called us to live. This Holy Spirit empowers us to live as God's shining glory in our weak and mortal body. Let us be consciously aware of our dignified identity and live it with the power of the Holy Spirit.

2022 Contribution Statements: If you want your record of your 2022 contributions for tax purposes, please complete and return the cut-out in the bulletin to the Parish Office. We will begin mailing them out towards the end of January.

Faith Direct and Sacrificial Giving: I am grateful to you all who support our parish with your sacrificial offering every week. With your financial contribution we continue to do God's work in Hauppauge. There is another way of making your offering called, offering electronically. This will ensure your support even on those Sundays you are not able to come to our Parish Church, due to various reasons. You can do it by a credit card or directly through the bank. I appreciate either of your choices. Please call the Church Office for the information.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

During these difficult times, as a family of faith, we turn to our Heavenly Father in prayer. You are invited to submit your prayer intentions and those of your family. All prayer intentions will be placed in a basket near the altar in St Thomas More before each Mass. The basket will serve as a silent reminder that we are united in faith, hope and love as we lift one another up in prayer and support, while placing our trust in the Lord.

“For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy.”

DO YOU HAVE QUESTIONS?

YOU'RE INVITED TO TRY ALPHA AT STM

EXPLORE LIFE...FAITH...MEANING

ALPHA is an opportunity to explore the Christian faith in a friendly, open, and informal environment.

ALPHA will take you on a personal journey which can lead to a personal encounter with Jesus. You will be able to ask questions, share ideas, build friendships, and experience the love of God through the power of the Holy Spirit.

We gather once a week at St. Thomas More and start off with a nice dinner and dessert. We will watch a short video that features inspiring stories and interviews from around the world followed by discussion within your group. Each week our talks will look at a different question about faith.

Maybe you take care of your body by going to the gym or eating healthy but how do you take care of your spirit? We are inviting you to give yourself the gift of ALPHA. The program and dinner are free. The conversation is thought provoking. Connect with old friends or make some new ones.

ALPHA begins January 12th at 6:30pm

Even if you missed the first session there is still time to join us!
