A reading from the Gospel according to John

Jesus came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there. Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down there at the well. It was about noon. A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" —For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans.— Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water.'" The woman said to him, "Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep; where then can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern and drank from it himself with his children and his flocks?" Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water. "I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain; but you people say that the place to worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You people worship what you do not understand; we worship what we understand, because salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth; and indeed the Father seeks such people to worship him. God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth." The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming, the one called the Christ; when he comes, he will tell us everything." Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking with you." Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him. When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. Many more began to believe in him because of his word, and they said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savior of the world."

Focus Questions:

- 1) Describe a time when you thirsted for God?
- 2) Relate a time when you experienced something so exciting you had to share it?
- 3) Relate a time when, like the Samaritan woman, you came to a clearer understanding of Jesus.

Family and children's question:

Water is the source of life. What can you do to conserve water?

Fr. Antony's Letter

Dear Friends,

In that village school, the highlight of the Christmas play was to show the radiance of Jesus. An electric light bulb was hidden in the manger. All the stage lights were to be turned off so that only the brightness of the manger could be seen. At the appropriate time all lights went out due to a power failure. Silence was broken when one of the Shepherds said in a loud stage whisper, "Hey! You turned off Jesus!"

Today's Gospel shows Jesus in the Heavenly limelight. Jesus showed to three of His disciples His heavenly Glory as a Son of God. "He was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him." The disciples also heard a voice from the clouds (which means a voice of God in the biblical understanding) proclaiming "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." The disciples were wonderstruck to have seen and heard the identity of Jesus, as Son of God in His glory.

While climbing down the hill, surprisingly Jesus charged them, "Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead." This must have been too hard for the disciples to grasp why Jesus connected His glorious moment of showing to them as Son of God, with His shameful moment of dying and raising from the dead. Because Jesus was very careful that He should not be misunderstood. He was already misunderstood at least once when He multiplied the bread for more than five thousand people. When the people saw the miracle, He had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet; the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone. (John 6:14-15)

Here after His transfiguration, Jesus carefully prepared them to present His being Son of God from the light of His being Son of Man who would suffer and die for them and rise on the third day. The Cross would show the disciples the meaning of His being the glorious Son of God. The Resurrection would convince them that Jesus is Son of God through His suffering as Son of Man on the Cross. Jesus's aim is not simply to show His Glory but to convince His disciples that Jesus is not a Son of God (Messiah) according to the popular and political expectations but according to God's plan of offering Himself as a suffering servant to His people.

Jesus did not come as Lord of power and violence but as a humble servant offering the kingdom of God to all. His way is not to unleash God's force but to reveal and convince us that God's love served on the Cross. Jesus is the revelation of God's Glory (Transfiguration) not to prove his power and grandeur but to make His believers participate in it through His death on the Cross and Resurrection from the Dead. God in Jesus is not a God of show but a loving person of service to the extent of dying for the believers. Let us take time to grasp and experience the Great love of God in Jesus for us. Jesus instructs all of us to be servants to each other as He did. Serving alone promises life. The more we serve life to others, the more we experience in us life in abundance.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

Paschal Candle 2023

The Paschal Candle has a long history and carries significant meaning and symbolism in the Easter services. The candle is lit during the Easter Vigil, symbolizing the light of Christ's resurrection, overcoming the darkness of the tomb. The Paschal Candle is also lit during baptism signifying new life in Christ, and during funerals to signify the hope of resurrection.

We welcome sponsors for our new Paschal Candle.

Please call the rectory if you are interested.

Almsgiving in Lent

During the Lenten Season we are asked to pray, fast and give alms.

Lent is a perfect time for us to pray for those in need - whether it is for their material, emotional or spiritual needs. And when you practice fasting and abstinence during these forty days, please remember those of our neighbors who reach out to us for help.

One way to do this is by making a gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal, which supports programs that help people in our community each year through Catholic Charities and our Parish Outreach programs.

For more information about the Catholic Ministries Appeal, please visit CatholicMinistriesAppeal.org or call 516-678-5800 ext. 296.

Holy Hour

“Jesus, Walk With Me”

Music in the theme of Lent and Jesus
by Alex & Noelle!

Adoration and Benediction led by Deacon Matt!

Tuesday, March 7th
at 7:00 pm

If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. 25 For whoever would save his life[a] will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. 26 For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Or what shall a man give in return for his soul?

Matthew 16:24-26

The Way of the Cross

with Jesus and Mary, from Golgotha to the Resurrection

by Fr Slavko Barbaric OFM

We are on a Journey, travelers who are surrounded by daily sufferings, confronted with our personal, familial, and worldly sufferings. It is good and redemptive to be near Jesus and Mary. They show us how we can walk towards a new life and how every cross and every torment can be transformed into resurrection.

Save the date and come

Noelle leading Lent Trivia!

Alex teaching the group about the Catholic Church!

Watching a Catholic Central Video about Lent.

Playing a Lent Jeopardy game!

We invited three 8th Grade religious education classes to our meeting! This is the third visit of which we have 2 more before the entire group is Confirmed. We hope that they will join our group or just keep attending church and connecting with Jesus.

This particular meeting we played a question trivia game on the topic of Lent. We split into three groups who discussed the answers to the questions presented. This proved to be a lot of fun and we hope to see some familiar faces next year!

Lenten Project 2023

“Hands Reaching Out”

St. Thomas More Conference of St. Vincent de Paul

An organization of lay Catholics, following Christ's call to serve the poor, the suffering, and the deprived in our neighborhood.

The focus of our Lenten project is the hungry, the cold, the homeless, the anxious, the desperate parent.

We have people in our area in need of help with rent, car repairs, utility bills, medical bills, burial costs, food costs and much more.

During Home Visits, we bring hope and financial resources to neighbors in need through assistance with rent, food, clothing, and other emergency needs. Along the way, we develop friendships with those in need, listening and praying together.

We rely entirely on donations! Please offer whatever you can in the house by our bulletin board or make checks out to St. Thomas More Church.
