Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. Where I am going you know the way." Thomas said to him, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" Jesus said to him, I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him." Philip said to him, "Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I speak to you I do not speak on my own. The Father who dwells in me is doing his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else, believe because of the works themselves. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father."

Fr. Antony's Letter

Dear Friends,

A man's car stalled in the heavy traffic as the light turned green. All his efforts to start the engine failed, and a chorus of honking behind him made matters worse. He finally got out of his car, walked back to the first driver, and said, "I'm sorry, but I can't seem to get my car started. If you'll go up there and give it a try, I'll stay here and blow your horn for you." When one gets stuck in midst of a mess, how can we help that person to get out of it?

In the first reading we read that people were cut to the heart and asked Peter and other apostles, "What are we to do, my brothers?" They realized that they were wrong in condemning Jesus. So, they wanted to get out of the mess they had created for themselves. Peter explained to them the way-out that God has set before them. "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." Jesus is the way-out. His gift of the Holy Spirit is the leading force to guilt free life of God's grace of forgiveness and peace.

In the second reading, we hear from the same Peter who showed the way-out to his contemporaries, inviting the believers of his church to walk with Jesus, to come out of any mess they might be in. Jesus "himself bore our sins in his body upon the cross, so that, free from sin, we might live for righteousness." It applies to us also. We might have gone astray like sheep, but Jesus is our Guardian and shepherd to safely bring us back to His fold.

In the Gospel today Jesus says, "I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture." Jesus is the gate for those who seek an opening to get out of the mess. He is the gate just in front of us, the opened GATE inviting us to walk into a safe and secure place. Jesus as the gate is not only a way out of our mess but also an opening to enter into great pasture for a better life. Jesus is both the destination and way to that destination. He is not only a teacher who teaches what is the way but also companion who walks with us to the destination. Jesus is the path itself on which you can walk.

Today's responsorial psalm (Psalm 23) sings the image of Jesus the Good Shepherd. Jesus the Shepherd goes before us showing the way and accompanies us even in the valley of the shadow of death. The Risen Jesus is our Good Shepherd promising us, "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly." Let us hear Jesus's invitation to enter through the Gate which is Jesus Himself. Let us be led by Him to cherish His gift of life in abundance.

I invite you for the Bible Study that will start on May 4th. We will meet in Walden Hall on four Thursdays from 6:30 pm to 8:00 pm. We will explore the Resurrection Narratives. During this Easter Season it will be a great experience of delving into the mystery of Resurrection, which can enlighten and empower us. All are welcome.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

Bereavement Support Group

Many of us have suffered the loss of someone dear to us - perhaps a spouse, child, parent, sibling, or friend. Grief can leave us feeling lost and alone. We invite you to join our bereavement support group, which provides members an opportunity to understand grief in a way that rebuilds our identity and strengthens our faith in ourselves and the Lord.

Grief is experienced differently by each person, and the pain often takes a long time to heal. Participants learn how to deal with grief and will receive (and give) valuable support and fellowship through healing. There is no charge.
