Sunday, May 14th: Sixth Sunday of Easter

All Masses are offered for the Mother's Day Novena

John 14:15-21 (Sixth Sunday of Easter)

Jesus said to his disciples: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him, because he remains with you, and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you. Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him."

Focus Questions for 5/14/23

John 14:15-21

- 1: Relate a time when you were aware of the power of the Holy Spirit
- 2: Describe a time when you felt left out. Who helped you to feel included?
- 3: How are your actions toward others motivated by your love for Jesus?

Family & Children's Question:

Talk about how we can love Jesus by the way we show love for other people.

Fr. Antony's Letter

Dear Friends,

In a "Peanuts" cartoon, Snoopy the dog is sitting by the side of the road, watching all of the kids going by. Snoopy is reflecting to himself saying, "I wonder why some were born people, and others were born dogs. It just isn't fair." And then in the last frame he concludes, "Why was I the lucky one?!" Until we read the last frame, we are led to think that Snoopy was sorry to have been born as a dog. But the last frame turns the whole understanding upside down. Snoopy was rather unhappy that humans are not lucky to have been born as a dog. Truth is bigger than what we perceive.

In the Gospel, Philip asks Jesus, "Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you for so long a time, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father." According to Philip they know nothing about the Father of whom Jesus was talking to them. But according to Jesus they missed seeing the Father in Jesus. They failed to understand that Jesus and the Father are one. If they had paid enough attention, they would have seen the Father in Jesus. The truth about Jesus is more than they have grasped.

The same thing happens with Thomas. When Jesus said, "Where I am going you know the way", Thomas asked Him, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" Like Philip, Thomas too did not fully understand that Jesus is the WAY. They had lived with Jesus all this time without even realizing that Jesus was preaching to them TRUTH of the Father; He was living and manifesting the LIFE of the Father and thus He was paving the WAY to the Father. So, Jesus replied to Thomas, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, then you will also know my Father." Jesus made Thomas realize that the Truth about Him is more than what they have grasped.

Through Philip and Thomas, Jesus invites us to experience Him, not according to our human standard but according to His divine Revelation. Jesus is a divine mystery who reveals Himself as God, Savior, Shepherd, Healer etc. He reveals to us according to the need we have and according to the way we relate with Him. To know Him is not merely to be aware of all the hardcore facts about Him. That would be bookish knowledge, a learning about Him through the external sources.

St. Mother Teresa explains about knowing Jesus. "Do you really know Jesus – not from books but from being with Him in your heart? Am I convinced of Christ's love for me and mine for Him? What must we do to get this conviction? We must know Jesus, love Jesus, serve Jesus. This type of knowledge will make you as strong as death. We know Jesus through Faith: by meditating on His Word in the Scriptures, by listening to Him speak through His Church, and through the intimate union of Prayer.

"Seek Jesus in the tabernacle. Fix your eyes on Him who is the Light. Bring your hearts close to His Divine Heart and ask Him to grant you the grace of knowing Him. Don't search for Jesus in far lands; He is not there. He is close to you; He is in you." The Truth of Jesus is what He reveals from his Heart to our hearts. Jesus is a mystery of Love uniting His heart with all of ours. It is more than what we have known, grasped, and experienced so far. The more we relate with Him, the more of Him we will experience.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

SUPPORT COLLECTION

Collection from:
April 29th & 30th

$ 6743

Weekly Goal: $6700

St. Thomas More Parish needs your support now more than ever!

Envelope users: Please enter the amount of your donation in the space provided on the envelope. This will greatly help us when counting the collection and for recording your contribution.

(If you do not receive weekly envelopes and would like them mailed to you, please use the form on the literature rack and indicate that you wish to receive them on a regular basis. Usually it takes about two weeks for your request to be completed.)

Faith Direct: This offers a safe and secure way to make regularly scheduled donations to our parish. Sign up today by visiting faith.direct/NY227, or text 'Enroll' to 631-250-8141. You can also make a one-time gift by texting a dollar amount to the same number

Maintenance Collection: We thank you for your support of our parish project to maintain our parish facilities. If you would like to help, please take a maintenance envelope from the literature rack.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish family. God Bless You.

Offertory Sign-Up Book

Would you like to bring up the gifts during the offertory? It's a great way to participate in the mass with your family!

We have a sign-up book available in the Narthex near the literature rack. Currently available for each weekend in 2023. If you are interested, please sign up and let the ushers know when you arrive at mass.

Laundry Detergent
Canned Vegetables

As always, we are grateful for any donations! Most helpful are bottles/cans/packages for families of 2-4. Larger bottles/cans can be difficult to distribute.

Please reach out to Parish Outreach if you are, or know of someone, in need of support. Keep our elderly neighbors in mind and let us know if there is anyone you would like us to reach out to.

One of our STM parishioners is selling fresh eggs, $7 per dozen. To place an order, please call 631-974-2643. Pick up is Saturdays (11:30-1) in the STM parking lot.

We have a parishioner in need of a ride to the 11:30 Mass on Sundays, from the Windwatch complex. If you are able to help, please contact the Outreach office.

Please do not leave other items such as clothing or household items in the donation bins. Clothing can be placed in the St. Vincent de Paul box at the back right corner of the parking lot. Please contact Outreach regarding other donations.
Thank you!

St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today, Jesus says “whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father.”

Through your donations you are performing a good work, far greater than you think.

Thank you to all who supported our Military Bridge fundraiser! It was a success because of your support and desire to bring Christ's love and compassion to the poor.

To contact us, call 631-648-2760 or e-mail svdp.stm@aol.com

In Our Parish

The Music Corner

There is a wide world of music in the Christian tradition that is not used during Catholic Masses.

Here are a couple of recommendations for something a little different. You can find them by searching on YouTube, or on your preferred streaming service.

Build Your Kingdom Here

By Rend Collective

Hailing from Northern Ireland, Rend Collective has a folk rock sound, similar to Mumford & Sons

A Man Named Job

By Ryan Proudfoot

A singer-songwriter from Texas, this song takes you through the full story of Job, his struggles, and his ultimate love for God.

Children's Liturgy Crew

This week the kids continued to learn about Jesus and our faith, and did some praying with Father Raj.

As always, the Children's Liturgy Crew meets every Sunday at the 9:30 mass. Children ages 4-8 are encouraged to join us!

In Our Community

Bereavement Support Group

Many of us have suffered the loss of someone dear to us - perhaps a spouse, child, parent, sibling, or friend. Grief can leave us feeling lost and alone. We invite you to join our bereavement support group, which provides members an opportunity to understand grief in a way that rebuilds our identity and strengthens our faith in ourselves and the Lord.

Grief is experienced differently by each person, and the pain often take a long time to heal. Participants learn how to deal with grief and will receive (and give) valuable support and fellowship through healing. There is no charge.
