Matthew 13:44-52 (Ordinary 17)

Jesus said to his disciples: "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea, which collects fish of every kind. When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets. What is bad they throw away. Thus it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.

"Do you understand all these things?" They answered, "Yes." And he replied, "Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old."

Focus Questions for 7/30/23

Matthew 13:44-52

- 1: How do you use the gifts God has given you to help others?
- 2: What riches of the earth distract you from putting God first?
- 3: What are you willing to do to obtain the "pearl of great price"?

Family & Children's Question:

Talk about something you read in the Bible that helped you when you were going through a hard time.

Fr. Antony's Letter

Dear Friends,

A hunting party was hopelessly lost. "I thought you said you were the best guide in Maine!" One of the hunters angrily said to their confused leader. "I am." replied the guide. "But I think we are in Canada now." The hunters planned to have a good hunt, only to find themselves lost in the woods, despite being led by a leader.

In Today's Gospel, the farmer sowed only wheat, but to his surprise he found weeds amidst the wheat. We too would have had the same experience as the farmer. We might have had good intentions and sowed good seeds, but surprisingly found ourselves surrounded by evil deeds, lots of weeds. What do we do? Sometimes we get into the action of removing all the weeds, getting rid of all that is evil. Or at times we close our eyes and ears, to ignore and not to be bothered by them.

Jesus advises us to turn our focus more on wheat than weeds, more on the good than the evil. According to Jesus, the best way to kill the evil is to enforce the growth of the good. When good becomes strong, evil will be weakened. When more people opt for the good, the evil will eventually lose its force and its sale value.

Jesus also explains with other parables how our good deeds can change the evil deeds. Our good deeds may be few in number and small in size like a mustard seed, but they have something which evil deeds don't have. The evil would seem like it is growing and multiplying in number. But its nature is death and destruction, not creativity and growth. It is self-destructive. Good, on the other hand is creative in its nature. Good may appear to be weak but it will never die. Because Good is Godly. Good grows like a mustard seed, small in size to start, but growing into a big bush.

It would be apt to remind ourselves what Jesus said, when his disciple defended Him with the sword against those who came to arrest Him, "Put your sword back into its sheath, for all who take the sword will perish by the sword." (Matthew 26:52). Evil is not the proper way to handle evil. "An eye for an eye makes the whole world blind." (Gandhi) Evil can increase, not grow. Evil can magnify and bulge, not create and construct. Evil can separate and slay, not gather, and heal.

Jesus invites us to focus on Good. As we are created in God's image, our nature is to be good and creative. With the help of God's grace, trying our best to promote and to be good is the only way of overcoming evil. We have the same power of a little yeast which leavens a big measure of wheat flour. Like yeast, our good deeds will influence and change the scrounging evil.

The message is simple. Let us not be discouraged in doing good even though we see the evil around us. The best way to eradicate evil is to do/be good; to be good yeast to transform the flour. Good has the power to change evil. It is easy to be afraid of and avoid evil. But Jesus wants us to meet the evil boldly. We can turn evil to good as the yeast leavens the flour. "Don't let evil conquer you but conquer evil by doing good." (Paul's letter to Romans 12:21)

You are invited to the St. Thomas More Beach Mass and Picnic. Please remember to mark your calendar; September 3rd at Otto Schubert Beach in Nissequogue, starting with Mass at noon. A picnic follows the mass. Please, bring lunch and spend some time with the community after the Mass at the beach. The Knights of Columbus will keep the grill hot and ready to help those who want to barbecue their food.

Catholic Ministry Appeal 2023: Our Parish's assessment this year is $ 69,300. This year we have reached the pledged total of $ 26,455 so far, which is 38.17% of our goal. Please consider making your pledge so that the mission of serving our poor may continue in the diocese.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

His Presence Is Real - Reflections on the Eucharist by Deacon Matt

The Mass: Introductory Rites II

Let's continue with our look at the Introductory Rites of the Mass that we began last week. You'll recall we examined the Entrance Procession, the Greeting, and then the Penitential Act.

On the Sundays during Ordinary Time, we then sing or recite the Gloria. We praise and glorify God in the highest, not only in high heaven, but because he is the most important focus we can have in our lives. He should be placed above all other people and things. We begin the prayer by praising the Father, then we address Jesus for the rest of it. Our focus in the Mass is Jesus himself, from his Word in sacred Scripture, to his very Body and Blood in the Eucharist.

During Easter Season we frequently will be sprinkled with holy water. This helps remind us of our baptism, when we became a new creation and were joined to Jesus' death and resurrection. This relationship is nourished each time we partake in the Eucharist.

Finally, the Introductory Rites conclude with a prayer called the Collect. But first, the priest says, "Let us pray." This gives us a moment of sacred silence: to quiet our minds and our hearts for what is to come. The Collect always has five parts. First, God is addressed in the invocation, then he is acknowledged in some way, then there is a petition or request, followed by an aspiration (desired result), and finally, a doxology in which the Trinity is generally invoked. See if you can pick out these five parts the next time you hear the Collect prayed.

We don't want to miss the Introductory Rites, because they are an important preparation for us in mind, body and soul. We are about to participate in the source and summit of our faith, the Eucharist.

"[The] purpose [of the Introductory Rites] is to ensure that the faithful, who come together as one, establish communion and dispose themselves properly to listen to the Word of God and to celebrate the Eucharist worthily." - General Instruction of the Roman Missal, No. 46.

In addition to our cash prize raffle, we are holding a raffle for a twosome for the Golf Outing. These tickets are $10 each. We will only sell #40. Once all 40 are sold, a winner will be drawn and receive passes for two people to play golf at the Parish Golf Outing on September 11th.

Tickets sold after all masses.

This & That with Deacon Matt

In July and August, Deacon Matt will be making time to visit with small groups of parishioners in the home. Do you have questions about our faith?

Do you find it difficult to follow teachings of the Church in this day and age? Are there issues you'd like to discuss, or suggestions you'd like to make? The floor is yours! Deacon Matt will be the facilitator. The format is simple: find 6-10 people to gather at your home on a specific date, serve dessert, and come with your questions/topics.

Deacon Matt is especially interested in hearing the voices of the young. So teenagers and young adults are most certainly encouraged to get a group together!

In general, late afternoons/early evenings during the week, and possibly Saturday mornings, are available. To discuss a specific date, you can send an email to ThisAndThat2023@stmli.org or leave a message at the rectory.

New EM

Congratulations to Patricia (Patty) Caracappa who was installed as an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist. We look forward to having her serve with us at St. Thomas More.

In Our Parish

The Music Corner

After last weeks foray into folk, lets dip back into the rock sphere with these two tracks. These songs can be found on YouTube, or your favorite streaming app.

Glorious Kings Kaleidoscope

Alt rockers from Seattle, this song shouts of the glorious nature of God, and our relationship with him. High energy, great for a commute.

For Moments I Feel Faint Relient K

Who do we turn to when we do feel faint? Relient K knows the answer in this 'praise hymn meets teen angst anthem' song from their '01 album.

Father Bala Returns

We are excited to welcome back Father Belevendiram Rathinam (aka Fr. Bala) to our Parish. Fr. Bala will be here for the remainder of summer, helping out while Fr. Antony is on vacation.

Circle of Women

It is the mission of the Circle of Women Book Group to focus on the spiritual influence of contemporary writing that facilitates our own reflections of God's action in our daily lives.

We do not meet in July and August. Our next meeting is 9/18/2023. Our book discussion will be It Ends With Us by Colleen Hoover. Facilitator: Jo Garvey
