Matthew 23:1-12 (Ordinary 31)

Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples, saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees have taken their seat on the chair of Moses. Therefore, do and observe all things whatsoever they tell you, but do not follow their example. For they preach but they do not practice. They tie up heavy burdens hard to carry and lay them on people's shoulders, but they will not lift a finger to move them. All their works are performed to be seen. They widen their phylacteries and lengthen their tassels. They love places of honor at banquets, seats of honor in synagogues, greetings in marketplaces, and the salutation 'Rabbi.' As for you, do not be called 'Rabbi.' You have but one teacher, and you are all brothers. Call no one on earth your father; you have but one Father in heaven. Do not be called 'Master'; you have but one master, the Christ. The greatest among you must be your servant. Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

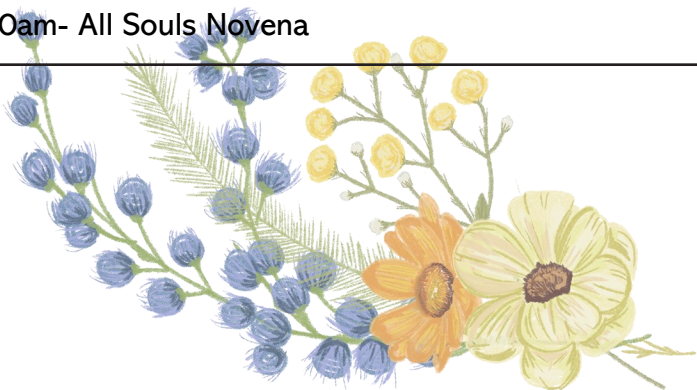

Focus Questions for 11/5/23

Matthew 23:1-12

- 1: Jesus says that you are great when you serve another. In what ways do you serve others?
- 2: Relate a time when you acted humbly.
- 3: Who do you admire because that person practices what they preach?

Family & Children's Question:

Talk about the importance of not being a show off.

Fr. Antony's Letter

Dear Friends,

Mother: Now remember to put some of your allowance in the offering at church.

Son: Why not buy an ice cream cone with it and let the cashier put it in the offering?

Offering is an expression of Love, not a justification of what one must do to the other. As Paul explains in his first letter to the Corinthians (I Cor 13: 5) "Love does not insist on its own way." Love renders service; it does not establish its right. It offers itself. Mother Teresa explains: When we criticize others, we will have less time to love them.

In the first reading God explains His people not to forget how God was compassionate to liberate them from Egypt. God reminded them to be consciously compassionate to other people as God was to them. In the Gospel Jesus repeats the same duty: the love of God and love of people as the first of the commandments. It is not only a commandment to remind us of our duty, but a lifeline by which one becomes alive. Without love, one is dead. Only through love can one experience God, as the life force among us. Loving God is intrinsically connected to loving others. Without loving others, the love of God remains as a dead letter of law. Love of God is alive only where the love of others lives. Let us love others to experience the love of God. Let us love God to live in love with others.

This Wednesday, November 1st is All Saints Day. This feast invites us to reflect on the real holy stuff God has created within us. In Jesus the Son of God, God has adopted us as His Children. John explained our identity in his first letter to his Church, "Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be, has not yet been made known. But we know that when Christ appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see Him as He is." (I John 3:2) We are created in God's image, and we are called to share life with God forever, to see God as He is. To be Godly with God forever is the meaning of SAINT. All Saints Day is the feast where we celebrate our God's identity in us, now and forever.

November 1st is All Saints Day. It is a Day of Obligation. November 1st Masses are at 9:00 am and 7:00 pm. Children are welcome with their Halloween and All Saints costumes to the 7:00 pm mass on November 1st.

This Thursday, November 2nd is All Souls Day. This feast invites us to reflect on our true identity. If we consider that we are no more than a human body, then our end is nothing more than dust, as the body will reduce into dust after death. But if we realize that we are called to live our spiritual identity in our body, then our faith demands that we live beyond death. We carry within us an eternal identity. Jesus who became one of us died and rose on the third day. He is our forerunner, guarantee and hope that we who believe in Him will also rise with Him. For Jesus says, "I am the Resurrection and Life. Whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die." (John 10:25-26). Let us celebrate the lives of our beloved brothers and sisters who, though not with us now, live with God forever.

November 2nd is All Souls Day. Masses are at 9:00 am and at 7:00 pm. At the Evening mass we pray especially for all those who passed away last year.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

His Presence Is Real - Reflections on the Eucharist by Deacon Matt

The Sanctuary Lamp

We get so used to our surroundings in the church we sometimes overlook the little but significant things. One of those items I'd like to point out this week is the sanctuary lamp.

Some of us might have forgotten about its existence, while others might not even know about it. This lamp is usually a large candle with a red glass covering over it, found near the tabernacle. In our church you can see it on the back wall of the sanctuary, to the right of the niche where our statue of St. Thomas More is.

Church regulations require that a lamp remain burning whenever the Blessed Sacrament is in the tabernacle. Yes, this light is an indication of the Real Presence in our physical church! It must not be an electric light, but a real candle fed by oil or wax. This lamp remains lit even when the church is locked up for the night. The only time you will not see it lit is when we transfer the Blessed Sacrament to the Altar of Repose on Holy Thursday, and when it is kept in a safe place until Easter Vigil (candles are lit separately in those locations).

In this lamp, we are reminded of God's command in the Old Testament to have a lamp which is filled with pure olive oil remain lit near the tabernacle, a tent of cloth for the presence of God (Ex. 27:20-21). For us, the sanctuary lamp represents Christ, our light, and his never dimming presence not only in the Tabernacle, but also in our lives.

My recommendation for all of us is to take time either today or in the coming week to be in the church and find the sanctuary lamp, then prepare for some quiet reflection. Take a few minutes to sit before it and pray. Let us thank God for loving us eternally and for sending his only Son for our sake, and pray that we may come closer to Christ through his Real Presence in the Eucharist.

"May the fire of God's love burn brightly and steadfastly in our hearts like the golden light within the sanctuary lamp." - Prayer of St. Columba in the Dubh Regles ("Black Church") of Derry.

St. Vincent de Paul

In this Sunday's Gospel we find the truth that loving God isn't merely a matter of fervor in our hearts, but that I must be expressed in doing good for the sake of others.

A sincere thank you to all who heard our plea for donations in last week's bulletin, and to all who supported our Military Bridge fundraiser. On behalf of our neighbors in need,
THANK YOU!

How to pray the Rosary

- 1: Make the Sign of the Cross
- 2: Holding the Crucifix, say The Apostles' Creed
- 3: On the first bead, say an Our Father
- 4: On the next three beads, say one Hail Mary for each
- 5: Say the Glory Be
- 6: For each of the five decades, announce the Mystery, then say an Our Father
- 7: For the next ten beads, say one Hail Mary for each, then finish with a Glory Be.

8: After finishing a decade, we say the prayer requested by the Blessed Virgin at Fatima:

Oh my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell; lead all souls to Heaven, especially those who have most need of your mercy.

9: After the five decades, say the Hail, Holy Queen:

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of they womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

10: Make the Sign of the Cross

*It takes about 15 minutes to pray the whole Rosary. Since we repeat the same prayers (i.e. Hail Mary 53 times), the Church helps us meditate on the Gospel by using Mysteries. Each day has 5 Mysteries, to reflect on one during each decade.

Mysteries of the Rosary

Joyful Mysteries (Mon, Sat)

1. The Annunciation to Mary
2. The Visitation of Mary
3. The Birth of our Lord Jesus
4. The Presentation of the Child Jesus in the Temple
5. The Finding of Our Lord in the Temple

Sorrowful Mysteries (Tues, Fri)

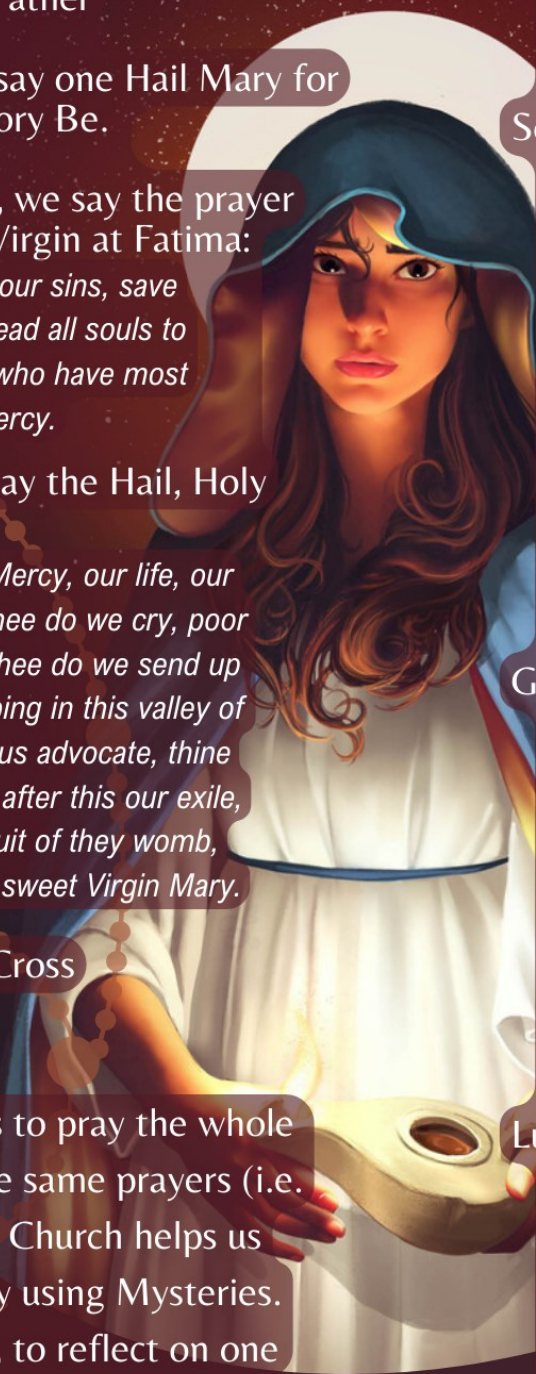

1. The Agony of Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane
2. The Scourging of Jesus at the Pillar
3. The Crowning of Jesus with Thorns
4. The Carrying of the Cross
5. The Crucifixion and Death of Jesus

Glorious Mysteries (Wed, Sun)

1. The Resurrection of Jesus
2. The Ascension of Jesus
3. The Descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost
4. The Assumption of Mary
5. The Coronation of Our Lady in Heaven

Luminous Mysteries (Thurs)

1. Jesus' Baptism in the Jordan
2. The Wedding at Cana
3. The Proclamation of the Kingdom
4. The Transfiguration
5. The Institution of the Eucharist

Saints of October

St Francis of Assisi
Feast Day: October 4th
Mystic & Friar
Patron: Poverty, Ecology, Animals

Founded the order of the Franciscans. devoted to the vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience. Received the stigmata during an apparition of an angel. Heavily associated with animals and the environment.

St Ignatius of Antioch
Feast Day: October 17th
Bishop & Martyr
Patron: Church in the Eastern Mediterranean

Writer in the very early Christian church (first century AD). Very little known about his life, but he was Bishop of Antioch (present day Turkey). Wrote of the importance of the eucharist: "medicine of immortality", and was the first to use the Greek word "katholikos" to describe the Church.

St Luke the Evangelist
Feast Day: October 18th
Author of Gospel of Luke
Author of Acts of the Apostles
Patron: Artists, notaries, physicians

Unknown whether he was a gentile or Jew, considered to be one of the most highly educated authors of the New Testament. His writings comprise over 25% of the New Testament.

St Simon the Apostle
Feast Day: October 28th
Apostle, Preacher, Martyr
Patron: Curriers, Tanners

Simon Zelotes (not Simon Peter), was one of the Twelve Apostles of Jesus. Believed to have preached in Egypt, Persia, and Lebanon. Shares a feast with St Jude as they travelled together.

St Jude the Apostle
Feast Day: October 28th
Apostle & Martyr
Patron: Armenia, Lost Causes

Known as Jude, Judas, or Thaddeus, one of the Twelve Apostles of Jesus. Preached the Gospel throughout the Middle East and North Africa. Often depicted with a flame above his head, representing his presence at Pentecost.
