Mark 13:33-37 (Advent 1)

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Be watchful! Be alert!

You do not know when the time will come.

It is like a man traveling abroad.

He leaves home and places his servants in charge,
each with his own work,

and orders the gatekeeper to be on the watch.

Watch, therefore;

you do not know when the lord of the house is coming,

whether in the evening, or at midnight,

or at cockcrow, or in the morning.

May he not come suddenly and find you sleeping.

What I say to you, I say to all: ‘Watch!’”

Focus Questions for 12/3/23

Mark 13:33-37

1: What practices do you follow in Advent to be awake for the presence of the Lord?

2: Describe a time when you were not prepared for an event or a person’s coming.

3: Relate a time when it felt like the end of the world as you knew it. How did you adjust to a new way of being?

Family & Children’s Question:

Consider doing a spiritual practice throughout Advent: reading the Scripture of the day, helping the poor, lighting an Advent wreath, or some other spiritual exercise.

Fr. Antony's Letter

Dear Friends,

Father wanted to correct his lazy son saying, "Son, do you realize when Lincoln was your age, he was already studying hard to be a lawyer?" His son retorted, "Right, Pop, and when he was your age, he was already President of the United States!" Using Lincoln as a role model to correct the son ended up working against the father.

This Sunday is the Solemn Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, Universal King. What kind of king is Jesus Christ, the King? Of all the kings who have lived through history, who can serve as a role model to describe and understand the kingship of Christ? Today's feast is not our attempt to understand how or what type of King Jesus Christ is. For no king on earth would be a fitting role model to describe or understand the kingship of Christ.

Rather, today's feast invites us to see how God in Jesus presents Himself to us and rules over us as King. When we acclaim Jesus Christ as our KING, we try to see how His Kingship sheds light upon all the Kings, Queens and all who govern the people; how Christ the King serves as a role model for those in power of governing and making decisions for the good of the people. Today's feast is not the celebration of how the power of Governing must receive its meaning and power from Christ the King.

Today's readings portray that God in Jesus as the king is like a shepherd who is ready to serve his sheep; a king who is not above us but became one of us, even to the point of sharing death with us, that we may be freed from all that entangle us in our human weakness, such as sin and death. He died to give life to us here and now on earth and for ever with Him in heaven. Christ exercises His Kingship not as a King who commands and demands with power, but serves in love and life.

Today's Gospel tells how we should live in the world to savor His Rule over us. Our God-King is one with us, so much so that whatever we do, especially to the least of our human beings, we do directly to him. In serving those who are most in need of our service means serving Christ the king Himself. In every little thing we do, we can experience God's Kingship. Our little actions have a God's Kingly stamp. In what we do or say we become capable of participating in the power of God-King Jesus. The feast of Christ the King makes us aware of how the serving alone is the way of being a people of God's kingdom. Being servants to each other as Jesus, the Kings does, is the essence of God's kingdom among us.

Next Sunday December 3rd we begin the Season of Advent, a period of preparation for the birth of Our Lord Jesus in our hearts and home. It is also a very busy season of getting gifts for our beloved one. May I remind you that you can give no better gift than yourself. As much as we would like to express our good self in the gifts we give, let us not forget to give ourselves as gift in saying kind words, adopting better behavior, including the other without prejudice, and helping someone in need. Let us prepare ourselves as the best gift to be given on Christmas Day.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

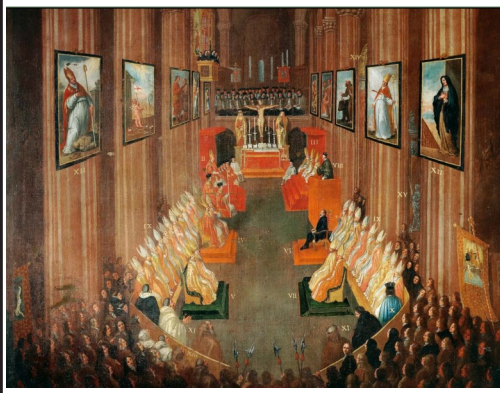

His Presence Is Real - Reflections on the Eucharist by Deacon Matt

The Council of Trent

Way back in the sixteenth century, the Catholic Church was grappling with the Protestant Reformation. While there were many aspects to this movement, an important one to consider for us is the impact on the understanding of the Eucharist.

Protestant reformers like Martin Luther felt that humans were corrupting the Church, and that only those words found in Sacred Scripture (the principle of sola scriptura) could direct the Church and theological understanding. This led to the basis for arguments against many of the sacraments, including the Eucharist.

The Church convened an ecumenical council at Trent, Italy (1545-1563). The Council of Trent sought to correct the errors and heresies of Luther and others in the Protestant movement. From the proceedings of this council, we have a great deal of teachings in support of the Catholic understanding of the Eucharist and other sacraments.

Luther agreed that Christ instituted the Eucharist. However, he did not believe in the principle of transubstantiation (see this column from 6/18/23 for more on that topic). Catholic teaching used the philosophical terms “substance” and “accidents” to help explain how bread and wine truly became Jesus during the consecration. Luther rejected this, since those words are not found in the Bible. The Council of Trent sought to counteract this with reasoning from both Scripture and Sacred Tradition.

Unfortunately, to this day, issues like this divide Christ's Church. However, as Catholics, we point to Jesus' words themselves in Scripture, that the bread and wine truly become his Body and Blood, and that when we do this in memory of him at every Mass, he truly becomes present again on the altar, the bloodless sacrifice offered to the Father which is offered back to us to strengthen our faith and our love.

"And because that Christ [...] declared that which He offered under the species of bread to be truly His own body [...] a conversion is made of the whole substance of the bread into the substance of the body of Christ our Lord, and of the whole substance of the wine into the substance of His blood; which conversion is, by the holy Catholic Church, suitably and properly called Transubstantiation." - Council of Trent, 13th Session, Chapter IV

AN ADVENT OPPORTUNITY

Please see our Advent Calendar flyer for a suggestion on how to celebrate Advent while helping our Outreach program. Each day of Advent there is a suggestion for a food item. After Christmas you can drop your donations off at church or at Outreach!

Please do not leave other items such as clothing or household items in the donation bins. Clothing can be placed in the St. Vincent de Paul box at the back right corner of the parking lot. Please contact Outreach regarding other donations.
Thank you!

The volunteers at Outreach give thanks everyday for YOU, our STM family, and the gifts you provide to our neighbors in need. The joy we see on the faces of our neighbors when they receive their Thanksgiving food cannot be described! Thank you, thank you, thank you for your kindness and generosity!

St Vincent de Paul

Today as we celebrate Christ the King, we hear Jesus say: "...whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

Knowing that we find the face of Christ in the poor, your generosity throughout this year has enabled us to help our Hauppauge neighbors. Thank you and we wish you a Blessed Thanksgiving!

On Care For Our Common Home

Children Lead the Way!

Our Religious Education students were encouraged to talk about how Pope Francis encourages each person to pray for our Earth and take an action to try and heal the planet.

The 6th graders in John Savastano's class did just that! They went to a local sump (known as "the dumping ground" to that neighborhood) armed with gloves and trash bags. They cleaned up much trash, and separated out the recyclables, making $8 to donate to the parish! That's a lot of cans!

Art in Nature, Art from Nature

The 2nd graders in Religious Ed were encouraged to go out on a nature walk and do an inspired art project when they got home. These art projects will be on display at the church on December 2nd and 3rd (first weekend of Advent). Please check them out and support the awesome work our students are doing.

Pray for Pope Francis

The Holy Father will be attending the UN Climate Change Conference (COP28) at the beginning of December. Please pray that his words will strike the hearts of our world leaders into making positive change for our environment.

Lord God, we pray that you open the hearts and minds of our leaders around the world, that they may listen to the needs of our planet.

Fill your servant Francis with the strength to change their hearts and minds, to protect the creation you entrusted to us.

Bring healing to our lives, that we may protect the world and not prey on it, that we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction.

Giving Tree

Our Giving Tree can be found in the Narthex and is filled with tags for gifts and gift cards.

We invite you to help us make Christmas special for those less fortunate by donating gift cards, pajamas, toys, baby clothes, or diapers for our families and those who are in need in our community. Gift cards to Walmart or Target allow our families to shop for their children.

There is a table set up in the Narthex for your donations as well as a basket for gift cards. Please attach the tag to your donation.

You can also put gift cards in the weekly collection basket or drop them off at the Outreach office.

There is no need to wrap toys, gifts or put gift cards in special envelopes. Your generosity is always appreciated and is a clear reflection of who we are as a St. Thomas More parish family!

Thank you and God Bless you and your families this Christmas season!

(Please submit all donations by December 10th)
