Mark 1:29-39 (Ordinary 5)

On leaving the synagogue Jesus entered the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John. Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever. They immediately told him about her. He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up. Then the fever left her and she waited on them.

When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him.

Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed. Simon and those who were with him pursued him and on finding him said, "Everyone is looking for you." He told them, "Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come." So he went into their synagogues, preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee.

Fr. Antony's Letter

Dear Friends,

The husband boasted, "In my house, I make all the major decisions and my wife makes all minor ones. For example, I decide such things as East-West trade, crime in the streets, welfare cheating, and tax increases. My wife decides the minor things such as which house to buy, what kind of car we drive, how much money to spend, how to raise the children, etc." Each one of us has some kind of authority, some more and some less. But all of us have inner spiritual authority in which we are unique and never superior or inferior to anyone.

In today's Gospel people feel that Jesus' teaching unlike that of the Scribe's is with authority. Jesus is neither a scribe specialized in Law, nor a Pharisee known for their meticulous observance of Law, nor a Sadducee politically and economically influential. He is an unknown carpenter from Nazareth. But people in the synagogue astonished at his teaching and experienced an authority in his words.

The teachings of the scribe's, the Pharisees or Sadducees carried some authority because of their position and influence they had in the society. But the teachings of Jesus come from his original self. His words do not carry any weight from the power or influence invested on Him from outside. His authority is from within himself, from who he is, the image of the invisible God, the Son of God .

Every one of us is created after God's image. We become God's children in our baptism. As God's Children and bearing God's image in us, we all have inalienable and inbuilt God-given authority in us. Unless we decide to give up that authority, no one else can rob it from us. In the world of pluralistic opinions and multiple styles of living, let us not be misled or reduce ourselves by anything outside of us. Let us be aware of who we are. May our prayers and spiritual worships make us realize what kind of God-given authority we possess. May our lives be the expression of God-given authority.

This year Lent begins on February 14th, Valentine's Day. We invite you to download the Catholic spiritual app called "Hallow". It features many spiritual talks and prayers for Lent. It will make Lent meaningful and spiritually fruitful for you and your family. In addition, there are many other Catholic resources (liturgy of the hours, daily readings, homilies, music, meditations, etc.) to help empower your lives through this Lent. All parishioners will have free access to Hallow Premium from Ash Wednesday through Easter Sunday (Feb 14-March 31). More information will follow in the weeks ahead.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Antony

His Presence Is Real - Reflections on the Eucharist by Deacon Matt

St. Thomas Aquinas

We are going to take a pause in our look at the Liturgy of the Eucharist to honor a very important saint who is strongly associated with the Eucharist: St. Thomas Aquinas (c. 1225-1274). We celebrate his feast day today, January 28.

Previous columns in this space have touched on the feast of Corpus Christi (June 11), transubstantiation (June 18), and the Tantum Ergo (Dec 10 and Dec 17). All of these have a direct connection to St. Thomas.

Thomas Aquinas grew up in the Kingdom of Sicily (now Italy) and eventually joined the Dominican Order. About 200 years before his birth, Berengarius of Tours began teaching that Christ could not possibly be in heaven and in the Blessed Sacrament at the same time, a heresy. This spurred the Church to condemn this teaching, but unfortunately, Eucharistic errors persisted.

To assist in combating such errors, Aquinas wrote a tremendous amount of material on the Catholic faith. His most voluminous work was his last (and one that he actually never completed), the Summa Theologiae. This is a document with a masterful combination of faith and reason that tackles many aspects of Catholicism, especially the Eucharist.

Aquinas stresses that it is faith that causes us to know that bread and wine is changed into Christ's Body and Blood. He was adamant in helping all understand that the Eucharist is not a mere sign or symbol of Jesus, but actually is Jesus. We receive Jesus completely in the Eucharist, which Aquinas called "the sacrament of love." The Eucharist is given to us as a great sign of God's love, and which produces love. Aquinas also called the Eucharist "the bread of angels," as it brings us closer to God.

St. Thomas Aquinas, pray for us, that we may enter more deeply into the mystery of our Savior's Real Presence in the Eucharist, so that we may grow in grace and wisdom.

"Under the old law it was the flesh of calves and goats that was offered, but here Christ himself, the true God, is set before us as our food. What could be more wonderful than this?" – St. Thomas Aquinas, Opusculum 57.

January is Poverty Awareness Month

The child poverty rate in the US more than doubled from 2021-2022, the largest year-to-year spike on record. As a result, an additional 5.2 million children are living in poverty according to the latest Census update. In 2021, Congress temporarily expanded the Child Tax Credit, allowing its full value to reach the poorest children. The expansion expired the following year and millions of children were thrust back into poverty.

-Justice, Peace, & Human Development/USSCB

Please do not leave other items such as clothing or household items in the donation bins. Clothing can be placed in the St. Vincent de Paul box at the back right corner of the parking lot. Please contact Outreach regarding other donations. Thank you!

Please reach out to Parish Outreach if you are, or know of someone, in need of support. Keep our elderly neighbors in mind and let us know if there is anyone you would like us to reach out to.

In the Gospel today we read that because Jesus spoke with authority his reputation spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee. As his disciples, we can also speak with authority when we put our faith into actions by helping the poor and suffering.

Have you considered answering the call to serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? We can be reached by phone or email, 631-648-2760 or svdp.stm@aol.com

Handicapped Encounter Christ Ministry

Handicapped Encounter Christ is a ministry for adults with physical, mental, cognitive and/or sensory disabilities. It is based on the Cursillo movement of the Catholic Church. HEC brings together the communities of disabled and enabled adults so they can all get to know our Lord, Jesus Christ. During the year, we have many different events and annually there is a three-day HEC Retreat held each spring. We are always looking for participants to join this ministry — those that are disabled and those who are not — so that together we are one community learning from each other, enjoying each other's company, and establishing many beautiful friendships together as we all get to know our Lord.

The 2024 HEC Retreat takes place Thursday evening April 18th and ends Sunday afternoon April 21st.

PLEASE join our HEC #40 planning meetings for enabled adults who wish to volunteer and be of service on the Retreat weekend.

"He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us."

A NOTE FROM OUR Altar Servers

We have a deep love for altar serving, and believe others should consider taking up this role for several reasons. First, altar serving provides a unique perspective on the Mass, allowing individuals to engage with the rituals and traditions in a more hands on and profound way. Beyond the spiritual aspects, it fosters a strong sense of camaraderie with fellow servers, offering the opportunity to meet new people and develop a greater sense of family within the church community. Getting involved in altar serving is not only personally enriching but also a means of becoming more actively connected to the church's activities. The experience is extremely enjoyable, amplified by the chance to don cool robes and play an important role in the Mass, contributing to the beauty and sanctity of the worship experience. Moreover, altar serving presents a valuable opportunity to learn about the Mass in a hands-on manner, giving a deeper understanding and connection with the sacred traditions of the church.

-Altar Servers Timothy Sandbichler and Ryan Tjersland
