Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

June 28, 2015
Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24
Psalm 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11, 12, 13 (2a)
2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15
Mark 5:22-43

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark:

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea. One of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, came forward. Seeing him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying, "My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live." He went off with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed upon him.

While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official's house arrived and said, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?" Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." And they ridiculed him. Then he put them all out. He took along the child's father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was. He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha kum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded. He gave strict orders that no one should know this and said that she should be given something to eat.

Focus Questions:

1. Describe a time when you reached out to touch Jesus.
2. Relate a time when prayer was healing for you.
3. Describe a time when you hesitated to do something because of fear. What helped you overcome your fear?

Family and children's question:

Talk about a time when someone approached you to ask for help. How did you respond?

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

The football match was about to start. Both teams gathered together and prayed briefly. A fan, seated next to a minister, asked "Whom would the Lord make win, if both teams prayed with equal faith and fervor?"

"In that event," replied the minister, "I imagine the Lord would simply sit back and enjoy the game."

This Sunday's Gospel reading narrates that Jesus was in the stern asleep on a cushion while the disciples are struggling to save the boat from waves of a violent squall. They complained to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" Does not God care for human struggles?

When he woke up and calmed the sea, Jesus asked them "why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" They woke up Jesus to save them. But Jesus wakes up within them their dormant faith, that they should not to be terrified while he is with them.

Today's readings invite us to find God's presence in everything. The person of faith will see God's presence in every moment of life. They will see God's care in the most troubled time. They don't deduce their life to a simple calculation that all favorable situations or persons reveal God's presence and all the unfavorable indicates the absence of God to them. Rather their faith in God's presence to be everywhere interprets for them the meaning and value of each situation or person. It is not the situation that dictates life to them. But it is God's pervading presence that provides the gift of life in every situation.

This Sunday June 21st at 12:15 pm mass Fr. Robert Dahlke celebrates with us his Golden Jubilee – 50 years of his Priestly ministry. Let us celebrate with him at the mass and share our felicitation with him at Walden Hall after the mass. We extend our heart-felt thanks for his priestly service to our parish over sixteen years. As we get a new associate, Fr. Harold Noviello, to our Parish, Fr. Dahlke will be retiring from his ministry to our parish. All are welcome to wish him on his Golden Jubilee and to bid him farewell. Let us thank him and wish him well.

On June 24th Fr. Harold Noviello arrives at our Parish as Associate Pastor. He will celebrate masses on the next weekend (June 27-28) and onwards. Let us thank God for the gift of his priestly ministry. Let us wish him well. Let us pray for him that God bless our Parish Family through his ministry.

Next Sunday June 28, we will celebrate all the graduates of the class of 2015 at the 10:45 am mass. We invite all graduates with their families to join us in celebrating and praying for them, that they may be guided and blessed by God for a bright and prosperous future.

Next weekend June 27-28 our diocese will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which provides the Holy Father with the funds he needs to carry out his most important charitable works. The proceeds benefit the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Through your generosity, we can cast the peace of Christ upon the world.

PARISH OUTREACH

Summer Thoughts....

We have noticed that some of our generous parishioners have been cleaning out their basements and garages...and while we applaud their zeal for "Spring Cleaning", please be advised that we cannot take non-food items here at Outreach, because we do not have storage space!! St. Vincent de Paul would probably be happy to take them, however, so give them a call at 516-822-3923 to see what they can do for you!!

Summer vacations will be starting...and little annoyances such as splinters may come your way...well, have we got a solution for you! You will be able to remove a splinter easily by applying a paste of baking soda and water, waiting several minutes, and then voila!! The splinter will pop out of the skin. Okay, so we solved your nasty splinter problem...now please don't forget our nasty food (or lack thereof) problem. Please donate what you can...because our need is a continuing one.

St Vincent de Paul Conference

What we do: The St Thomas More SVdP Conference helps relieve some of the burden put on Outreach. When the demand on Outreach goes beyond food and daily necessities, Outreach calls us. We contact the neighbor in need and arrange to meet with them in their home. We help by paying bills, networking, finding jobs, and providing clothes and necessary furniture.

What we have been doing: As Summer approaches, and school ends, our calls for assistance do not take a vacation. Some of our neighbors have needed aid with back rent, monthly bills and legal issues. Please use, and or give our telephone number to any neighbor whom you think could use our help (648-2760). Also, please email us at svdp.stm@aol.com with any questions or ideas that may be helpful. Please do not forget to "Like Us" on our Facebook page: SVdP Conference of St. Thomas More before June 30 as an anonymous person will donate $500 to our conference if we get 500 "Likes" by that date. (We still need some more LIKES!). Thank You to All for your support.

Donations can be made as follows:

Checks: SVdP St. Thomas More Conference

Cash: an envelope that says SVdP. Leave at the rectory.

Become a Vincentian. The only requirement is to have a desire to help. Together, as a conference, we offer the many skills and resources that enable us to assist those in our community.

Several of you have mentioned that you have thought about becoming a Vincentian. If that thought has entered your mind, just call our number or email us, and we would be happy to tell you all about us.

NEW WEBSITE—ST. THOMAS MORE

Did you know that St. Thomas More has a website? We've had one in various forms since 1996, but we have found that many parishioners don't always make use of it. Recently the STM Pastoral Council has been discussing social media and the Internet at length. Like most communities, we have a growing population of persons who use several types of electronic media to stay in touch with information and keep their lives organized. In order to more effectively communicate parish information, we will be making more use of Facebook and Twitter. We have also re-launched our website with a brand new design.

We even have a much easier to remember web address now: stmli.org (that stands for "St. Thomas More, Long Island").

The website can be viewed not only on your computer, but on a smartphone or tablet as well. You will be able to link to our parish Facebook page and get connected to the Facebook and Twitter accounts of our Religious Education program and our Youth Program.

We will have contributed articles and postings from several areas of the parish, including some of our ministries, and will have a calendar of events covering both regular events as well as the special ones that take place during seasons such as Lent and Advent. There will be several other features added to site in the coming weeks. For now, make sure you check out the new site by going to stmli.org and bookmark it for future use.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

As the Fortnight For Freedom: Freedom to Bear Witness draws near, Archbishop William Lori of Baltimore, Chairman, Ad Hoc Committee for Religious Liberty, sent a letter to the bishops providing materials for priests and staff to celebrate the Fortnight.

Archbishop Lori's message included, "I would like to take this opportunity to point out the excellent work being done in the Diocese of Rockville Centre in conjunction with a lay-led group called Catholics For Freedom of Religion. They have prepared materials for Catholic students in public schools who seek to bear witness to the faith in accordance with their constitutional rights. I am pleased to share the enclosed memorandum from Bishop William Murphy of Rockville Centre, transmitting those additional resources from the local level."

"Let us pray that the 2015 Fortnight For Freedom leads to an increasing respect for and appreciation of religious freedom and bearing witness to the truth of the Gospel!"

Please join us: June 25, 7:30 PM, Fortnight For Freedom Rally, Chaminade HS, 340 Jackson Ave, Mineola. Call to register for seating: 516-766-0161 or 631-896-8331

Keynote speaker: Prof. Robert P. George, a recipient of degrees from Swarthmore, Harvard and Oxford, a renowned speaker and brilliant intellectual, has been described as America's "most influential conservative thinker." As Chairman of the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom, he was praised as "a true human rights champion" and for his "wisdom about international religious freedom."

CIRCLE OF WOMEN

It is the mission of the Circle of Women Book Group to focus on the spiritual influence of contemporary writing that facilitates our own reflections of God's action in our daily lives.

We meet on the second Monday of the month at 2:30pm in Walden Hall. For further information and/or to register, call Marilyn at 234-5805 or Joan at 234-1739.

The Circle of Women will not meet during July and August. The next meeting will be on:

USING FAITH DIRECT? - It's quick and easy!

Consider having automatic deductions from either your checking or savings or use a credit card to support St. Thomas More each week. With Faith Direct, there is no fee to you! Please visit the Faith Direct website at www.FaithDirect.net to sign up: our church code is NY227. You may also use the form located where you obtain the bulletin. We thank you for your support.

UPDATING CREDIT CARD INFORMATION—If you get a new card or a renewal card, make sure that this information is communicated to Faith Direct.

CONTRIBUTION ENVELOPES—If you do not receive weekly envelopes and would like them mailed to you, please use the cut out that is in the bulletin and indicate that you wish to receive them on a regular basis. Usually it takes about two weeks for your request to be completed.

MAINTENANCE COLLECTION

We thank you for your support of our parish project to maintain our parish facilities. If you would like to help, please use a maintenance envelope where you obtain the bulletin.

CEREAL BOX TOP COUPONS—Drop them off in the Church lobby drop-off box and we will use them to buy things for the students in our regional school.

USED CELL PHONES—We thank everyone for giving us their old cell phones. We forward them to a convent that recycles them and uses the proceeds for the poor.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS—You can check online for any updates at <http://calendar.yahoo.com/stmreled>.

HOLY FAMILY REGIONAL SCHOOL, Commack, New York—Grades Nursery through 8th Grade. You may contact the school at parents@holyfamilyregional.com to schedule a tour of this parish's regional school, or visit the school website at www.holyfamilyregional.com

The students of Holy Family Regional School and their families attended the Long Island Ducks game on Sunday, June 7. Our singers were invited to sing the National Anthem, and they did a great job. Everyone had a wonderful afternoon, and the Ducks won the game 5-4.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

We will be mailing a check for $3,376 to Mary's Meals, an organization that feeds over a million poor children everyday at their place of learning. $2,870 was raised by the 7th graders, their parents and sponsors at the yard sale on May 16. The rest was raised by one 8th grade class that hosted an Easter bread making class March 22. Thank you to all the young people and their parents who worked to make it such a success. Thank you to all the parishioners who supported them.
