Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

November 20, 2016
The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ
the King of the Universe
2 Samuel 5:1-3
Psalm 122:1-2, 3-4, 4-5
Colossians 1:12-20
Luke 23: 35-43

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke:

The rulers sneered at Jesus and said,

“He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God.”

Even the soldiers jeered at him. As they approached to offer him wine they called out,

“If you are King of the Jews, save yourself.”

Above him there was an inscription that read, “This is the King of the Jews.”

Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying,

“Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us.”

The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply,

“Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal.”

Then he said,

“Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.”

He replied to him,

“Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise.”

Focus Questions:

1. What helps you believe that Jesus remembers you?
2. Jesus showed mercy to the good thief. How do you show mercy to others?
3. What are you holding onto that you need to let go in order to forgive.

Family and children's question:

Thanksgiving is this week. How can you reach out to others and share with those who are less fortunate?

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Abraham Lincoln once said: "The best thing about the future is that it comes only one day at a time." The future is a mystery. We don't know what it will bring. On the other hand, as T. S. Eliot would say, "Time present and time past/Are both perhaps present in time future/And time future contained in time past," we try to interpret the mystery of the future with past experiences or try to predict it with the present because it is too much for us to bear the mystery of the future.

Today's Gospel teaches us how to handle the mystery of the future. Living the present with the grace of God is the best way to face the future. Jesus warns about future troubles and turmoil, sufferings and sudden attacks from nature, rulers and peoples. In all these situations Jesus asks us not to prepare a defense beforehand for he himself would give us wisdom to speak and defend, that all our adversaries would be powerless to resist and refute. Only our perseverance will secure our lives.

Jesus admonishes us to live our PRESENT fully well. Engaging our total self to live our present in God's grace will lift us up from the burden of the past and the anxiety of the future. Future is a mystery in so far as it invites us to live our present well as a preparation to embrace its newness. The future is a mystery in so far as it is not out of God's control. As God brought us out of the past to this present time God will also lead us through an unknown future. Let us live our present as God's gift to liberate us from the clutches of the past and the anxieties of the future.

Calendar Club 2017: The Calendar Club is open for 2017. This week the bulletin carries the form for the Calendar Club 2017. Please show your support by joining the Calendar club. You can also consider giving the Calendar Club to someone as a Christmas or Birthday gift. The Calendar Club is a good way of fund raising for the Parish.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

PARISH OUTREACH

We will be gathering extra food to give to our clients for their Thanksgiving dinner; please start thinking about any food you can donate for that celebration of life and survival. Many of our clients are in that mode every day, as they cope with their situations. If you are considering donating a turkey, please keep in mind that many of our families are small at Outreach; a fifteen-lb. Turkey would be more than sufficient! Some other food items that you might consider donating are canned corn, peas or carrots, or stuffing, gravy, potatoes, refrigerated rolls or desserts or any other traditional item. Anything you donate would be more than welcome, and so greatly appreciated.

AND...

It's not too early to be thinking about Christmas and all the joyful activities that happen at this time of year. Our "Giving Tree" will be set up again this year with all the various cards of suggestions for items to donate, whether it be hats, mittens, pajamas, toys or gift cards. Please keep this tree in the back of your mind as you celebrate Thanksgiving, and all that you are grateful for...

Remember to take a deep breath and prioritize what is important at this time of year; many times we get so overwhelmed by a quantity of items on our "to do" list that everything becomes equally urgent. That's not so; taking time to reflect is also important...so is taking time to ENJOY!!!!

St Vincent de Paul Conference

As we prepare to celebrate our national Thanksgiving holiday,
As we sit down at table to indulge in our favorite holiday foods,
Please remember our neighbors who have so much less, who struggle to meet all their basic necessities and Yet are thankful to all of our St. Thomas More community for your generosity, for Sharing the Spirit of Love, and for your prayers!
May God Bless You!

CATHOLICS FOR FREEDOM OF RELIGION

*Reflections from George Washington,
June 29, 1788:*

"No one can rejoice more than I do, at every step the people of this great country take to preserve the Union, establish good order and government, and to render the nation happy at home and respectable abroad. No country upon earth ever had it more in its power to attain these blessings than the United States of America.

"Wondrously strange then, and much to be regretted indeed, would it be, were we to neglect the means, and to depart from the road which Providence has pointed us, ...we may now and then get bewildered; but I hope and trust that there is good sense and virtue enough left to recover the right path before we shall be entirely lost."

Growing Hostility to Religion in America:

One law firm dedicated to defending attacks on religious liberty (there are now many such law firms) documented 600 such attacks in 2012. By the end of 2015, they identified over 1,200 such attacks - double the number in just three years. These include hostility to religious expression in the public square, targeting America's religious heritage in public places, religious expression in our public schools, punishing religious business owners for their decisions, and threats to free speech and free exercise. (christianity.com/christian-life; realclearreligion.org)

"If we ever forget we are one nation under God, then we will be a nation gone under."

President Ronald Reagan

Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services

Thank you to everyone who participated in the Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services. Your prayers and support are truly a blessing. As Catholics in a worldwide faith community, we treasure our belief that we may be continually transformed by participation in the sacraments. The Archbishop, clergy and staff of the Archdiocese thank everyone for sharing the mission through your prayerful and generous support.

Parish History Project

We are putting together a video documentary of our parish's history for the Golden Jubilee. We would like to include personal effects and memories you might have.

Right now we are focusing on the years 1967-1978. What we need:

- Photos/videos of any of the priests/transitional deacons (this can certainly be pictures from the sacraments, like baptism or a wedding), especially if they are from the original factory church, or any other items like prayer cards, buttons, flyers, etc. (we have the bulletins already).
Your personal memories: were you part of the early years, perhaps serving on a committee, teaching religion, or just a part of the parish? We would love to interview you and get your story!

If you can help us out, please contact us at a special email address we've set up: history@stmli.org, or, if you run into me, please feel free to speak about it directly. Thank you!!
