Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

July 23, 2017
Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Wisdom 12:13, 16-19
Psalm 86:5-6, 9-10, 15-16 (5a)
Romans 8:26-27
Matthew 13:24-43

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew:

Jesus proposed another parable to the crowds, saying:

"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field. While everyone was asleep his enemy came and sowed weeds all through the wheat, and then went off. When the crop grew and bore fruit, the weeds appeared as well. The slaves of the householder came to him and said, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where have the weeds come from?'

He answered, 'An enemy has done this.'

His slaves said to him, 'Do you want us to go and pull them up?' He replied, 'No, if you pull up the weeds you might uproot the wheat along with them.

Let them grow together until harvest; then at harvest time I will say to the harvesters,

'First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles for burning; but gather the wheat into my barn.'"

Focus questions:

1. Have you ever felt your spiritual growth wither? What did you do?
2. How do you respond to the people in your life who are like weeds, choking the plants, keeping you from growing?
3. Describe a time when something good began as a small thing and mushroomed into something larger than you thought.

Family and children's question:

Talk about how you and your family can take better care of the earth by reducing, recycling and re-using.

CONGRATULATIONS BISHOP PEREZ

Pope Francis, on July 11, 2017 appointed our own Bishop Nelson Perez to serve as the 11th Bishop of Cleveland! Bishop-designate Perez will assume leadership of the Diocese during a Mass of Installation on Tuesday, September 5, 2017 at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist.

We assure Bishop Perez of our prayers and wish him well.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Employer: We want a responsible man for this job.

Applicant: Well, I guess I'm your man. In all the other jobs I have worked at, whenever anything went wrong, they told me I was responsible.

We are always responsible either for what we do or for what we do not do. Our life is in our hands. When we don't make it we lose it.

In today's Gospel Jesus compares our life to a seed. It is our responsibility either to just remain as a seed or to allow ourselves to be thrown at the right soil and nurtured in the right way. Our germinating and growing, flowering and bearing fruit depend on where we would allow our seed to fall. Our choice of being on the road will make our capacity to germinate to be stolen away by anybody who passes us by. If we happen to sow our seed on the rock of habits and convenient philosophies, we will not have enough soil of grace to grow and will soon dry and wither away without growth.

If we choose to fall among the bush, we will easily be choked by various useless thoughts and lazy convictions. But if we allow ourselves to fall on good soil, we, as the God-created seed, will bear fruit to our full capacity. May all our prayers and meditations enrich our belief in God, to realize our real potential as God's seed.

The Capital Campaign: Your generosity has made the campaign thermometer to rise over $ 650,000. We have met 2/3 of our goal of a million dollars. Thank you for your generosity. I thank all those who have already pledged their contribution. If you have not pledged yet I would kindly suggest you to pray over it. May God continue to bless you and inspire you to make the right offering. As St. Paul writes to his believers in Corinth, God loves a cheerful giver. (2 Cor. 9:7). As we pray in our Jubilee prayer, we are the now-recipients of what our former generation gave us. Thus through our contribution we will make our future generation as recipients of our present giving.

We are bringing out a Journal in celebration and commemoration of our Parish Golden Jubilee. We invite you to memorialize yourselves and your family by printing your pictures in them for a minimum price. Frank Bayer, who captures all the celebrative moments of the parish, has come forward to photograph the families. He will be available after weekend masses in Walden Hall during the last weekend of July (29-30) and first two weekends of August (5-6 & 12-13).

Please find in this bulletin a form of how you can sponsor space in the journal with your family pictures. For samples please visit our website www.stmli.org. We are our sweet memories in our Parish History. Let us put our happy faces with wishes for many more years as St. Thomas More Family.

Baptized in St. Thomas More: In June we celebrated the married couples united by the sacrament of marriage. On the last Sunday of July we are planning to celebrate those who were baptized in St. Thomas More. We invite parents with their children to join this celebration. All you need to do is to call the Rectory and sign up for it. Please find an invitation flyer in this bulletin for this event.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

PARISH OUTREACH

We're into our summer "routine". For some of us, it's work, but then we get to go to the beach whenever we can....for some of us, it's babysitting for non-camp grandchildren who are out of school for the summer, and for others, well, it's an amazing variety of lifestyle choices. Some of us, though, don't have choices. Some of the people living in the St. Thomas More parish boundary are in poverty. They worry about food to feed their children...about gas for their car (if they have one) and clothes for the family. We don't help with clothing (we direct them to St. Vincent de Paul Society) but we can help with food. We do that mainly through the generosity and compassion of our parishioners, who donate what they can. Please continue to do that...we depend on you!

And did you know.... Between 1838 and 1960, more than half of all photographs taken were of babies?

St Vincent de Paul Conference

DID YOU KNOW?

" Vincentians are called to journey together toward holiness."

With this in mind, several of us travelled to the south Bronx early one morning. We were headed toward the convent of the Missionaries of Charity, at St. Rita's parish. Our goal was to help the nuns and volunteers prepare lunch for 52 people from the community. We chopped, sliced, washed, served and cleaned, all the while praying the rosary! (They also provide a homeless shelter for 20 men).

When work was done, we were able to pray in the sisters' chapel and view some of Mother Teresa's mementos. She is the founder of this order. It was a tiring, but energizing day.

The nuns we met clearly put into action the words of Mother Teresa:

"God so loved the world that He gave His only Son.

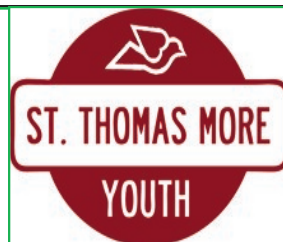

God still loves the world and sends you and me to be His love,

His compassion to the poor."

Now a question for you. Have you ever thought of joining our conference?

Just call 631 648 2760 for information

Orthodox Jewish Community
 Beats Back Challenge to Religious Liberty - for now:

California: On June 23, 2017, a second CA court rejected a lawsuit against Chabad of Irvine, a small Orthodox Jewish Synagogue, but it is still under legal attack. Animal rights groups, attempting to block the congregation from participating in their religious atonement ritual that takes place between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kipper, have now appealed to the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals - just one step below the U.S. Supreme Court.

During the centuries-old religious ceremony, the atonement of sins is contemplated through prayer and the humane, Kosher killing of chickens, reminding participants of their own mortality. "To be ordered to stop our religious practice because some refuse to tolerate our beliefs was deeply distressing," said Rabbi Alter Tenenbaum.

Had the first and second lawsuits been successful, the synagogue's religious ceremony would have been declared a "business practice," putting at risk the religious practices of every mosque, church, temple, synagogue, or house of worship by transforming their religious ceremonies into government-regulated business practices.

The Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals will hear the challenge to religious liberty in November.

"While Americans presume that the Constitution guarantees their rights, in practice, our rights survive or disappear based on how firmly we defend them."

Parish History Project

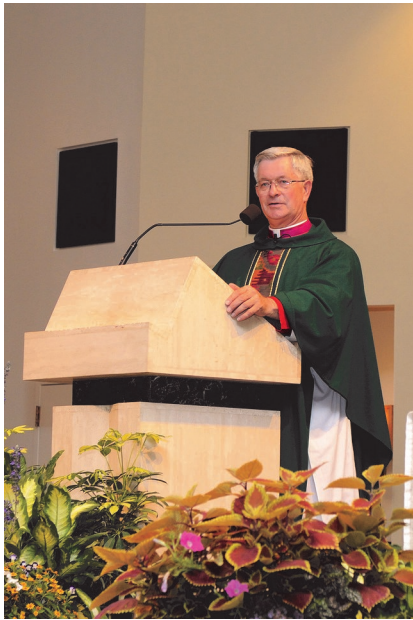

We are working on collecting and duplicating the final items for our parish history project. The next few months will be spent in completing the video editing so that it may be shown to the parish in September.

We are still looking for those who would like to share their memories of the past at St. Thomas More on video. If you would like to participate in being interviewed, even if it's just a short memory to share, kindly contact us at the special email address we've setup: history@stmli.org (or feel free to speak to me about it if you run into me).

Any materials which have been lent to the project for duplication will be returned, if they've not been already, over the next couple of weeks. Those materials which were not identified with an owner's name will be placed into the official parish archives in the Rectory.

Thank you!

Over $690,000 Pledged – Thank You! Help Us Reach Our Goal

On behalf of Father Antony and the campaign committee we thank you for your strong support for our capital campaign. As of this past week, 220 families have returned their pledge for a total of $695,412. The campaign is being conducted on the basis of equal sacrifice, not equal giving. Not every family can make the same size pledge, but every family can make the same size sacrifice.

Campaign Brochure Mailed to Every Family

The campaign brochure outlining the proposed projects have been mailed. Please read it over carefully and prayerfully and consider how you can help. To make your families gift, use the pledge envelope included in the mailing. Your pledge can be paid monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually over a period of three or four years. For example, a pledge of $2,500, can be paid with 48 monthly installments of $47 after a 10% down payment of $250. A down payment is not necessary to begin your pledge. All amounts are welcomed and appreciated!

ST. THOMAS MORE'S CHILDREN'S CHOIR

The Children's Choir is looking to expand its membership. Children grow richer in spirit when they participate in community activities. They too are a part of the Body of Christ, and they will always remember singing in the choir.

We will be rehearsing from 5:30 to 6:30 pm on Thursdays in the church and we will be singing at the 9:15 am Sunday Mass. We invite all children 2nd Grade and above to join our group of choristers. Parents are most welcome to sing along with their children weekly if they would like to encourage their children to participate. Rehearsals will resume on September 7th.

Jesus said "Let the little children come to Me." What better way than to come to Him with joyous song?
