Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

September 10, 2017
 Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
 Ezekiel 33: 7-9
 Psalm 95: 1-2, 6-7, 8-9
 Romans 13: 8-10
 Matthew 18: 15-20

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew:

Jesus said to his disciples:

"If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother. If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, so that 'every fact may be established on the testimony of two or three witnesses.'

If he refuses to listen to them, tell the church. If he refuses to listen even to the church, then treat him as you would a Gentile or a tax collector.

Amen, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again, amen, I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father.

For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

Focus questions:

1. How many grudges do you carry? Relate a time when you got rid of a grudge.
2. How easy/hard is it for you to confront another person?

3. Describe a situation when you gathered with fellow believers and felt Jesus in your midst.

Family and children's question:

Talk about a time when your prayers were answered but not as you expected them to be answered.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

I read a wise saying. “The dull thing about taking the straight and narrow path is that you seldom meet anybody you know.” Jesus said something to this effect, “How narrow the gate and constricted the road that leads to life. And those who find it are few.” (Matt. 7:14)

Today's Gospel speaks about the narrow and painful path that Jesus has to walk. It is the continuation of last week's gospel. Peter was complemented by Jesus for having revealed that Jesus is the Messiah. The same Peter is rebuked by Jesus for having ill-advised Jesus not to take the narrow path of crucifixion, death and resurrection. Then Jesus continues saying that his disciples must be ready to walk the same path of the cross to follow him.

Jesus is Messiah both in his power and suffering. He is not only a glorified Messiah by his miracles and wisdom filled words, but also a serving Messiah in sharing with us all the suffering and death. He not only shows who he is but also serves to show how much He loves us. As His disciples and followers we too are called to take up the path of not only showing how good and able we are but also how much we are willing to serve. Let us strive to follow Jesus in service willing to carry the cross, the burden of others, in love.

Golden Jubilee – May God renew and rebuild us: Since last December we have celebrated at least two events every month in grateful commemoration of what God has done in and for us for the past 50 years. The events were both social and spiritual celebrating God's love for us and our love for God and each other.

We hope to begin the work of the renovation of the Sanctuary on the first of October and complete it by Christmas. During the time of renovation the church will remain closed. We will have our daily and weekend masses and all the other sacramental celebrations in Walden and Kirwin Halls.

Please bear with the inconvenience. Our patience and co-operation to accommodate the inconveniences with a smile will be a God-given moment of grace to build and grow as community of love and service. Thank you for your understanding.

New long-lasting and energy efficient bulbs have been installed in the Parking lot. As a result our Parking Lot is brightly illuminated. The new paving for the parking lot will begin next year.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

PARISH OUTREACH

Whew!!! We made it through the Back-to-School-Giveaway...and thanks to your fabulous generosity, we made so many children and their parents so happy for the beginning of school!!! However, it's not like we can rest on our laurels – there will always be needy people, and it will always be up to those who have enough to be able to share, to do just that. For those of you who have an overabundance of produce from your garden, bring it to Outreach...our clients would love fresh food! The next best things you could bring are those items that are so appreciated: cereals, soups, coffee, toothpaste, peanut butter, pastas, tomato sauce, tuna fish, mayonnaise, canned vegetables, shampoo, cleaning supplies, soaps, etc. Please do not donate outdated food.

Today's fact: Starch is used as a binder in the production of paper. It is the use of starch coating that controls ink penetration when printing. Cheaper papers do not use as much starch, and this is why your elbows get black when you are leaning over your morning paper.

And today's household hint: If you accidentally over-salt a dish while cooking, drop in a peeled potato. It will absorb the excess salt.

St Vincent de Paul Conference

" A Thank You From A Neighbor In Need"

.....just wanted to thank you and everyone for all your help once again. I (and my daughter) would be homeless without you and hope one day to be in a position to give back.....

Sometimes working with our neighbors in need is a quick exchange of information and minimum use of resources; other times our assistance takes months of work and many resources (as in this situation)

CATHOLICS FOR FREEDOM OF RELIGION

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

www.cffor.org

As this new school year begins, let us empower our children.

Help them learn they are "Free to Be - Students of Faith"

Catholics For Freedom of Religion has developed a powerful lesson to inform students, parents and teachers about "THE BIG SECRET" - that "Public Schools are not God-Free Zones!" This lesson presents important information from the U.S. Department of Education and the First Amendment to the Constitution. Over 2,500 have heard this lesson so far, and frequent comments are: "I didn't know these facts." "Every parent and student should know this!"

There is a misperception that bringing religion into schools in any form is prohibited, resulting in students being silenced, shamed and even disciplined for protected speech and behaviors. This perception is wrong since there are strong protections for student religious expression at many appropriate times in public schools. For instance:

1. Students can express their faith at school, unless it's disruptive or coercive. They can comment about their own religious views in class or in assignments as long as it's related to the discussion.
2. Students can pray alone or in groups as long as the school doesn't sponsor the event and others aren't pressured to participate.
3. Public schools can teach about religious holidays or religious practices and discuss their influence on our culture so long as it is objective rather than devotional.
5. Choirs can sing and orchestras can play sacred music; book lists can include religiously themed literature, and drama students can enact religious plays - all as part of the school's academic program, especially when mixed with secular works.
6. Students can form religious groups and clubs when the school allows non curriculum-related clubs.

Religious freedoms in our country protect, in law, the rights of children to live their faith among their peers in many appropriate school situations each day. Learning these religious liberties will clarify to students, parents and teachers that schools are not God-free zones.
