Growing through the Sunday Scriptures

January 14, 2018
Second Sunday of Ordinary Time
1 Samuel 3:3B-10, 19
Psalm: 40:2, 4, 7-8. 8-9. 10
1 Corinthians 6:13C-15A, 17-20
John 1:35-42

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

John was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he said,

"Behold, the Lamb of God."

The two disciples heard what he said and followed Jesus.

Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them,

"What are you looking for?"

They said to him, "Rabbi" — which translated means Teacher —, "where are you staying?"

He said to them, "Come, and you will see."

So they went and saw where Jesus was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about four in the afternoon.

Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard John and followed Jesus. He first found his own brother Simon and told him,

"We have found the Messiah" — which is translated Christ —.

Then he brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, "You are Simon the son of John; you will be called Cephas" — which is translated Peter.

Focus questions:

1. Describe a time when you had a choice that would influence the rest of your life.

2. Andrew called Peter to come and see Jesus. The call to follow Jesus is often heard through another person or group. Who has helped you deepen your relationship with Jesus?

3. What are you looking for in your spiritual life?

Family and children's question:

The Gospel story tells of one brother, Andrew, bringing his brother, Peter, to Jesus. Who in your family has brought you to Jesus?

USING FAITH DIRECT? - It's quick and easy!

Consider having automatic deductions from either your checking or savings or use a credit card to support St. Thomas More each week. With Faith Direct, there is no fee to you! Please visit the Faith Direct website at www.FaithDirect.net to sign up: our church code is NY227. You may also use the form located where you obtain the bulletin. We thank you for your support.

UPDATING CREDIT CARD INFORMATION—If you get a new card or a renewal card, make sure that this information is communicated to Faith Direct.

CONTRIBUTION ENVELOPES—If you do not receive weekly envelopes and would like them mailed to you, please use the cut out that is in the bulletin and indicate that you wish to receive them on a regular basis. Usually it takes about two weeks for your request to be completed.

MAINTENANCE COLLECTION

We thank you for your support of our parish project to maintain our parish facilities. If you would like to help, please use a maintenance envelope where you obtain the bulletin.

CEREAL BOX TOP COUPONS—Drop them off in the Church lobby drop-off box and we will use them to buy things for the students in our regional school.

USED CELL PHONES—We thank everyone for giving us their old cell phones. We forward them to a convent that recycles them and uses the proceeds for the poor.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS—You can check online for any updates at <http://calendar.yahoo.com/stmreled>.

FR. ANTONY'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

The Epiphany of the Lord: Christmas says that God, the infinite mystery is born in the finite human categories of a particular race and culture, of time and space. The feast of the Epiphany proclaims that the human baby Jesus is God bound neither by a particular culture or group of people, nor constrained by a particular period of time or place. God in Jesus reveals to all, belongs to all and includes all in God's gracious plan of salvation.

The star that appears in the sky announces to all creation and every nation that God is born. The three wise persons from the East represent the people beyond the borders of the Jewish nation, race and culture in which Jesus was born. The Epiphany celebrates the divine truth that those who seek God will find God. The Lord reveals and only those who seek will recognize the revelation. The Lord is the light and we can see the reality of this light only when we open our eyes. The Epiphany shows who God is and invites us to see it. Let us open our eyes and recognize the Lord.

"20+G+M+B+18": The Epiphany is the time to celebrate our home as the home which recognizes God and invites God's grace to fill the house. You may have noticed that over the inside entrance of the Church are written in chalk: "20+C+M+B+18" which are the first letters of the names of the three kings - Caspar, Melchior and Balthazar enclosed within the year 2018. You can bless your home in the same way writing this inscription on the inside of the entrance of your home.. This signifies that God is revealing to us that we are the present day magi. God is not a God of Old times, but of our time, now, today of 2018.

Prayer for the blessing of the Home on Epiphany: Bless, + O Lord God almighty, this home, that in it there may be health, purity, the strength of victory, humility, goodness and mercy, the fulfillment of Thy law, the thanksgiving to God the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. And may this blessing remain upon this home and upon all who dwell herein. Through Christ our Lord.

2017 Contribution Statements: Soon after the New Year we will complete data entries of 2016 into our system. If you want a record of your 2017 contributions for tax purposes, please complete and return the cut-out in the bulletin and return it to the Church Office. We will begin mailing them out towards the end of January.

Calendar Club 2018: The Calendar Club is open until the end of January 2018. This week's bulletin carries the form for Calendar Club 2018. Please show your support to the Calendar Club.

Faith Direct and Sacrificial Giving: We thank those who have signed up for Faith Direct as the way to fulfill their way of supporting the parish and other special collections which are deducted from a checking or saving account and thus transferred to our parish account. The other way is to have the support amount charged to a credit card. The parish is charged a credit card fee for this type of transaction. Either choice is acceptable and appreciated.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Antony

PARISH OUTREACH

Thank you, thank you, thank you! Your generosity this Christmas provided Christmas meals for 60 families in our community who otherwise would not have had food to eat. In addition Outreach collected almost 600 toys that were distributed to those in need, 85 infant outfits for babies of teenage/single mothers, and 35 sets of sheets for the residents of an independent living home. That does not include the gift cards to Walmart, ShopRite, and Target! I wish you could directly experience the gratitude of our clients when they realize they can have a Christmas meal and buy some gifts for their children!

*“When I was hungry, you gave me to eat; when I was thirsty you gave me to drink.
Whatsoever you do to the least of my brethren, you do it to Me. Come and enter the house of My Father.”*

St Vincent de Paul Conference

To our friends, benefactors, neighbors and fellow parishioners:

On this day, illumined by the gospel hope which springs from the humble stable of Bethlehem, I invoke the Christmas gift of joy and peace upon all: upon children and the elderly, upon young people and families, the poor and the marginalized. May Jesus, who was born for us, console all those afflicted by illness and suffering. May he sustain those who devote themselves to serving our brothers and sisters who are most in need.

Happy Christmas to all!

Partial Victory for First Amendment Freedoms:

A federal court judge ruled in mid-December that an Atlanta, GA, city policy requiring public employees to get permission to do other work outside their city employment, that led to the firing of Fire Chief Kevin Cochran in 2015, was unconstitutional. The long-time fire chief had a distinguished career that included an appointment by Pres. Obama as the U.S. Fire Administrator. Nevertheless, he was fired for authoring and self-publishing a book for his men's Bible study that upholds the biblical view on sexuality.

"Atlanta can no longer require employees to get permission from the city for speech unrelated to work or punish them if they don't," said an Alliance Defending Freedom attorney. "This win protects all city employees wanting to engage in 'controversial' speech - whether that be what the Bible has to say about marriage or what Charlie Brown and the Bible have to say about Christmas."

However, the Atlanta city attorney is also declaring victory. "We are pleased that Judge May ruled that the mayor acted lawfully and appropriately in terminating Mr. Cochran's employment. ... (This lawsuit) is an employment matter involving an executive in charge of more than 1,100 firefighters and tasked to lead by example."

For now, Cochran's case will continue through the courts to determine if the chief gets his job back and receives some compensation.

Chief Cochran said, "It's still unthinkable to me that the very faith and patriotism that inspired my professional achievements and drove me to treat all people with love and equity is what the government ultimately used to bring my dream career to an end. All Americans are guaranteed the freedom of actually believing and thinking in such a way that does not cost them the consequences that I've experienced in this termination."

DIOCESE OF ROCKVILLE CENTRE ANNOUNCES DEADLINE EXTENSION FOR INDEPENDENT RECONCILIATION AND COMPENSATION PROGRAM

The Diocese of Rockville Centre announced that the deadline to file for Phase I of the Independent Reconciliation and Compensation Program (IRCP) for survivors of sexual abuse by clergy of the Diocese of Rockville Centre has been extended to January 31, 2018. The first phase of the IRCP was originally scheduled to end on December 31, 2017.

Any person wishing to file a new claim alleging sexual abuse not previously reported to the diocese may be eligible to participate in Phase II of the program when it is implemented in early 2018. These reports will be turned over to the local District Attorney and investigated fully prior to a determination by the IRCP. To learn more about the Independent Reconciliation and Compensation Program, please visit the diocesan website — www.drvc.org and click on "Independent Reconciliation and Compensation Program" to access full program information.
